Chapter 1 - 1

2

His breath is fast and heavy,
His heart pounding hard.
His eyes beginning to shut,
His soul fading away.

Remembering the good day,
When hunting was his life.
Playing in the fields,
Dancing under the night sky.

Watching a shooting star,
Singing to the moon.
Playing hide-and-seek in the tall grass,
Swimming in the river.

He lies down on the cool ground,
Looking to the sky,
Howling to one last time to the moon,
Singing its last good bye.
