Chapter 1 - Love (My favorite)	2
Chapter 2 - Rose Lover	3

1 - Love (My favorite)

Love is the thing that gives you bliss,
With it's soft caress,
The thing that makes you feel all warm,
The thing that does with passion embrace,
It settles itself within your heart,
Like a flower blossoming in bloom,
You have eyes and ears only for the one who has,
Captured your heart and soul with rapture,
Sweet words are said in gentle obsession,
From the embers undying becoming raging flames,
Your every whim is to be with the one you see,
Not with your mortal eyes but your immortal soul,
Casting out the messages,
That are deep inside your heart,
Like a magnet it pulls you to your love with true divinity,
With serene and graceful movement,
Fluid thoughts and tranquil breathing,
It allows you to leap over the breach,
The obstacles in the way to reach your hand until the end,
Unto love's great grace and to see your loves sweet face.

2 - Rose Lover

Her hair is as velvet as the rose petals she so loves,

As brown as the ground she treads on,

Her cheeks are as pink as any sunset on a flower,

Her eyes deeper green than the darkest stem,

Yet I have yet to claim her,

As all roses she bears thorns,

Among her sacred beauty,

She is wild and she dances in the wind,

Fluid and graceful and tranquil,

As serene as a cascading waterfall,

Her scent is sweeter than the sweetest scent,

For she is most delicate flower of all,

She with her beauty and her perfection,

Amidst her kindness and humor,

She is uncompered and divine,

My lovely rose lover.
