1 - Before I Sleep

Before I Sleep

Every night I think of things and cry myself to sleep.
Of all the kids who might be dead, or don't have food to eat.
Of the wars and all of the crimes, this I know won't work.
All the Christians and the Catholics, and the punks and gerks.
Before I sleep I cry a cry for all the world to hear.
A cry for every single soul who expresses things in tears.
Before I sleep I break my heart once or twice a night.
And I'd think what if that were me, reaching for the light.
A light so bright can draw you near, but you must refuse the fly.
For everyone would miss you if you'd layed down and died.

2 - Anything For You

Anything for You

*I wish upon a star
And I wonder where you are
Because in case you haven't noticed, I'm in love
I dream of you at night
When I'm with you there's no fright
I'm a solitary dreamer who believes*

*When I'm with you
I can do anything,
I can be anything,
And I can see everything
Even when the skies aren't blue
And, baby, I'd do anything for you*

*When I see you at the mall
Sometimes I can't speak at all
I want to ask you for your heart, but I can't
And when you look at me
My heart fills with up with glee
I want to spread my wings and fly, but they're not there*

*But When I'm with you
I can do anything
I can be anything
And I can see everything
Even when the skies aren't blue
And, baby, I'd do anything for you*

*I wished upon a star
Then I woke up, there you are
And everyone could notice, you're in love
You said, "I dream of you at night,"
"When I'm with you there's no fright"
Then I said the first thing that came to me*

*When I'm with you
I can do anything,
I can be anything,
And I can see everything*

*Even when the skies aren't blue
And, baby, I'd do anything for you*

3 - Where the Wind Takes You

Where the Wind Takes You

Go where the wind takes you
It should take you far
Go where the wind takes you
Wherever you are
Go where the wind takes you
No matter what you do
Go where the wind takes you
When the sky is blue

Gray skies have fallen upon us
No use turning back
If you spare my life
I promise not to lack
The clouds are caving in now,
I feel I am surrounded
The birds have gone away now,
And I feel I am bounded

Go where the wind takes you
It should take you far
Go where the wind takes you
Wherever you are
Go where the wind takes you
No matter what you do
Go where the wind takes you
When the sky is blue

Where did the wind take you?
Will you ever return?
I feel that I have lost something,
But that was a something I didn't earn.
My heart has turned to ruins
And my life it is now destroyed
The world today is imperfect
And many are unemployed

Go where the wind takes you
It should take you far
Go where the wind takes you

Wherever you are
Go where the wind takes you
No matter what you do
Go where the wind takes you
When the sky is blue

4 - Hypnotized In Your Eyes

Hypnotized in Your Eyes

All I want to have Everything I need
Desires you can only grant
When time is flying by
Because I'm hypnotized
In your eyes
Hypnotized in your eyes
Amazing things are happening
And my heart is beating fast
Because I'm hypnotized
In your eyes

5 - In The Middle

In the Middle

Always wanted to be first,
Never wanted to be last
Wanna live in the future,
Keep looking to the past
I'm stuck in the middle,
Crying in the corner of the room
No one notices me
Why don't they get a clue?
I can hear them
And see that they're around
They'll never feel my pain,
But they will always
Bring me down

6 - Inside Out

Inside Out

Can't hold on,
Too hard to breath
Believe it or not
You were smothering me
Day after day,
Night after night
Keeping it cool,
Like everything was alright
But little did I know
It was a lie,
"A lie," I said
Over and over to myself
I tried not to let it show
But little did I know
I was dying from the inside-out

7 - Alabaster Angels

Alabaster Angels

Fluttering wings

Angels sing

Twirling golden colors sway

Swirling silver shine lay

Alabaster angel

Alabaster angel

Fixed notions

Smooth motions

I'm hypnotised.

I'm outta my mind.

Spinning platinum colors sway

Flowing crimson shine lay

Alabaster angel

8 - Colorblind Life

ColorBlind

I wake up in the morning,
No sunshine in your eyes.
All of a sudden nothing's good,
And then I realize...
That I'm living in a color-blind life.
Living in a world full of fright.
Nothing's glowing!
Nothing Shines!
When you are living in a color-blind life
The world is slowly changing.
And we're all rearranging.
We're losing friends,
Our hearts won't mend
And then we finally find...

9 - That's Why

That's Why

I've failed you again,
I let you down again
I'm not the girl I thought
I was before
It's like I'm lost,
stuck in this world alone
I feel like I can't find
You Anymore
So as I sit here I fake
A breath
And close my eyes
To see what I have left
I see your face
My one desire
You're all I need,
My inner fire
That's why I want you
That's why I need you
And that's why I love you
That's why
