1 - one-the way it is

A Girl A Girl

A girl standing there with a candle held high, her hand was blocking the wind from blowing the candle out. When holding the candle she was reminded of her pastor (Rob Haynes), who was in the war. Reminded of how the fire was like him and the wind was like the people against him who were trying to put him out. Then, she thought about how her hand was blocking the wind, just like God's hand was doing. After thinking those thoughts she knew God would keep her pastor safe during the war. Just so you know that girl was me.
