1 - The real first one.

~~Me~~

I am a person

People get on my nerves.

Really fast.

I don't like it when the radio and tv are on at the same time and I hate it when the web page doesn't load.

Runescape is okay

but the people who yell at me there for saying Hi to them make me mad

Anime is cool

if you say it isn't I don't care.

Manga is cool too.

Yet again I don't care if you tell me it isn't cool I'll read it anyway.

When my mind is set It will stay like that untill I have hard proof I'm wrong.

You can NOT change my opinion.

EVER.

I hate High School Musical.

I'm just trying to survive Middle school until I get to Penn.

I Like hard rock.

Rappists are Rapeists.

pop singers are high.

Just look at brittney spears.

J-pop is an acception.

Like Utada Hiraku

People don't always under stand what other people say.

I am often one of those people.

I like my hat.

I also like the leaf my friend put there.

Don't laugh at it.

and obviously I DO like to rip leaves off of trees to decorate my hats with.

Is it being a hipacrate to take leaves to put on hats to say I care for the environment???

oh well.

I like to say Rawr.

And la la could sometimes mean hello.

Yes.

Those are my favrite words.

German music is cool

And J-rock is cooler.

Nightmare and Glay are my favrite bands.

Yet again I'll say I like Utada Hiraku.

Simple and Clean is my favrite song of her's.

Yes.

I do play Kingdom Hearts.

I like to play Okami

Susano is an idiot

Waka is gay.

even though Issun is a perv.

yet I still love him so much

I feel bad for poor Amaterasu.

She's stuck with retards.

To draw is my life

Painting is what I live for though

I want to be famous someday

But If I make someone happy with my paintings or drawings

I don't need to be famous.

Maybe that's already happened

maybe it hasn't.

Don't use being a rat as any type of way to dis someone.

Rats are great pets.

My best pet I ever had was a rat.

his name was Shadoe.

His ghost might still be here.

Yes.

He has left me though.

He left the friday before Christmas.

I would hate him for that.

But I love him too much.

Valor is my rat today.

Dylan is my little sister's rat.

They Fight.

A LOT.

No really.

We had to seperate them.

Valor gets the top half of the cage.

They are seperated by the three put on one level side by side.

Jealousy really gets to me sometimes.

You probably won't see it.

I don't get jealous when I see someone draw something reallly good and put it online to show it to the world.

I get jealous when I see the picture in person.

That's called chalanging me.

I don't like it when people think they are better than me.
Especially when I still like mine more and they insist their's is better than mine.
But what makes me so much more jealous. . .
Is when one of my friends who used to go out with my boyfriend Dakota. . .
sounds like she still likes him.
I know she isn't trying to make me mad,
but I don't want Dakota to leave me.
Even if he doesn't like her.
I can never be so sure.
She's inviting him to her birthday party next weekend.
But what hurts me is that I'm supposed to give him his invitation.
I'll try and hide I'm jealous.
So that I don't ruin her party.
Because she's still my friend.

There is almost no doubt that she will read this at one point or another.
So I'll say it now.
Please don't mention this.
I really don't want to talk much about this.
It will tell me you want to make me more jealous.
and it will.

It's kind of hard to go on after that.
but I'll try.

The older arcade games are fun.
I don't like the new games that the creators spend more time on the graphics than all else.
Like the important crap.
You know, STORY LINE!!
The older spyro games beat that new one I just bought.
and sold.
What was it. . . a new beggining?
I beat it in less than a week.
I still haven't beaten the games I've had forever.
Season of Flame
Season of Ice
A hero's Tail.(with that I've gotten close but then my data got curruped)
Enter the Dragonfly.
Year of the Dragon.
Year of the Dragon might be a bad example because I have beatan it.
but I haven't gotten everything done in the game yet.
I really can't tell if there is more than 117%.

Maybe there is.
probably not.
I still play it though.
and to make this game bigger in my head. . .
Year of the Dragon was what got me into video games.
no really.

This is obviously my poem of no return.
Because I could go on forever.
by starting another paragraph with something dumb like toast is so sexy!
Even though that's not what I say much.
It's kind of an inside joke.
If you want in on it go ask GreyPichu.
because I think that crack is dumb.

We have records on our wall.
Some of them I just want to rip down and play.
sometimes.
We just got a record player recently,
but I know next to nothing from the wall.
I like Rick Springfeild.
Michael Jackson Scares me.
The Beatles suck.
And I don't want to admit it.
My older sister loves the beatles.

We aren't that old either.
My oldest sibling is almost 16.
So that was never our time.
but we like old stuff.
Accept for my little sister.
I'll say it again.
I HATE HANAH MONTANA!!!!!!
And all the other Disney chanel stars.
They suck.
They all seem like people who will grow up and commit suicide.
They all sound the same too.

Someone else on disney chanel is teaching my little sister to act like a bit-----
I don't want her to know that word.
Because who knows if she will use it.

Our family likes old stuff.
The only music I'll listen to classic rock.

emo.
that kind of genere.
I don't like pop.
enough to say it multipul time.
Which I know I have.
getting back to old stuff.

There's an old arcade game sitting right next to me.
Ever hear of a game called Pengo?
There's this cute penguin that has to kill snowbees with ice blocks.
Sound vilent?
It doesn't seem Vilent.
The snowbees melt away.
The ice squishes them.
and a new one hatches.

I know.
It is weird.

I like Mythbusters.
And a lot of the stuff on Discovery Channel.
Not much from Disney.
But I do love their old movies.
I used to watch The Lion King over and over again.
I love that movie.
Along with A Little Mermaid.
Hurculese.
Beauty and the Beast.
Those movies.
Hurculese was watched so much it broke.
The casset just wouldn't play anymore one day.
My older sister was freakishly sad.
She's not sad any more.
We bought it on DVD.
It will never break it again.
I need The Lion King on DVD.
I just do.
Okay?

God.
You're still reading this?
Wow.
You must have a lot of time.
I'll stop here.
And update this later.

This was all that was on my mind.

Minus a lot.

The pool opened recently.

Another week and it's summer.

now you know what's on my mind.

That concludes this entree on my list of no return.

until next time.

Don't expect much.

Okay?

This was a lot of typing.

See you.

2 - two of infinity

~~Me~~I am still a person.I can count the days of summer with one hand now.3 days maybe?Too dumb to remember at the time.never mind. There are only 2.Because today is wednesday.and it's 9:09 pm.So school's out for the day.I'm mad at the world right now.Alex Hrtm*n is on my team tommorow for feild day.He's such a sore loser.And a sore winner.and an idiot.And to make matters worse,I can almost never catch squat.so yeah.Grace!! don't know how you like him!!That loser threw his shoes up in the rafters yesterday!And how intelegent do you think he could possibally be for doing that!?Maybe his age is also his IQ.. . . just had to say that to the internet.Has anyone ever read a book called Tangerine?We had to read it in my english class.It was acctually a pretty fair book.I would have never picked it up myself. . . but it was cool.I suggust reading it.It never gets slow.but if you like soccer that makes the book a little bit better.and if you like surprises this book is perfect for you.I do suggest it.That's all I'm gonna say for now about that.Oh my wow.My mom, dad and sister Katie are watching 300 right now.Sounds cool.I'd rather be writing this right now though.Because this brings me slight enjoyment.Slight."THIS IS SPARTA!!!!"lol.. . . My mom's old computer died so we lost photoshop.but luckily my parent's work has photoshop elements so I'm cool with that.I mean,I never really used much of the older photoshop's bigger stuff anyway so. . . I guess that didn't hurt me.At all.I've gotten used to using other programs much better anyway.So stuff like . . . all of my computer pictures minus paint are Microsoft Photodraw.But that's on my computer downstairs.Which never even had photoshop anyway.The sad part of summer this year is I have to work.Not just my job either.(by the way I work thursdays at a consession stand)I have to wake up in the mornings to bring my little sister to swim team. . . I have dedicated myself to become strong enough to be able to lift her with my bare arms in the pool and throw her. . . I am going to force myself to work out more than I need to this summer. . . and to top it all off with something I won't be allowed to quit. . . my own mother is going to be testing me on some book called "The 7 Habits of Highly Effective Teens" Sounds fun. . . eh? *Sweatdrop*I already can't wait to get back into school.Especially because I'm expected to read several books like this over the summer.Did I mention why I'm going to have to do this?My English grade is like a D.Yeah.Suckish.Eh???And to make matters worse,my mom used to teach English at M*sh*w*k* High School.And the teacher I had this year also taught her.Yeah.I'm Getting sick just thinking about all the reading coming my way.To wrap this up, I hope everyone has a great summer!And no one gets a worse sunburn than I already have!Write back soon!~~~~~LoL that was a freakish lot too. I guess it was less than the first one though. . .
