1 - The Plunge

The library of the school was closed as the clock in the large room struck 4:00, A tall scrawny teen with medium brown hair, and bangs that covered his eyes walked in since they never locked it. There waiting was a teenager that came up to his shoulder, his medium length hair matched the others and his bangs were the same but he had blonde hair. "Anthony I-" The blonde began. Anthony ignored him, "What did you want, Saxon?" Saxon looked down at his feet blushing considering to run. "Well!?" Anthony said annoyed. "I-" Saxon looked up a little tear was visible, "I love you." Anthony took a few steps back in shock and he was disgusted. "I am not gay!" Saxon looked hurt, "but, I love you so much." Anthony couldn't believe it Saxon WAS his best friend. All the times Saxon and him had joked about gays were all lies. It can't be true! He told himself. "Nice joke." He whispered to Saxon. Saxon hugged him and placed his head on Anthony's chest, "I'm not joking." Anthony felt a warmth spreading through his chest, Do I like him too? He asked himself. Anthony felt himself warm and he put his hands in Saxon's hair and brushed the bangs away, his eyes shining he lowered his lips to Saxon's happily. Saxon put his hand on Anthony's head making the kiss more ferocious. Anthony clawed at Saxon's back with his nails, as Saxon kissed his neck. "I love you." Saxon said between kisses. Anthony only moaned loving the feeling. Saxon slowly lifted up Anthony's shirt with his hands reveling the warm chest, all the ribs were visible. Saxon kissed Anthony's beating heart. Anthony smiled and a light flicked on in the hall and him and Saxon backed away from each other, and Anthony through on his shirt, as the female principal walked in, "Both of you leave!" She yelled. They both walked out keeping their secret love.
