

Running with the wolf

By Midniterocks

Submitted: June 14, 2006

Updated: June 14, 2006

this is a poem i made up about a wolf and a guns man

Provided by Fanart Central.

<http://www.fanart-central.net/stories/user/Midniterocks/35135/Running-with-wolf>

Chapter 1 - Running with the wolf

2

1 - Running with the wolf

fast as the wind on four stout legs, the wolf runs far and strong, It stops to hear the fire of a gun, but how long will it take, how long? For the guns man to reach his location, and find him and shoot him down, When the guns man arrives and steps out into the open he wears a sighing frown, The wolfs disappeared into the darkness, All that lays there a rabbit's dead carcass, The wolfs gone with the wind, running fast as lightening, Through the forest and over the hills, it's shadow menacing and frightening, The wolf stayed away from the forest since, But if you look over the hill at a slight wince, You can see his eyes glowing in the night, And it will fill your body with fright.