1 - The New Shinobi

In the Land of Lightning there is the village hidden in the clouds. This village has two dominant clans. The Itachi clan and the Renkuso clan. From these two clans there were two prodigies. In the Itachi clan there was Logan Itachi and in the Renkuso clan there was Stephen Renkuso. Both have keckogenkai running through their veins. This is their story.....

Logan and Stephen are good friends and great students at the ninja academy. Both are very gifted. They graduated at the top of their class. They are now genin and full fledged ninja. They are on the same squad together along with a kunoichi named Maddison. Their sensei is Kyonisho an elite jonin.

Kyonisho: Alright so you three are my squad. Well it's time to see what you can do. You each will have one minute to show me your best jutsu. Who will go first? Stephen: I guess I will. Stephen has a long narrow sword he carries on his back. This is his best weapon for combat. Stephen: In my clan I am known as the shadow ninja because of my keckogenkai. It is called Fenrusho. Stephen does a series of hand signs and then his leg muscles enhance significantly. Stephen: This jutsu allows me to enhance my speed and my taijutsu. Then he pulls out his sword and sticks it in the ground. After that he does another series of hand signs and he places his hand on the end of his sword. His sword starts to glow with fire. Then he picks it up and says Fire Style Dragon Blade Jutsu. Stephen then slashes his sword and a streak of fire flies from it. Stephen: That was my most powerful jutsu. Kyonisho: That was pretty impressive but I would expect nothing less from the Renkuso clan. What is your nindo your ninja way. Stephen: My ninja way is to always protect those precious to me. Also to prove that my clan is not the second most powerful in this village. Logan and I are good friends but we are also rivals and I plan to get strong enough to defeat him. Kyonisho: You talk like he is already much more powerful than you are. Stephen: Well right now he is but I'm not giving up. Kyonisho: Well then I'm ready to see what Logan can do as well. Logan: Fine I'll go next. Logan carries a sword much larger than Stephen's. His is nearly as long as his body. Logan: As you know I'm from the Itachi clan and that I have keckogenkai in my blood. But do you know what it does. Kyonisho: Yes, it enhances your strength by ten times what it was. But I've never seen it in person so I'm looking forward to what you've got to show me. Logan: Ok then I'll get right to it. Logan does four hand signs and then his muscles expand greatly. Logan: You might think that this would slow me down but it doesn't. It actually increases my speed. Of course I'm not as fast as Stephen with his Fenrusho activated but I am as fast as he is without it. Now I'll show you my second best jutsu. Lightning Blade Jutsu. Logan does four different hand signs and his hand glows with lightning. He then grabs his sword and transferred the lightning energy to his sword. Kyonisho: So he is able to transfer his chakra from his hand to his sword already. That's incredible. Logan: And those are two of my best jutsu. Kyonisho: So if that was your second best jutsu then what is your best? Logan: My Lightning Strike Jutsu is my best but it takes a lot of chakra. Kyonisho: That was very impressive both you and Stephen. Now I want to see what Maddison can do. Maddison: I don't have any jutsu as powerful as theirs but I do have some good genjutsu. Kyonisho: Alright then show me what you can do. Maddison: Ok. She does many hand signs and says Blinding Light Jutsu. The area around them turns to an incredibly bright light. Then she releases it. Kyonisho: That's not bad at all Maddison. Ok you all pass. Logan: Pass what? Kyonisho: Didn't I tell you. This was a test to see if you could handle yourselves on a mission if I was unable to fight. You all passed. Logan: You didn't forget to tell us you didn't say anything because you wanted us to be relieved while we were using our jutsu. Kyonisho: You're a sharp one I see.

Kyonisho: Ok that's it for today. You each used up quite a bit of your chakra. So go home and rest up and tomorrow meet back here at 8:00 a.m. I will give you your first mission.

Next time on a ninja story: The new genin are ready to begin their missions and show their skills. But will they be ready if an unknown enemy shows up? Find out.

2 - Team Kyonisho

The team returned to their homes and rested for their first real day as shinobe. When they awoke they each went to the spot that their sensai told them to meet them at. When they got there Kyonisho was already waiting for them. Now they will begin their journey to become great ninja.

Kyonisho: Alright you're all here. Now I will tell you your mission. Your first mission is a D Rank mission. This is the lowest level of missions. While you are genin you will be given D and C Rank missions. Logan: What's that? You've seen our abilities. You know we can handle ourselves. Can't you give us a break? Kyonisho: NO. If you can pass all of your missions you might get a C Rank mission. So for now you will do what I tell you. Logan: Fine. Kyonisho: Ok. Your first mission is to collect the crates of food that fell from the cargo cart. There were ten crates scattered across town. You will split up and gather all of the crates. You have until noon. GO!

The genin split up and started their first mission. Kyonisho didn't expect it to take the amount of time they were given. With Stephen's Fenrusho he thought he would find most of them quickly. He was right. Stephen collected six crates. Logan collected three. Maddison collected one. When they reported back to Kyonisho he was impressed with how they did.

The genin continued to complete missions like that. Now Kyonisho has a surprise for them. Kyonisho: Alright since you have completed all of your missions successfully I have gotten you a C Rank mission. Logan: Well I guess that's better than doing these D Rank missions. Stephen: So what is the mission? Kyonisho: We must deliver a message from our village to the Hidden Leaf Village. Logan: Well when do we start? Kyonisho: You need to go home and pack what you need. We leave as soon as possible. Remember we will be gone for a while.

What the genin don't know is that they are headed for the Chunin exams. Are they really ready for these exams? There will be powerful ninja there. Find out next time on A NINJA STORY.

Next time on A NINJA STORY: The three genin Logan, Stephen, and Maddison are headed for the Chunin exams but they don't know it yet. Who will they encounter once they reach the Leaf Village? Are they ready for the exams? Find out.
