1 - Those Who Were Taken

Those who were taken,
I was only in first grade,
Those two planes crashed, that was unmistakable,
To those who's gravestone's fade,
It was a tough day for the people in the towers,
Some who were in the building had to make a tough choice and tell their families good bye,
Those men and women who were lost, on their graves we put flowers,
They had the choice on how to die; burn, or fall from the sky,
All those who were taken, all those who were lost,
They had to pay the price of other peoples cost
