Chapter 1 - Through my eye's

2

1 - Through my eye's

To live one day in my shoe's as me.
The unthinkable things through my eye's you'd see.
You couldn't imagine, how could it change so much.
A soul so fragile, it break with a touch.
It's a wonder how through the years I survived.
You hope to yourself, that by days end, you alive.
A shock of what my peers say and do.
It's just a taste of the years I've lived through.
Thats just the begining the days just started.
To live as I have, you'd return broken hearted.
How'd I make it look so easy? you ask.
The answer is, am I real or a mask?
If you've managed to make it through half of my day,
You'll begin to realize my grief-stricken way.
Then it hits you, a wave of emotion.
The confusion that rivals the rage of an ocean.
A void in my heart, you'd sooner forget.
You feel it all, but you know nothing yet.
One day in my life, what you now know, you'll never comprehend.
The truth is there, for me it won't end.
You return to yourself, you've lived as me, a teenager.
That child you thought you knew, is now only a stranger.
