A poem that about every girl can relate to at some point. It's a poem about how sometimes you wish your friend was more than a friend, but you're afraid it will mess up your friendship. So they become your secret crush.

Secret Crush

Sneaking second glances,
Looking into your eyes,
They make my spirit melt,
an take my soul.

I find excuses to feel your skin,
trying to know your touch, Wanting you to hug me,
hoping you will love me.

Trying to make you smile,
hoping to make you laugh,
Maybe then you'll like me,
And find out the real me.

Your more than just a friend,
more than just a pal,
To me your everything,
My hopes, dreams, and now you've stolen my heart.
My Secret Crush.
