Dreams of the Heart

I stare at your face in my dreams,
Your always there it seems
Running toward your very being,
This can't be the real you I'm seeing
I trip and begin to fall,
I'm not sure you're even here at all
Before I hit the ground,
Not hearing a single sound
Your screaming something I can't hear,
All of sudden I feel your tears
I fall into your embrace,
I look up and see tears on your face
I can't stand to see you cry,
I wipe them away asking why
You whisper a kiss,
Is this torture or bliss
I'm holding on tight,
You may be gone from me tonight
Putting me down and locking eyes,
You tell me you'd pay any price
Non expecting I begin to weep,
Your words I will forever keep
Suddenly you're gone from me,
Why can't I ever be happy
I open my eyes and slowly awake,
It was nothing but a fake
Getting up and leaving my place,
I still see nothing but your face
Blinded by confusion and love,
You're a forbidden angel from above
Every moment I miss you more,
You've taken away my very core
I'm possessive of my heart,
But I feel like you got in and ripping it apart
See me now stay forever,
I can't think of anything better
Tell me that you love me too,
Otherwise I have no clue
I'm holding you close in my heart,
I begin my poem from the start
