"Tear Gas"

All the protestors with all their idiotic demands

They fill our hearts with violence and lash out against their own land

They use all their anger to fuel their demonstrations

And they fire up the stupidity of an entire nation

They try to come in first but they're always left in last

Right before they're bombarded with the tear gas

All the conservatives with all their ill gotten greed

All they ever care about are their own self-centered needs

They claim they're for the preservation of life

But in the end they send us all out to die

They keep up the lies until the oil bleeds

Right from their wrists as they proclaim their false creed

They depend on our stupidity to block out our past

Right before they deliver us the tear gas

All the liberals with their twisted ideals

They think they're on top of things but they don't know what's real

They use negativity and credibility

To hide from us, their false reality

They steer us away with all their vile lies

Which go against their own natural rights

Even when they lose, they always talk trash

Right before they hide from the tear gas

What's the matter with our democracy?

It's all turned into a cesspool of hypocrisy

We try to win our battles

But we're nothing but cattle

We all let this happen

In yet none of us are saddened

We get beaten down because we're weaker than grass

But only after we're bombarded with the tear gas
