1 - Life is so short if a devil you keep

Life is so short if a devil you keep

Every day can make your soul weak

Never ending time goes on

Seconds so precious, unnoticed till gone

Life is so short if a devil you keep

Every day can make your soul weak

So hold on to wishes, keep your hopes near

Live life to it's fullest, have nothing to fear

The clock is still ticking, the day is still here

Why count the minutes?

Why count the years?

If you can time life, then why live at all

Waiting for death will be your downfall

So why have time if it never ends?

Why be good if your soul ascends?

Because that's what you should do, that's how things are

It's like wanting the moon while possessing the stars

Don't ever give up

For eternity goes on

Live without ending aiming for the beyond

Life is so short if a devil you keep

Every day can make your soul weak

2 - The day I cry to an Angel

The day I cry to an Angel

A Devil comes to save me

The Angel was a traitor

The Devil was a friend

The Devil flew with pure white wings

Gracefully and swiftly, coming to save me

He saved me from the Angel

And took me away

He placed me down weakly

Then fell to the ground

I looked into his eyes, hoping to help

He put his hand to my face

Wiping my tears

My fears seemed to vanish along with my tears

I helped the Devil to his feet

I chose him over the Angel

The Angel then died

The true good was the Devil, for coming to save me

Risking his life, just for me

The Devil was grateful

He said I had saved him

I guess that day we both saved each other

If I hadn't been there to help, then he would have died

But I wouldn't be here, if it wasn't for him

3 - Ascending from Heaven

Ascending from Heaven, on pure white wings

A girl looks for her lover

Wondering astray

Looking for eternity

Never losing faith

She looks for a half-elven boy, who has captured her heart

Counting the days

Counting the years

Living life to it's fullest

Having nothing to fear

The boy she loves is near

She calls his name, hoping he'll hear

He looks over to see more than a friend

Running over to tell her how he feels

The girl listens with all over her heart

As the boy blushes then kisses her lightly

The girl is shocked yet kisses back

She loves the boy for he is her King

The boy is glad that he has told; now he has his Queen

They are together never to be apart

With their everlasting love, they shall never die!

4 - The ever pure white Angel

The ever pure white Angel
Sits high on her throne
She watches over all
Waiting for eternity to go on
Her time can never end
As she watches her friends' clocks stop forever
She'd like to give her time to some one else
But dose not want him to suffer
She loves the little half-elf boy
She'd even give her life for his
His brilliance brightens up her life
He gives her straight to keep going
Otherwise she would have gone into the Heavens
Never to return to him
He loves her deeply
As does she
He wants to follow her forever
To be with his lover until time runs out
When that day comes the boy will die
But the Angel will trade her life
To be with her lover

5 - A Vampire's Love

A Vampire's Love

In this never ending darkness I stand alone holding this dagger as my excuse.

I never wanted it to be this way,

Forever is now only a nightmare that will never go away.

I never wanted to kill you,

I guess this is part of what you made me.

I don't see things the same with out you anymore,

I only want thing to go back to the way they where before.

I guess in love there's always death,

I was stupid to try and defy it.

I thought if vampires' live forever then are love could be eternal.

But I was so wrong.

The last night you were here you gave me your blood and your life,

You said you wouldn't die,

But you lied!

I was so weak you gave me your blood to keep me alive.

You never thought of yourself,

So you gave until I drank all of your blood.

Who would have thought I'd be your killer,

If I weren't so stupid this never would have happened.

Now I stand over your coffin in the middle of the night.

Hoping you'll arise like nothing ever happened.

Never again will I take the life of the one I love,

Instead I will be joining you.

Now I lie on the top of your coffin waiting for the light to burn my flesh away.

I'm taking my own life of the night walkers to be in the after life with you... My Vampire King...

6 - Listening....

Hey are you listening?

Are you there?

I thought you cared...

Why didn't you tell me you already had someone?

Why weren't you honest?

You swore you'd never hurt me...

BUT YOU LIED!

YOU DID!

You liar,

You traitor.

Could it have hurt you to say something?

Instead you've got me all fracked up inside.

We've been friends forever,

Don't turn your back on me now.

Or are you too good to hang around the first girl that stole your heart?

7 - Why?!

WHY?!

You left the clan,

You can never come back.

You'll fight for something you believe is right,

When you were wrong all along.

How could this be?

Was this all a mistake?

How can you find out if you are right or wrong?

With so many questions how can there be only one answer?

No one knows for sure,

We're all just paws waiting for are master's next move.

Blades clash,

And church bells ring.

One shall die and no one will care.

What if he was one of your own?

Would you then feel sorry for him?

No one cares for anyone anymore.

They're all just self-centered fools.

At least I care you fought your battle...

BUT WHY DIDN'T YOU WIN?!

8 - Through Syrus's eyes

How can this be?

I've never lost a duel...

You were always there to watch me, to help me,

Why didn't you just tell me I'm not good enough Zane?

I always try to impress you and Jaden and Rose...

But I guess my best wasn't good enough for you.

I have Rose and Jaden to help when I fall,

But you just stand tall looking down on me.

What can I do to prove myself to you?

Am I not good enough to be known as your little brother?

You say I'm not good enough to be at this school,

But my friends say you're wrong.

Everyone has a right to do what they want,

Whether they're good at it or not.

Soon I'll be as good as you,

I won't forget you were the one that was wrong...

9 - I'll take you down!

I'll take you down without a fight,

My deck can beat yours any day.

Syrus will be there to watch you fall,

Wasn't it wrong to treat him how you did?

Jaden is now here too,

You're no longer the best.

So we will surpass your limit,

And make you look like the fool you are.

I'm sure you may think I cocky,

But I can back up the words I say.

Syrus will be better than you,

You can't argue with that.

I never wanted you to be so cruel to him,

You weren't the big brother you were supposed to be.

Now I have won and you have lost,

You won't get in Syrus's way any more.

So stop fighting a war you can't win alone,

Just join us and we'll help you when you're down.

So what do ya say Zane?

You want to work with the girl, who took you down,

Your little brother and his friend?

All you have to do is say yes and we'll take you right in.

10 - Take my hand

I lost all doubt that are friendship was just an accident,

I think it was meant to be something more.

So take my hand,

Take my life,

We'll be together forever.

I'm against all except you,

You are the heart of the cards in my dueling deck.

As I aim for my tarnished hopes,

I think of you and I shine.

So take my hand,

Take my life,

I'll always love you.

I'll win every fight with you by my side,

I'll never let you down!

Kiss me like you did,

Like you did when we first meet.

Just stay with me,

Lay with me.

Every time I'm with out I'm a mess.

So don't leave me!

We'll show them all how much we mean,

We'll past through are phantoms,

And we'll be more than friends in the end.

11 - A Bad Dream

I'm cryin' here alone drenched in my pain again.

I just wanna be alone.

Leave me where I lie,

I don't want to get out of the rain with you.

I'm not selfish,

I just don't want to be around you right now.

So leave me alone,

I want to talk to Sy.

As you walk away I gaze at the sky,

I'm sorry I don't like you,

You can't control love.

Just try to understand.

Now I'm crying again,

Where did my secret go wrong?

Why did I come to this school?

I didn't want to choose between you two,

You're both mine.

Now I'm messed up inside,

I can't think what I want,

I'm lingering on what used to be.

Now I'm not alone I have you,

Let me cry on your shoulder,

Please make me feel better.

Take away my pain and make me whole.

Maybe this is all just one big nasty dream that I'll soon wake from and everything will be okay...

12 - Chrono & Rosette

Some how I just can't put you in the past.

I never dreamt that you'd be the one I'd love,

Though I am the devil you kept.

Your fate was already sealed when I met you,

And you and I defied God.

I told you I'd do anything just to make you laugh and see you smile,

Though I was the one who was taking so much.

We kept a promise that we'd keep till we died.

We kept each others secrets and helped each other through hard times,

Though I took so much you still loved me.

You knew this day would come.

I knew you'd fear it.

I never thought I'd see you cry when you were so strong.

I didn't mean to cause you so much pain,

But now we're the same and I can feel what you have all this time.

As the sun sets you finally tell me how you felt,

The clock is still ticking,

Let's use what time we have left.

I'll follow you to the heavens though our contract will end.

I'll admit there was a girl before you when I was naïve,

But after all those years you found me and knew you were here come back to me.

I took so much yet you loved me and I loved you too.

I'll never forget you,

I'll follow you into pure bliss.

What I'm trying to say is you're everything to me and I never want to leave you.

As time draws near you take me close,

And we take are eternities slumber together...

Forever...

13 - Tell me what you think this poem is about

You're all just a bunch of Losers,

No one can surpass me.

I'm better than all the rest,

I don't need anyone to stand by my side.

Power only matters,

What's love got to do with it?

Or so at least I thought that until I meet you...

You came from the same clan as me you understand my sorrows,

You never let me fall,

You never let things go.

I always thought Love to be a weakness but now I see it as strength,

Two hearts pounding to the same beat under the same blue sky...

14 - Haku...

I knew you never chose this way,

It was forced upon you.

Your mother's blood running through your veins,

You had the heart of a warrior but no one knew.

You fought to protect the ones you loved and you told of your visions of wanting to make your master's dreams a reality.

You were a fighter,

A dreamer though no one loved you.

You took your family away from yourself on a snowy day,

You cried out in sorrow and you were alone for the first time ever.

You lingered on with no meaning until you meet someone.

He told of his dreams and visions that you thought the same as yours,

So you took to your feet and joined him,

There was no regret he was a fatherly figure you never had.

You severed him and called him master,

He treated you with no disrespect and he loved you like a son.

He taught you his own justice and you listened with care.

You fought by his side to see his dreams come true and put your own aside,

You were not selfish or greedy,

You put him before yourself.

You protected him with your own life in a situation of life or death,

You acted out of kindness and for love,

You bled right before his eyes and he did not shed a tear.

You knew you were broken and he truly did feel sorrow.

You were as pure as snow and so innocent.

As you saw him for the last time it sadden you inside.

You said you were sorry and then you were gone.

To be remembered by all as Haku pure as snow and a fighter,

A dreamer.

Your fatherly figure then took his side by you and he died right before you,

With you,

He really cared you were like his son.

Meet in heaven and be together forever nothing can stop it,

Nothing can ever take that away.

Haku rest in peace...
