A poem about sprites. Ya know? Those little 2-D dudes living in your Gameboy?

Nostalgic

Flowing across the shimmering screen
Gracefully colliding, yet doing no damage
Doing as told, yet acting on their own

Flying through at the speed of light
Beautifully dancing, yet not making a move
Running across feilds, yet walking underwater

Created by mice connected to the world
Mercilessly killing, yet writing no casualties
Moving freely, yet motion is limited

Moving to the music shouted through the holes
Happily bending reality, yet unable to convey emotion
Nonexistent, yet all too real
