The Result of Day dreaming too much.

Okay so Kae and I were bored the other day so we started thinkinh up what it would be like to be thrown into a bunch of different worlds and such that lead me to start day dreaming and so is where this new story came.

0 - Down the rabbit hole part 1

Tibby: Oh yes my friends it has infact been a very long time since you've heard from me around here!That all can be explained see. MY Parents have finally been able to come to the U.S. and i've been spending all my missed hours on the computer helping my parents move all their stuff into the house and such. I dont get my own room anymore sadly, i Share Kae's room now, but that doesn't matter right? any ways,Because of my lack of focus on something that would cause me to have to pay attention to idiots in my school i won't be continuing the other thing i have on here. But now im rambling on now i need to focus on this!oh and By the way some of the stuff i put in here that happends probably around school actually happen

"I Swear by all that is good Kae, If i have to wake up in the middle of the night again to hear your brother's high pitch crying i will kill him when no one is home" Tibby groaned out before yawning and dropping her head onto the lunch table. "And that is why no one leaves you alone in the house with him" her cousin, Kae, said looking up once at her cousin before looking back down at the blank page she was drawn line after line made of both black and red ink.

"rough night again Tibby?"

Yuri approached the table Ryko already sitting down across from them at the table. Tibby grunted and pushed her plate to Yuri "eat it, i dont want it" She comented, Yuri didn't argue with it. "Im getting alittle ticked now" Yuri said shoving a french fry into her mouth "What'd did the girl do now?" Tibby asked folding her arms and looking up at Yuri who simply rolled her eye's and was silent for a minute. "What the hell kind of comment is 'you could put more effect into your coloring' anyway?!" Yuri said causing the girls around the table to make faces "are you serious?" Tibby asked Yuri nodded and Tibby laughed "I don't see why you guys give her such a hard time, she's nice" Kae commented getting a collection of snorts and laughs "what planet are you on JoJo? because youre definetly not with us" Yuri said. She was now digging fully into the Lunch that Tibby had carelessly given to her, doing her usual thing of pulling the bun off the Cheese burger and putting french fries on the inside and then dumping ketchup on them and the burger before putting the top bun back on. "If you just said sorry for being stubborn and forgot about the stuff she did you'll be better off" Kae said closing both pens she had been using and looked at Yuri who gave her a look "Living_Dead_girl isn't getting that type of Mercy Kae-" Kae jumped in quickly "Well why not? Because youre too stubborn to use the word 'I'm' and 'sorry' in the same sentence?" she said and was hit over the head by Yuri and held that spot "Owwwww" she whined

"Baby"

The one word shared around the whole table directed at Kae as it always was. "You haven't been paying attention at all JoJo" Yuri said "Why should she you never do" Ryko said. Yuri pointed a french frie at her "that is true" was what she said before looking back at Kae "i have been starting clean slates with this girl for years and it just isn't working and even after all the stuff that happen between me and her she actually thinks that she can comment my stuff like THAT! and im going to just take it! Besides thats not the only thing that gets me angry,it's the fact that she says that People like 'Creative criticism' though the comments she leave aren't at all that creative they just sound like a load of nonsense, but really when we leave her criticism she says we're just being mean, It's like that inbreeding chick from where was it Kansas? shoving their seriously out of whack religion down peoples throats but refuses to listen to anything else.She says retarded stuff like ' a true artist love to be fix things that people see wrong with their art' and shoot like that" Yuri said slamming her fist down on the table "The thing about art and drawing pictures and writing stories is that it's your art not anyone elses i mean maybe for Amalia's picture i wanted the frackin color effect or what the frack ever to be the way it was, thats how i want my picture to be and that's how it's going to be, it's my art not hers and she has no right to say if my art can be better or not. An Artist and a True Artist at heart does their art their own way with their own style not the style everyone who see's it wants. A Reall Artist makes art because they enjoy making are not because other people would enjoy looking at it, if they do thats only a bonus" Yuri ranted on Kae only rolled her eye's and stood up "yea whatever" she said stretching "Where are you going?" Tibby asked "Outside for a second" Kae replied and walked away from the table outside of the school. She walk pasted the boys playing hadn ball against the School wall towards the track. The sun was beating down on her as she pulled her hair out of her face and into a pony tail. "time to go under the bleachers" she said to herself heading toward the empty bleachers in seek on Shade but as soon as she set foot under the structure of wood and metal Kae with out noticing stepped into a space that had no ground and dropped faster then she could blink into darkness.

Tibby: and that is the first Chapter, By the way like i said some parts in this are things that actually happen like the scene at the Lunch table, a Friend of ours actually said that and it just fits with the store because Kae did go outside after that, since she's a baby and doesnt like getting hit or yelled at >.> anyways until next time
