Chapter 10 - Life	14
Chapter 11 - Love?	15

1 - My Heart

How much more can I take Scars and cuts
Breaks and bruises

It feels like I've been bitten by a snake
Slithering and crawling Poison and fangs

You can't imagine the pain
Stings and throbbing
Pounding and poking

As I stand in the rain Drizziling and dropping Pouring and dripping

I will wait for you
Standing and waiting
Watching and wondering

But only if you knew
Around and loving Holding and caring

2 - Keri, Carry On

Keri you know better
Even though you're blazer
Remember you are young
In my mind your name is sung

Even though you have to stay here for now Live your life and dont forget how Another day you must live for tomorrow
In your eyes where there once was sorrow Now lies happiness that you allow Even though you dream for new day

Maybe one day it will come Otherwise dont become Ordinary like other people
Remember to be cheerful Enough is enough let go on

Keri
Carry on Nothing is going to stop you now
All you gotta do is remember how you got to where you are Keri
Carry on
Just remember the love we shared
and remember the ones who cared
and you will make it far

When you are around you are on my mind
Because you are loving and kind
But even if you dont care
When you are away you are there

No matter who leaves first I will still have a thirst
For the love of the one
But i am done

I'm done this Im tired of the swing and miss
You are the one i want

All you do is taunt

Keri

Carry on

Nothing is going to stop you now

All you gotta do is remember how
you got to where you are

Keri

Carry on

Just remember the love we shared

I know

It will never be

Because it is she

Who does not want me

I know

I must move on

AND hope she miss me when im gone

To her i am just a peon

Now Go

Live your life

Just go

Do what's right

Keri

Carry on

Nothing is going to stop you now

All you gotta do is remember how
you got to where you are

Keri

Carry on

Just remember the love we shared
and you will make it far

You will make it far.

3 - Friends Till The End

This is one thing that has crossed my mind Along with many
When i send you love
You give back Plenty

You have a warm smile which i thank you for because it birghtens my day
When you walk through that door

But you are one person i will surely miss but before i leave
i ask for but one kiss

That one thing would fill me with joy and make be feel like a young boy

You are the one i want
The only one for me
But i must do something which is let it be

So if you do care which i hope you do the one thing i really want is you and only you

If i had this one little thing i would be happy and sing...just sing

Now my qestion is Can this all come true will it ever be Just me and you ^^

FRIENDS TILL THE END I LOVE YOU

4 - Your Smile

You push me away and pull me back in I hate you and then i love you I cant stand the sight of you then i hate to see you leave

Move on and dream
but never let go
The purpose of life
we dont know
The only thing to do is to live it to the fullest

Any guy is lucky to have you
but only if you knew
That i have been here and always will
and when you smile
ah
it warms me still

5 - Start Again

I am done with this
No more hurting
No more pain
No more sorrow
No more shame

I wont take it
Depression stops
Cutting Ends
Because I have God
And amazing friends

You are the one
The one for me
The reason to live
The reason to be

Listen to me Listen up and Listen good I'm done with this and Life is good

I will go on
'Cus i found God
I go to church and
I sit and I nod

Now I Understand
What to do Because I must Start over new

Why must I
Hurt anymore
Suffer any longer
Because it made Me stronger?

Moving on
Is what im doing

So why cant you Come and do
The same thing too

Love
Is what we need
What we all need Its what we have
Because of a great deed

He Died for us
Died for our sin
So we must listne
And start again

6 - KCK

You are beautiful
In every single way
You are beautiful
By night or by day

You are Nice
In both ways
So i have to ask You to stay

Nice in the way
That is kind
And keeps you
Forever on my mind

And nice in the way
That is well...
Naughty but only those Who are close can tell

You are special
In your own kind of way
Which is why
You get me through the day

You get me through the night
When i have it bad
You help me through a lot
Even if im sad

You are quiet
But thats ok
Because its me
And i like you that way

You like to talk
But are shy
But i Help you through everything
When you begin to cry

You are beautiful
But give me a sec

You are beautiful
You are

7 - Sleepless Nights

Have you ever had one?
A sleepless night?
The kind where your body
puts up a fight?

Different people
Different ways to tire
Some just lie in bed
Some sit by the fire

But why is it?
That we cant sleep?
Is it a bad dream or secrets that we keep.

Could it be the people on our minds that make us crazy?
of all kinds?

Or is it the people
that we love?
The ones who stick around when push comes to shove.

Sometimes Im's grateful for these sleepless nights it somehow keeps the people you love near, close, and around....just right.

8 - Growing Up

Everyone does it whether it is wanted or not

Everyone loses something if not everything because of it

Girls will grow up
They will move on and have kids

Teenageers will graduate Leaving most if not all of their firends behind

Some will move away
To live a better life
among others

Some will lose friends not by choice but because of death

I know all of these can or will happen

Because i have lived every part of this along with much more to come

9 - Hello?

Hello?
Is anyone there?
Im beginning to think that no one cares

I tell you things
In a serious tone
And you laugh at me for reasons unknown

If i confront you
You will deny it
But i will know
That you dont care a bit

Blood is what you want but you cant do it yourself
So you find ways to depress me
And make me do it myself

If you reall did care
You wouldnt let razor meet skin
You would undo this noose
You would take the gun from my chin

How you do it with simple things
I will never know
But somehow i know you love
Will always show

10 - Life

Its full of surprises isnt it?
The Happiness it gives or the days you dont give a shoot

Life is a wonderful thing it can give you anything you want or have you hanging by a string

It may want you to stay Itll give you something amazing and snatch it away

Even in your darkest hour when you are inside looking out when falls from the sky a little shower

You long to be out
You want it so bad you feel...
You feel you must shout

You long to be happy
You long to not be alone
But you realize ur life is crappy

Your life may be a shell
And it takes no time
No time at all to realize you live in hell

Its worse when you have friends...
Friends who have experienced these things
But these friends will never leave you Because true friends are friends till the end

11 - Love?

What is it exactly?
Is it just emotion?
A felling of sorts?

Or is it something a bit more physical?
something you can see something you can touch

Is it attainable for all?
Can we all obtain it?
Can we all receive it?

Or is it just for few?
The one's who dont need it
The one's who take it for granted

We all might give love
But do we all receive it?
Do we make it available to everyone?

When someone is in trouble
We extend a helping hand
Help with with all of our love

Why is it that when they are a bit better...
Why do we take it all away?
As if it is no longer needed

Love is physical and emotional Physical for our significant others Emotional for the people we long for Having both is no easy task

It is very rare we are with them
Rarely anyone is with their true love

But to deny that we have ever loved
Is the biggest lie I've ever heard Because to not love...is impossible
