1 - Untitled

I will paint you in silver
And wrap you in gold
I will make you a memory
That will never grow cold
Like my love for you did
With the frost of first light
The loss of longing
Or the silence tonight
Like the imprint of kisses
From lovers long past
Burning in the darkness
But never to last
Gone with the night
To dawn's harshest glare
Paper to flame turned to dust
Without care
I burn much like lanterns
And melt with these tears
The hidden reminders
Of love and fears
Though the memory is sliver

And wrapped up in gold

This heart is now heavy

And you are too cold...

A/N: Ummm...it depressing but that's how I feel right now. My sadness makes for sucky poetry apparently.
