Chapter 1 - Goodbye desert

2

1 - Goodbye desert

Ever since Xana has escaped the supercomputer, the world hasn't been the same. But yet, Xana hasn't made a move since then. According to Jeremie, he's been hiding in the U.S.A for some time. But why he hasn't made a move, is unknown.

In Jeremie's room. Jeremie has been working on a program that can track Xana through the internet, but hasn't found a way to send his friends to battle Xana in the internet.

Jeremie: Shoot. There's an Error. Why can't I figure this out. Xana may have escaped, but that doesn't mean we can't fight back. He still needs the towers to attack. Then the door to his room opens and Aletia comes walking in. Jeremie turns around surprised. Jeremie: Aletia. Didn't hear you come in. Aletia: Sorry. Have you figured anything out yet? Jeremie just sighs before speaking. Jeremie: Not yet. But this much I have figured out. Xana still needs the tower's on Lyoko to launch an attack. So, we can still beat him. But it won't be easy since he can possess more people at once and with more people, he could be unstoppable. Aletia: He could but he won't. I'm sure you'll figure something out soon. And since he still needs the tower's, he won't cause that much trouble. Or I hope not. Jeremie: Yeah, you're probably right. But still. Anyway, where are the others? Aletia: Odd is in the lunchroom eating, Yumi is reading her book by a tree and I haven't seen Ulrich. Jeremie: Really. Wonder where he is. Then Jeremie's computer alarm goes off indicating Xana has attacked.

On Lyoko, in the desert sector, we see a tower's aura changing from blue to red. Also, some monster's have arrived to guard it.

Back in Jeremie's room. Jeremie looked on his computer and sees a tower has been activated. Jeremie then turns to Aletia. Jeremie: Looks like Xana finally made a move. Aletia: Yes. Jeremie: Contact Yumi. I'll call Ulrich and Odd. Aletia: Right. They both take out their cells and call but get no answer from Yumi nor Odd. Jeremie: Ulrich. Do you know what happened to Yumi and Odd. On the other side. Ulrich: No. Why. Jeremie: Both of them aren't answering their cells. And Xana has attacked. Ulrich: I could find out. Jeremie: No. Just come to the factory. Me and Aletia will meet you there. Ulrich: Right. They both hang up. Jeremie then turns to Aletia. Jeremie: Let's go Aletia. Aletia: Right. They both head out the door. Meanwhile, Xana's ghost or ghost's has possessed Yumi, Odd and a few other students. Ulrich heads for the factory and passes by both Yumi and Odd who notice. Ulrich stops and yells to them. Ulrich: Hey. Xana has launched an attack. We need to move. Both students don't answer. Ulrich: Hey. Come on guys. We need to move. Both kids just stand there before Yumi shoots a ball of electricity at Ulrich who dodges. Ulrich then figures it out. Ulrich: Xana! Odd then shoots a ball of electricity which Ulrich again dodges before running off. The group of Xana possessed people follow after him. At the factory, Jeremie goes in the supercomputer room while Aletia goes to the scanners. She gets in one and the door closes after. In the supercomputer room, the computer has been turned on and begins the process. On the screen, a card with Aletia's virtual form appears. Jeremie then begins typing on his keyboard. Jeremie: Alright Aletia. I'm sending you to the desert. Transfer Aletia. Scanner

Aletia. Virtualization. On Lyoko, Aletia virtualizes and lands on the ground. Jeremie then virtualizes a vehicle he made for Aletia. It's a pink scooter. Aletia gets on. Aletia: Should I go on or wait for Ulrich. Jeremie: Just go. The tower is due 34 longitude north and 15 latitude west. Aletia: Right. She then heads off. On the computer, Jeremie attempts to call Ulrich and he answers. Ulrich: Hello. Jeremie: Ulrich. What are you waiting for. You need to get here fast. Ulrich: I know. But Xana possessed some kids including Odd and Yumi. It's going to be hard. Jeremie: Alright. Try to hold them off while Aletia gets to the tower. Ulrich: Is that a good idea. She has no weapons. Jeremie: Don't worry. Ulrich: Alright. The phone hangs up and Jeremie assumes watching the monitor in front and shows Xana's monster's are heading for Aletia. Jeremie: Aletia watch out. Four blocks are coming after you. On Lyoko, Aletia turns her head around and sees four blocks chasing her while shooting lasers. Aletia dodges them and shoots a pink fireball which destroys one block but causes 2 of them to hit her vehicle causing her to fall off. She then starts running off with the blocks in pursuit. On Earth, Ulrich has been running from the Xana possessed group dodging their attacks. He runs into a nearby forest in attempt to lose them. When he doesn't see them anymore, he takes a break. Ulrich: Wow. That's pretty good. He then hears a twig snap making him get up and looking around to see his two Xana possessed friends. Ulrich: Don't make me hurt you. Yumi and Odd shoot electricity and hit Ulrich causing him to fall. Ulrich looks up and sees his Xana possessed friends hovering over him getting ready to attack. On Lyoko, Aletia has visual of the tower and shoots a pink fireball at a block but misses but the blocks don't, hitting her. Jeremie: Be careful. You lost 20 hit points. Aletia: Don't worry. She then shoots two pink fireballs and both hit two blocks with one remaining. Aletia shoots another fireball but misses and the block shoots fire rings and Aletia barely dodged them. She then decides to just get to the tower so she runs off before getting confronted by the Scyphozoa who appears. Aletia tries shooting fireballs at it but it just dodges them. It then grabs Aletia and starts uploading something rather than downloading. On the computer screen, Jeremie wonders why the Scyphozoacis there seeing it shouldn't be. He then notices that it uploads something and with no one there, there's no telling what it is. Jeremie: No. Aletia. He then notices on Aletia's card that a mark of Xana is there which means. Jeremie: No. Xana is using the Scyphozoa to possess Aletia. But why? On Lyoko, the Scyphozoa finishes its task and drops Aletia while it leaves. Aletia however, gets up and a block comes by and gives her a lift to the activated tower. On Earth, the Xana possessed group is getting ready to finish Ulrich off. On Lyoko, Aletia enters the tower Xana activated and goes to the top platform. Instead of entering code: Lyoko, code: Xana is entered instead. With that entered, the tower Aletia is in disappears along with the desert which slowly disappears with Aletia dropping out of said tower on the ground. With Aletia out of Xana's possessing, she's back to normal but starts running because the desert starts disappearing. Jeremie sees this and quickly devirtualizes Aletia to save her from falling into the digital sea. On Earth, the Xana possessed people are back to normal because the activated tower is gone and Ulrich wonders why. To be continued.
