1 - A Hero

A Hero

By: Robin Hutchins

Hero

when you say it my mind races

i become a black hole of thoughts will anyone be my hero?

will anyone be brave, brave enough to save me?

i need a hero&

a different hero&

a brave hero&

a hero to save me&

everyone needs a hero at some point&

i just need mine now&

i need&i want&

a different kind of hero.

2 - A Hero of Souls

Can you save my soul,
my fallen,
torn soul?
can you save my soul,
my friends souls,
my families souls?
Can you help the souls,
the souls of this unstable world?
can you give us life,
life for the world?
can you save us,
can you save the world?

Can you give me answers, answers to the universe?
can you sooth my mind,
my rattling, craving mind?

Since my soul is black,
can you cleanse it,
make it shine?
can you cleanse the world, this cold,
black world?

Can you be a teacher,
a caring, loving teacher?
can you give us something, something to learn?
can you teach us something, something new?

Can you be a leader,
a leader of men?
can you be with us,
give us advice?
can you do these things and still be sane?

Is life just a game to you,
a game we all want to win?
is life a play,
all planned out from the beginning?
do we make our own decisions, or are we part of a plan?

Can you be a hero?
a hero of souls?
a hero of the world?
a hero of the mind?
a hero of many?
a hero of leaders?
a hero, at least, of me?

Give me these answers and i will give you something something you cannot earn any other way a joyful something something to celebrate something to be proud of

If you give me these answers you will celebrate you will dance you will be proud of yourself you will be joyful

I will give you a title a title of man a title of ecstasy a title of wits a title of admiration

Your title will be higher than that of anyone your title will be your undoing your title will give you power your title will earn you trust for you are and always will be a hero.

3 - A Pain In My Heart

A Pain In My Heart

By: Robin Hutchins

A problem I have and a problem you solve A question I have and a question you answer An error I make and an error you correct A nightmare I have and a nightmare you calm A tear I shed and a shoulder you lend A terror of night I see and a light on me you shine without a fee A person close to me dies and you are there to comfort me, no lies A dream I have I must make real and you make it real A word not understood I see and you explain it to me A camera I break and you fix it A hypothesis I have and a conclusion you make A fear I have and you make it go away A pain I have and a medicine you make But I have a pain in my heart and you cannot heal a broken heart

4 - A Quest

A Quest

By: Robin Hutchins

I have a quest
A dangerous quest
Will you join me?
Will you share my danger?

Yes you say
I will join you Then I say Let s go

We trek through the forest
The dark, dark forest
We come to a clearing
A bright, bright clearing

We see two others
I smile
You smile back
You know what I am thinking

We have a quest I tell them
A dangerous quest
Will you join us?
Will you share our danger?

They look at us
They laugh
No says the first Yes says the second

He joins us
We go further
Into the forest
We approach another clearing

We see three this time
I smile
You smile back
As does he

We have a quest I tell them
A most dangerous quest
Will you join us?
Will you share our danger?
Again we are laughed at One does not laugh
Yes he says
He strides over

The other two
They are bad
But one&he is not& Yes he says

No the last claims
I will not go on some Ridicules quest that does Not concern me.

We leave him
We go further
We come to a castle
We smile

I have a quest I say again
A dangerous quest
Will you join me?
Will you share my danger?

Yes they declare
We will join you!
We will share your danger!
We will stay with you!

We go to the castle
We walk inside
We stand in the great hall Amazed, breathless

We feel heat Coming Blazing Flames

We smell fire Massive

Destructive Flames

And that s the last Thing I remember
I remember hearing
A great terrible roar

Then nothing
But darkness
But a void
But nothingness

I think we died
Or at least I am dead
But I don t want to die

The world is not So terrible
So painful
So miserable

It s enjoyable
Even if it is only an illusion
It s enjoyable
Even if it is only for a while&

5 - A Time of War

A Time of War
By: Robin Hutchins
{A Ballad of Tallahassee}

A time of war
this has become a time of grief and eyes so sore and a time for no one to be numb

The siege has started they re almost thru we ve been out smarted they will have a home a new

With hair like blood she charged and fall back, did her hood as the lord s daughter charged

Lord Seri cried out as she joined the battle he knew he would never see her pout as she was dragged from her saddle

Seri sank to his knees tears streaming down his face now the enemy held the key just as they held the mace

As the enemy pulled out the bloody field was revealed the lord s daughter s horse no longer had a snout and there was no sign of her on the field

Lady Cremin cried as she heard the news of her daughter s fate her eldest daughter has defied orders from her mother, always too late

So now we must retreat lest our stubbornness be our defeat and that to show our arrogance

For now as we board the ships made to carry the lord s daughter for she will never return to marry

The enemy has found her presence to be bounding so we cannot wait around for there will be no founding

The time for war has ended because now we have a marriage the treaty has been mended so now the lord must give a carriage

The castle we once defended is now under their control and the law has been bended so, now we play the fool

The time for war is gone just as the lord s daughter is now gone.

6 - Afraid of the Past

Afraid of the Past

The past is gloom dark and dreary full of war and people scary

Covering this world in fright the past looms in sight and all throughout the night people say, Farewell, and good-night.

Afraid of the past
we will always be never learning from it always shunning and running from it

We are afraid of our dark and ugly past for it haunts our every waking moment

It is bloody and dark dirty and savage Assassinations and death so we are afraid of the past.

7 - Alone, Alone

Alone, Alone

Alone, alone,
all alone,
in the night, in the fight.
alone I know,
all I can feel,
alone I care,
for nothing outside.
I feel alone,
because I know,
I m alone inside,
my own little room.
Alone, alone,
flying over clouds,
alone, alone,
in the dark,
of the night.
Together I feel, misplaced and alone,
apart I know,
I ll always be,
alone, alone.

8 - Amethyst and River

Amethyst and River

Like a river flowing the blue hair of royalty Passed by without a care and through the corridors of gold The elf princess strode followed closely by her servants All in royal garb and all eyes on the creature Perched on the princess s shoulder with eyes of deep amethyst Watching their every move and wings carved from lapis lazuli Stretched wide and foreboding ready to soar at any sign of danger.

In the courtyard the elf princess stopped And into the air flew the creature blue Smiling the elf followed the servants, pale, stayed behind And watched their princess from afar
The creature swooped and perched On the elf s outstretched arm then launched into the air Swooping and diving until coming to rest on the roof.

And on went the princess with hair like a flowing river And the creature carved from amethyst.

9 - Ancient History

Ancient History

He blushes, almost afraid, Stroking His braid, Beauty in His eyes,
Truth in His lies,
Ra, You say,
You could never have it Your way,
But, My love,
Here, You re as free as a dove,
I am the God of the Dead,
With a jackal head,
You are Ra of the Sun,
Not allowed to have fun,
But, My love,
Here, You re as free as a dove,
Ra, stay with Me,
Let Us both be free,
Our love combined anew,
Caused the morning dew,
Let Us love forever,
Let Us not be severed,
My dearest, stay,
Even for only a day,
So close to Me,
It can only be,
A love of the Gods of Ancient,
A love so spent,
Stay here, I once said,
But now We are dead,
And Our love has become,
Ancient history to more than some.

10 - Angel Sent From Above

Angel Sent From Above

For someone dear to my heart

My angel sent from above,
You re on my mind everyday,
Following like a ghost of love,
Did you plan to leave this way?
My hurt and pain are so deep,
I don t know what to do,
Should I build a fortress or a keep,
To keep from being blue?
My angel sent from God,
You were all I could depend on,
Now all I can do is smile and nod,
As I m used as just a pawn.
Your presence lingers here,
I can feel it in my soul,
Yet I can shed only a single tear,
As all my emotions become cold and null.
My angel sent from the Trinity,
You took away all my fear,
You said you d be here for eternity,
Yet now I can see all too clear.
Even though you were sent from above,
Your life down here has ended,
Even though you were filled with love,
This hurt cannot be mended.

11 - Ani and Anubis- 2 Versions

Ani & Anubis (Version one)

Here they come
One plus one
Two curious thieves
Each with a mask
Four short legs
And a long furry body
Here they come
One by one
Ani and Anubis
That is their names
So sneaky, each and Every one.

Ani and Anubis (Version two)

My precious jewels
You fill my morning
With your happy faces Beneath my fingers
Fur soft and bright
Your breath upon My smiling face
The sunrise brightens
Your gazing eyes
Ani and Anubis
You, who can never Lie.

12 - Be

Be or see

Can you be me

Can you fell free

Can you be my key

To the world I see

To the world beyond the dee

To the place of the free

To the place of the plenty

Be free, I plea

Sent by the Tree

Rest awhile, drink some tea

And see&

Oh, see, be

Under this tree

You can be

Anything you see

Anything to be free

Anything with that key

13 - Beautiful Days - Haiku

Beautiful Days

the birds and the trees singing to the world and us

14 - Betray, Love

Betray, Love

Cold, dead inside
Ice forever by my side
Am I a zombie, or just dead Instead, or you in my stead Follow love
Fly beside me, my little dove Forever will I love
You, fly so high above
Oh, how I long for you
And I know you knew Even if you leave me alone
You can always use the phone
And yet this ice inside
Has never lied
Even though that is all you do Even though that is all you
You who betray
Each and every day
You who could never love
Even if you were white as a dove
My heartless body, cold Covered in such a strong hold My love, it dies
But please, don't cry

15 - Between Us

Between Us

Wind blowing, angry and fast
No one knows how long it ll last Through winter, even fall Summer, spring, through them all

We stay together Through all kinds of weather
But suddenly it rears Separating, showing our fears

What is this thing
That cannot sing
And cannot see That it is me

Hard, solid, cold
Nothing there to hold Sharp, dull, rough
We are not enough

What is this thing
That is here lying Before me, blocking me Standing right before me

Desert says it is a friend
I say it is the end Mountain says he will not lend
I say he will bend

16 - Blue Bird

Blue Bird

Sit upon the world up high Never preach, never sigh Sing a song for me today
So that I may sing for you someday I see the world as it could be And I see you as you should be But does it matter what I see When you shall never be Never, what a word
Just like a bright blue bird Make it also black
And bring it right back.

17 - Cage

Cage

You captured my heart
Gave me a start
As we sat by the lake
That we knew was fake Even as we sit
I can see a candle lit
And I can see a mountain Inside a fountain
And there it is Between a kiss
Living in a cage Living on a page
My precious heart Every part Caged and locked away
Each and every day
My dear heart
My lonely heart
What could I have done
You killed my only son
My dear heart and son Locked away, especially today
For it could not have fun
For my love will fade today.

18 - Came and Went

Came and Went

You came into this world
Cold, alone, and covered in blood You became Her pride and joy
My needs became Second to yours
Her love for me
Became second to yours
I don't know how it happened
Only that it did
But when they came threw the door
All I could do was cry
I knew even before they said Both would die
In mere seconds
Our life flashed before my eyes
It was all I could do Not to break down and cry
When I faced her again Smiling like only she could I knew that soon
It would happen
And I would leave Cold, alone, and ready to die.

19 - Captive of Evil

Captive of Evil

Sleepily, I wake Birthday of ten Hair, short and blonde Eyes, red and heavy

I yawned, stretching
The cross, now upside down, hung above
I reached from the light
As dark still hung around

The light, it s blinding
I squinted and looked around Dark, still, outside
Not yet my birthday, only the eve

I reached for my necklace
But found it not there
I glanced about, confused
My necklace was no where to be found

My necklace, a cross Had always protected me Demons stayed far
Now it was gone and demons still here

As I looked around
A dark portal did open
A man, pure white, stepped through And he had golden eyes

I brought the covers About my shoulders
He brought a chill
And I was chilled to the bones

I wanted to scream
But did not find a voice
And he smiled, oh, that smile,
As he approached

He placed a hand on my frightened head
His golden eyes flashed My red ones flashed
And he was gone

I woke, sweating
What&what happened?
I touched my forehead
And my eyes flashed

You are Mine, a voice from inside told me
Who are you?
I inquired

I am Evil, the voice responded Satan or Belial, Lucifer, the Patron of Hell.

My eyes widened.
No& I whispered, unbelieving
Yes, he responded
You are Mine forever.

Tears filled my eyes and my heart sank in that lake for now, I was lost lost one my birthday, ten

Four years after my birthday, fourteen I remain his captive a captive of Evil

A captive of that I feared, of that I hated
He is no longer feared
No longer hated

For now, you see, I know I know Him
I know His feelings
I know His thoughts

No longer am I captive;
I readily accept Him

When He comes
And He always leaves me be

He only comes at night never causes me a fright And always tells me when The possession is going end

So I say to you
He is not evil,
Only performing a job
And I am no longer a captive of Evil.

20 - Careless

Careless

How careless you are Driving that car

I can't believe
You would actually leave

What are you made of You, who gives false love

So careless with emotions Never sticking to your notions

You lover of villainy Hater of my symphony

Go with your carelessness
I don't need your mess

21 - Cold, Yet Happy

Cold and wet crying in soft arms hush, whispers mother you re fine now i look back at that smile and laugh fine, you said yeah, sure taint, oh taint take me, love me transform me, shape me mold me, inspire me but I guess it already has for, you see my life is the taint and yet I m happy cold and troubled i will probably die but for now I live tainted, yet happy taint, oh taint
take me, love me
transform me, shape me
mold me, inspire me

Cold, Yet Happy
By: R.C.Hutchins

22 - Come, Children of the Night

Come, Children of the Night

come, children of the night
bless me with your song bless me with your voice
come, children of the night
howl in my honor howl in my absence
come, children of the night
honor me with your life honor me with your death
come, children of the night
i see you clear i see you here
come, children of the night
serve me with your love serve me with your wisdom
come, children of the night
cry not, my loves cry not, my blessings
come, children of the night
die not, my children die not, my flowers
come, children of the night come, children of the moon come, my children, my children

23 - Could or Not

Could or Not

I feel I could cry Without you here
By my side
Fighting all away

I feel I could lie
To keep you near My time to bide Everyday

I feel I could sigh
When I see you clear
And our thoughts collide
At the end of the day

I feel I could die
When I see you lying there Never moving, never slide As your life drains today

I know if I cry
Then I will break down
And draw myself within Never to come back

I know if I lie
I will see you frown
I will know my sin
And see only black

I know if I sigh
You will place your crown Upon your kin
And just sit back

I know if I die
You would drown
In tears of tin Added stack by stack

You might cry
To see me so still Frozen forever
Six feet under

You might lie
With the quill Be very clever Or be torn asunder

You might sigh
Your tears to fill And see never When I go under

You might die Atop the hill
Leaving me forever
To live my life asunder

So I could not cry
For you, for me
To keep us alive Even for a while

And I could not lie
So you could see
And we could strive On this style

And I could not sigh Please, forgive me
Continue your drive
Continue to pile

And I could not die Because of what I see Today, to contrive
The world bile

I feel overwhelmed Within your shell Crushed, beaten
And falling faster every day.

24 - Courage

Courage

An exit, maybe, we'll see,
A wave of shock, breaking,
As I see my dark reflection,
I howl my despair,
My eyes glaze in fear,
As I turn away my stare,
I snap, snap, snap,
My breath quickens.

25 - Creatures of Myth

Blinded by hate Bathed in light Guided by fate
Saved by night
Across the sky
A song that dies Forced to cry
Killed by lies.
Dragons of old Beacons of hope Stories to be told
So we may cope Mysteries true
Myths and legends Spoken, performed
Every single legend Majestic, magic Taken by time Never static Never rhyme.
Answer my riddle
And you may pass Through fire fiddle
Play tune and fast Sphinx I may Wise and old
Many never say
The riddle told.
Sirens come Sirens sing Drown sailors some Sirens bring Song that die
Cause men to cry
For the love of the sky
And the sea, oh fly.
Fire to breathe Hell to follow
Breath to heave
And mercy hollow Hell my master
Hooves my weapon

Going only faster
Never lessen.
Eyes of burning coal Fur coarse and dull
Black as my very soul
Never take a toll
My brother does lie Blink and I am gone
But he will not cry
To use you as a pawn Hellhound he is
And blink dog I be Take my word on this
For you shall never see.
Now comes the white Feathers and hooves too Eyes blue to smite
All he slew
Pegasus be my name Beautiful I am called Trickery be my game
And all be mauled.

26 - Cross to Bear

Cross to Bear

As I sat there,
Staring at the sky,
I knew all at once,
You were telling me not to cry.

Yet all I could do was stare, Believing that you lie, Tell me I m not your son,
Tell me I won t die!

I could only scream,
Shouting at the sky,
But I could only say it once,
Please, tell me you lie.

My life tore at the seams,
As I saw you fly,
I knew all the fun,
Had fled to die.

I saw my cross to bear,
Outlined against the sky,
All I had was one last prayer,
Before I had to die.

27 - Dark

Dark

I stand alone
Beneath the hooded lights Waiting, just waiting For what, I do not know Forgotten, I have become.

28 - Darkness

Darkness

Bitter cold
Covered in black
It has a strong hold On this heart I lack

This darkness in me Embraced, not rejected,
Is all I long to see When a light is projected

Darkness that binds me,
Holds me tight,
Devours my eyes so I cannot see,
Covering me in spite.

Bitter cold,
Dark, dark as night
My mind is but a dark mold Darkness without a light.

29 - Darkness and Destruction

Darkness and Destruction

Crawling night
Dancing darkness Eerie moans Frightening the night Gas rising into the air Hydrogen quite explosive Ignite and we go boom Jet s engines endanger us Ka-pow and ka-boom
Like a nuclear warhead Mankind is doomed
Now is the right time Open your mind
Put all fears behind Quit your whining Reach out with your mind Sustain your imagination
Total destruction till Universe implosion
Vanquished yes
We shall become
You will be the masters Afraid we will Bow to you.

30 - Dead

Dead

Icy eyes& Icy skin& Icy blood&
Still here&

Still here&
Beside you&
Still here&
Always here&

Never left& Never will& Never without& Still here&

Always, now&
And forever.

31 - Death

Death

Now I shall tell you
Of a material thing
Which releases us from sadness, Hate, misery, and longing

This thing is known by many names Yet one name
Is the most common
This thing, I tell you, is Death

Death is a friend
Not to be feared
For Death releases us from everything Misery, joy, sadness, happiness, love, hate

There are many names That Death, my friend, goes by One is Thanatos,
Another the Grim Reaper

Death is my friend
Please, no criticism
Just be kind
For he is too.

32 - Death Comes - Haiku

Death Comes

death comes silent waves death comes silent as the night death comes all I see 33 - Deceitful Sky - Haiku

Deceitful Sky

the wind is peaceful the sky is bright and cheerful and yet I see death

34 - Demon of the Flame

Fire can give life
And can take life away
The demon of the flame
Controls that fire of life.

The heat is welcome
In the dark, bitter cold
The sparks rejected
In the still, green forest.

Yet still I see This destroyer wants to be Tamed and loved
All around.

A stranger has come to visit
My friend, a demon of flame
He says he comes to see it My friend, the demon, tame.

My friend my be tame
I tell him
But the demon s flame
Can never be tamed.

The name of my demon
Is that of fire
His name is his dominion Volcanoes all around.

Pyro Pyronous is his name
My friend the demon
The demon of flame
My friend tame.

And that is my friend
The Demon of the Flame.

35 - Devil's Trill

Devil s Trill

Into the dark we cry,
Into the full moon shrill,
Into the river s rage,

We see the dawn of day
The night do we kill,
Into the dark we cry,

We see the only way,
The frozen dead and the ill,
Into the rivers rage,

We see you can never say,
How you could ever fill,
Into the dark we cry,

We see you and him pay,
Watching from the window sill,
Into the river s rage,

We see thee, and thee say, Nay,
I sing no Devil s Trill!
Into the dark we cry,
Into the river s rage.

37 - Do you?

Do you?

I get the feeling you hate me you glare at me all the time I get the feeling I m unwanted you ignore me throughout the day I get the feeling you want me to die, burn, suffer, and not exist at all I get the feeling I m an outcast you leave to my loneliness I get the feeling you d never save me even if you were my only hope I get the feeling you never loved me even though I used to I get the feeling&I m dead inside my heart s been torn asunder I get the feeling I ll never love again as if love has never been my destiny I get the feeling I m just not me anymore my path set aside
I get the feeling I turned somewhere
I don t know where I am I get the feeling I ve lost my sight
I don t know what to do
I get the feeling you don t care so now there s only one thing to do yet still, I get the feeling I m scared I don t want to go just yet I get the feeling I d turn into a ghost because of how many regrets I d have I get the feeling I won t ever go because those regrets can never come true But&I get the feeling you really don t care do you?

38 - Do you know...

Do you know

Do you know what draws me to you?

Do you know what makes my heart soar?

Do you know whom I desire?

Do you know whom I adore?

Do you know why I love?

Do you know why I lie awake every night?

Do you know how I survived?

Do you know how it's still killing me inside?

Do you know where my mind's eye wanders?

Do you know where I belong?

Do you know
when this started?

Do you know when, or if, this will ever end?

39 - Dove, Queen, Rock

The ground beneath my feet Stable, because of you Never tipping, never falling,
The only rock with glue

And yet, oh
I am a dove
Forever caught
Within your love

The crown upon my head
Only matches thy s
So will you stand beside me
Beneath the man-made sky

And yet, oh
I am a dove
Forever caught
Within your love

Caught within your cage
I feel forever free Never the subject of your rage Always do we agree

And yet, oh
I am a dove
Forever caught
Within your love

As though I never felt This strongly before
As though I never knew What this feeling was ever for

And yet, oh
I am a dove
Forever caught
Within your love

Forever meant to be beside This one I cannot replace Forever meant to provide For this one I shall embrace

For I am a dove
Ever caught within your love.

Dove, Queen, Rock By: R. C. Hutchins

40 - Dragon of the Forest

Dragon of the Forest

Awakened by sounds of chirping the green mass rumbled Leathery wings shifted revealing scales of pure emerald And spikes of pine green along the spine and sword sharp Lazily, yet determined emerald eyes opened to the day of renewal.

Sated and sober
the forest wakened Bringing forth the sun
the wind caused the leaves to rustle And far below a bush pushed aside revealing a man of white skin and black hair Black eyes and pointed ears stepped through the parted bush.

The green-scaled beast turned its mighty head And seemed to smile at the pale skinned man Just as that white face with a single scare Seemed to smile back showing dragon sharp teeth.

The man and creature took flight from the grounds So the forest could see its master the Dragon of the Forest.

41 - Dream - Haiku

Dream

night and day I dream of a place where the stream flows where animals grow

42 - Dream A Dream

Dream a Dream

Part I

We danced and danced to the music of the age We laughed and had fun and danced to our heart s content Out in the courtyard in the night air cold Lights upon the tree and reflections upon the pond I sat and glanced up at the sky
The stars, they blinked and together they wink I wonder at the stars but then out comes the couples Misplaced I feel as I watch them smile Oh, how fondly they smile into each other s eyes A tear rolls down my check as I think, Why isn t that me?

Part II

I glanced out across the floor and watch as they dance A shiver runs down my spine as they dance away They seem to grow distant indistinct and non-existent And I feel my knees shaking growing weak
And I think for just a minute
I should go and leave
I don t belong
They re all dancing all having fun
So I leave the room and into the courtyard I go I sit in the dark corner watching them from afar I watch as many come and go it's like a dream, you see Then one comes alone and sad

She comes and sits beside the pond
And I think
What does she want?

Part III

She hugs herself
he watches from afar
The bell rings inside my head and I know they're meant to be A tear runs down her milky face A flash of concern shows in his eyes He stands and walks to her she looks at him, confused He asks if she's alright she tells him to simply leave He smiles and shrugs but doesn't leave
He sits beside her and whispers Pretend it's a dream.

43 - Either One

Either One

Forsaken, forgotten,
Both do not hear,
Both do not listen,
And, oh, how I fear,

Cast aside, never used,
Away from light,
So bemused,
Even calling in the night,

Morningstar or God,
It matters not which,
Morningstar or God,
Giving comfort without a hitch,

I m so very alone,
Insecure and afraid,
I could never atone,
For this soul, tattered and frayed,

Master of Heaven,
Master of Hell,
I looked at what You ve given
And, yet I simply fell,

Can You comfort me, Offer an arm of security,
Can I cry upon Your knee, Enclosed within Your purity,

Reassure me, I implore, Give me something real,
Open up this sealed door,
And let me finally feel,

Trapped here all alone,
I see me You never behold,
So how may I atone,
For sins as yet not told,

For things the I may do, Things that won t please You,
Either Power will do,
Even those I never knew,

Please, oh please, comfort me,
Wrap me in Your security,
Keep me close so I won t flee,
And enclose me in Your purity,

Evil or Good, both are fine,
Just please comfort me,
I could never draw a line,
If I am in Your purity,

Help me, God, help me,
Help me, Morningstar, help me,
Guide me down my destiny,
And hold me with all Your purity,

Hold me tight to Your breast, Never let me rest,
I fear I shall flee, lest,
You stay by my side, I contest,

Please, Power, walk here, Always stay near,
Do not let me fear,
Any of what I may hear,

My eye and ears are Yours,
Open for Your words and love,
Opening so many doors,
Either from below or above,

Please, my Lord, I beg of You, Come and comfort me,
Let me see all You do,
And gaze upon Your purity,

Pure evil or good, it matters not,
I wish for what I ve sought,
For it my mind has fought,
And in this I am caught,

I cannot escape though do not want,
I love this little war,

For this did I truly want Is this what I have longed for?

44 - Every Day

Every Day

every day,
the world keeps lying,
and every day,
the world keeps dying,
yet every day,
the world is moving,
and every day,
the world keeps living,
even though every day,
someone is crying,
and every day,
someone is dying,
so every day,
why do we cry,
and every day,
why do we die?

45 - Evil Misunderstood

Evil Misunderstood (from the eyes of Lucifer^_^)

By: Robin Hutchins

Fallen from grace, banished from every heavenly place, with wings of darkness,
and eyes of so merciless, intentions so very vile and misunderstood all the while,
I am who I am.
Titles a plenty,
a new one every century, Lucifer, Prince of Darkness, Father of Lies, Satan, Nameless One, Lord of Flies, Belial, Lord of Hell, Prince of Evil, all originate from hearts full of hate and evil, nevertheless, I am who I am.
Plots and schemes,
blood and screams,
politicians or lawyers,
courtrooms or foyers,
jailhouses or house arrest, it matters not for I made it to cause unrest, and of course, I am who I am.
Can I help Myself, when all these souls lay in balance, when the hearts of men lean toward Me, or even to My counterpart, or when chaos threatens,
can I help the explosion?
What can I say?
I am who I am & just evil & misunderstood.

46 - Existance

Existence

By: Robin Hutchins

The fire of rebirth is the fire of life and the fire of death

The water of truth is the spring of life and the water of salvation

The dirt of beginnings is the earth of life and the earth of endings

The air of defiance is the air of perseverance and the air of freedom

The fire of destruction is the fire of resurrection and the fire of execution

The water of thirst is the water of renewal and the water of first

The earth of miracles is the earth of imagery and the earth of mystery

The air of competition is the air of triumph and the air of defeat

The fire the water the earth the air all natural all needed for life to exist

47 - Falcon vs. Hawk

Falcon vs. Hawk

A streak of colors through the blue sky A cry of challenge from the valley bellow A flash of sharp talons as an answer
A beak as crooked as evil and talons to match But speed lacking so one falls and another soars on

48 - Fallen

Fallen

By: Robin Hutchins

My world was all light
No freedom in sight
All rules and laws
No time to play
A terrible thing I have done Tricked by the Enemy
And given His seeds
We had wed
A thousand years past They find out at last I am banished to Earth Never again to enter Heaven
But the Enemy has other ideas
And He comes to Earth for me And takes me to His realm Under the dirt and rock sea
I refuse and struggle
But He will not let me go
He takes me to Hell
And to His palace we go
I tell Him to release me
He does not listen
You are the wife of Lucifer,
He says, My wife.
My world is filled with night
No freedom in sight
I am a caged raven
My freedom stolen forever
I may be the wife of Lucifer
But that offers me no freedom
I must have my freedom
So I try to escape but I am caught My own son betrayed me
My other will never accept Lucifer
And he will remain there Forever chained to the walls of Hell And just as he I will remain
My freedom out of sight

My world covered in night
Once I was an Angel
Now fallen from the grace of God
I am fallen, forever and eternally fallen.

49 - Fallen Angel

Accused and alone
Used and broken Fallen and dying
Withdrawn and Forsaken
I sit in the dark Atop a roof Above a lighted city Bright and light
My black wings Held tight Against my back
And folded close Wind blowing all around Causing a frightful chill
To reach my bones
A frightful sound
To course through my veins
A dark angel
I am
And fallen
I will always be For I am forsaken Excluded from society
Fallen from loyalties Alone with no family

Alone and fallen
I wait in the dark Above the city of Man Below the city of God Far above the city of Evil I belong in none of these Too evil for above Hell is afraid I will take over
And I am not human at all
So I belong in none
I am Fallen Forever alone
I am Broken
Forever forsaken Kicked out of Heaven
And feared in Hell
Shunned on Earth
Unable to live with anyone Because I am different
And I am fallen Black wings
And a black heart Alone and forsaken
I am the Fallen Angel

Fallen Angel By Robin Hutchins

50 - Father-Dearest

I don't know why I try To convince you I can fly
This is important to me
If only you could see
This will help me
In the future that I see Support and approval is all I ask Yet you say this is too great a task Your only concern seems to be Science and technology
As you help the one down that path
And yet not me, because I cannot do the math Father-dearest, I'm an artist
I'm a poet, I'm a novelist
I can't do all that science
I really can't help all my defiance You want me to be Someone modeled after thee Guess what, that's not me So why the Hell can't you see?
Art is my game
Literature my middle name
Why the hell is that so difficult to understand
I could never walk your land Just lay down your head
So I may declare you dead
Your insides will help others instead And I'll be left here, in your stead I'll take care of mother
No need to bother
You can't help me Because you can't see
I have talent that others notice
So why has it taken you years to notice?
It's ticking me off you know It's the seeds of chaos you sow Why are you so difficult It's not like I'm part of a devil cult It's just poetry, parasite Have you really lost your sight?
Why must I explain to you Something everyone always knew?

Are you really so dense That you can't see this fence?
It's grown taller each day Blocking your sight, blocking your way Where did we turn, go wrong
How did we not notice for so long?
We're both fools, unless We can clean up this mess
What the Hell is wrong with you I thought you always knew I'm a poet
Not a goddamned prophet
So you'd rather take a vacation Than let me win a competition?
Thanks for all the support You've been a great player in this sport
Now get away from me Got out, coward, flee!
I'm frackin' pissed
And I promise, I won't miss!
You'll lose something precious Only something you find precious!
I'll rip it off you
Then I'm gonna sue!
You're a goddamned stress source
All you ever use is force!
Stay the frack away
At least for a thousand and one days!
I hate you and your money
You always think you're funny You're not and it's getting old
So give it up and fold
You've long over-stayed your welcome
So I think you owe me quite a sum Give up, you're not a good player You're a great traitor!
Why are you still alive
You never strive Everything comes easy to you
You never had a chance to be blue!
You never had to fight
Every single night!
You were lucky and conceited Always loved, always seated!
Such an ego booster, eh
To have everyone doing what you say?
I hate you and your ego!

Why can't you just go?
Once you were someone great
Now you're only someone to hate!
What the Hell made this happen
Perhaps it's a trait of men?
You really should forget That we ever met
You are such a goddamn failed father
You could never be like mother
How is my future a waste of time?
How could you possibly know?
You don't know my future, you aren't a prophet My future is in my locket
You don't have a key
So you could never unlock me
My future is away from you
You, who wishes to make me blue
I can feel your loathing Perhaps that's why I wear dark clothing
Why the Hell are you in my life
All you do is cause chaos and strife Why can't you die
Even if you know I won't cry
What possessed my mother
To make you my father
Why should I have to deal with you
When I don't even know what you do Are you really part of me Or do you just want to be?
Father dearest, I hate you so Who knew you could sink so low?
You're such a dick
Why don't you get a lick?
Mother deserves better
Or maybe you'll follow my advice to the letter?
Take my advice and let me go
To that one place we all know Let me win and go to the spotlight
And maybe, we won't fight.

Father-Dearest

51 - Fire Inside

Fire Inside

My fire burning,
Bright and brilliant,
Turning and yearning Always defiant
My fire inside Burning bright Always my guide
Even by night
My fire it lives
My fire it strives My fire it drives
All insane with its knives

52 - Flesh Eater

Flesh Eater

Take what you will But please oh please Don t take my prince

Truly oh truly
He is my life
He is my love

I cannot live without My dark haired love
My blue-eyed prince

Take what you will
But please flesh eater
Don t take my prince

My prince is all I know
For he keeps me above
This flooded plain

This dark haired prince Tower of my soul
Shelter of my heart

Tall, good natured
He doesn t deserve death
My lovely prince.

53 - Forbidden

Forbidden

This feeling, so new,
Never have I felt this way for you.
Feeling this compels me your way
But what is it, anyway?
What do you call this feeling,
So strange, yet not so new.
This feeling, it is me it is killing.
When I m near you, why do I yearn for you?
You are human, I am not,
Why, then, do I feel this way?
Why do you involve me in this plot?
I think of you every day.
But this cannot be
It must stop
It is forbidden, you must see
It must end, must come to a stop, Remove the feeling I have for you I do not know how.
Just give me a clue
And leave right now.
I understand what I feel It is love, I see.
But this cannot be real.
This love is forbidden for me.

54 - Fox's Winter - Haiku

Fox s Winter

deceitful and sly through the woods and through the snow the fox s paws fly

55 - Gabriel

Gabriel

Shadow s bane
He is well named Driving all insane
With only a single name Gabriel
Right hand of Holiness Voice of a bell Banisher of Darkness
Gabriel I love
Wings white and pretty Free as a dove
And face without pity Shadow s killer
Save me from my fate
So I may see you on your pillar Even for one last date
My love, oh come Bring me back to life Give me back my blood, even some Give me back the life stolen by His knife
My love cannot be shaken Even through death it lasts
Even though my life be taken My love does last.

56 - Gentle Earth

Gentle Earth

Terra is her name Gentle and fair
Earth is her domain
And that is for all she cares

With hair of leafy green And eyes of barky brown
She is the forests lead
And she shall never frown

On wings of green and red Strung with flowers blue Above her forests fed She flew

She is the earth beneath our feet Caring, kind, and loving With her in her living seat Her woods are never foreboding

She grows weak
As her earth is ravaged and hurt
But still her earth is meek
And says she s as gentle as her earth.

57 - Gma

Gma

You know we re here
I ll stay as near
As you need me
I won t push you, G

Talk to us
Don t hold up the bus
We re here, you know
If you need us, so&

Don t hold it in
You re drawing yourself thin
We need you too
Please don t be blue

We love you
I know you do, too
Talk to us, please
Maybe we can ease

The suffering you must feel We both know its real Don t hold it in Raise up your chin

Please don t cry
Wipe your eyes dry Let them shine
Let it be a sign

He won t die
I know God wouldn t allow it
So please don t cry
Please don t quit

58 - Heart's Pain

Heart's Pain

It may be small
It may be scratched
Maybe it took a few falls
But it was always patched

This heart I can give It's loving and shines
Because it does live Without any confines

This heart is mine
But it may belong to you If you keep it in your shrine
And watch it always glow anew

It can show you many things
It can show you my love Watch and see what it brings See what it may tell of My heart is my love

My love is my life
You must be from above Because this love is a knife

I can feel it turn Feel this painful longing Feel my precious heart burn Dreadfully, only prolonging.

59 - Heat

Heat

The heat&
It comes,
Unwanted, resented& Turning my friends away

My heat lasts Until, finally, it is& Satisfied, quiet now& Passion abated

Peace at last&
The heat retreats
Dormant, gone&
Until a year pasts

Then it comes& Repeating the process,
Resented, painful&
Coming again and again

That is the life
Of a fox&.

60 - Hole

Hole

Light cannot pass Matter cannot last Soul devour Burning power Reach out
And pout
As matter dies
And spirit cries
Soul devour
Sun to cower Breaking bonds Surface ponds
Crash, meteor, crash Flash, sky, flash Soul devour Mighty tower Fall, break Admit, fake Stand and smile
You haven t style Soul devour Ultimate power Hidden within Ultimate sin
Hole of destruction Void of production Soul devour Evil, or.

61 - How Can I Live?

How Can I Live?

how do I kill,
that which has always been?
how do I forget,
that which is always true?
how do I love,
that which cannot know?
how do I reach,
to one that is unreachable?
how do I dream,
when all I think of is you?
how does one escape,
from a room with no door?
and how do I live,
with the knowledge of pain, and the knowledge of death?

62 - How to Be a Hermit

How to Be a Hermit

The first step on your way,
To being alone,
Is to every day,
Act like a drone.

Ignore all around you,
Go into seclusion in your room,
Always act emotionless, never blue,
Keep a straight face or it s your doom.

Once you have that down,
And everyone is away,
Make sure to never frown,
And to be distant every day.

Now you are a hermit, all alone,
And now you can all go,
Now you can act like a drone,
Now you can never be as meek as a doe.

i keep trying because i know i m dying i keep going because i know there is nothing nothing beyond life beyond this murder and strife i keep living even with my misgiving i will always care
i will always be there for me you can count on for i rise with the dawn i burn with your fury and rage one even you cannot gauge i keep shinning aligning, combing all that i am gives you life all that i am gives you strife i feed all i will enthrall
you are mine
because you have no spine
so i say to you
i am the sun you view

64 - I Am Death

I Am Death

By: Robin Hutchins

I am death

nothing escapes my cold grasp

I am the beetle

I crawl through the bones of the dead

I am deceased

no longer alive and aging

I am the blackness of night darkness that consumes you

I am the reaper

I carve your soul from your body

I am silence

quiet and empty, blank and numb

65 - I Am Element

I am the forest I am Element By: Robin Hutchins

I soothe the angry

I am the wolf

I prowl on the forest floor

I am as old as time

I do not age inside

I am green

I am fresh and new

I am earth

forest and plants are my foray

I am independence

I go my own way

I am the volcano

I burn everything in my path

The eagle I am

the sky is my plain

My age is unknown

my soul lives forever

My color is red

I am the color I spill

I am fire

I roar silently in the night

I am dominance

for a leader cannot lead without me

The ocean I am

parallel to the sky

As a falcon I soar

I see everything in my plain

I am 13

unlucky at every game

I am light blue

the color of sky and ocean

I am water and air ever changing and ever blowing

I am change

never the same

I am the night for I am dark

I am the black fox

sly and clever
I am 13
but I am infinitely aging I am gray for I am no definite color I am dancing darkness dancing at your side and always there I am anger and I boil into rage

The sun I am for light is my game
The phoenix I become as I light up your life Everlasting is my age as I have no beginning and no end My color is many for I am radiant light I am light my soul pure I am love strong, true, and pure

Flying free I am Space filled with planets and solar systems in their place Never belonging I am a bird flying always free and not in a herd I am as old as I was since the beginning of time My color is black for evil and good, forth and back I am an asteroid flying in a belt
I am hope the only emotion that you can cope

I am earth
I am fire
I am water
I am air
I am darkness
I am light
I am space
I am Element.

66 - I am like the fox...

I.

Agile on his feet, he is a sly, skillful deceiver. With his ears standing straight and no doubt in his step, he strides easily, carefree, through the forest or across the meadow. His tail flows happily behind him and his eyes search far ahead of him. Silent paws upon the ground, and alert ears high, he catches the scent of a predator. He pauses, mid-stride, apprehension paralyzing him. A crackle of leaves sends him flying away, his surefooted movements making anyone jealous. He doubles back on his trail and up a tall tree to rest in the branches, his watchful eyes following his hunter. However, the hunter does not see, does not smell, does not hear him, and he is safe.

II.

The fox and I
Alike in many ways
As he can deceive
So too can I
As he is sly
So too am I
As he watches
So too do I
As he waits in silence
So too do I
As he escapes
I cannot As he is free
I am not.

67 - If We...

If we&

If we could live forever Together, forever and ever
If we could stay as one
And play under the sun
If we could do as we please
No one would think to tease
If we could laugh and love
Be free as a dove
If we could fly
Oh so high
If we could be free
And, do, love, see
If we could drink
And never sink
Then maybe we could be Each other's key
If we could be together
As long as forever
If we could stay as one
And never be outdone
If we could do as we please Life would be a breeze
If we could laugh and love Find something to be proud of
If we could fly
I would never say good-bye
If we could drink
I'm sure we'd be in synch
Then maybe we could be
Each other's key
If we could stay together
Be in love forever
Then maybe, just maybe,
We could be.

68 - I'm Sorry

The snow covers us in a soft white blanket It's so cold
in this world of hate
And so I say to you with crimson tears running As I stand over your stone cold grave
I say I'm sorry
I'm sorry you had to leave alone
I never wanted this to happen I'm sorry because now I can taste your sour revenge in my mouth I'm sorry because I feel so, so very alone what do I need to do for you to forgive?
I said I was sorry but I don't hear your words
The only thing here of you is the cold smell of hate Because you see you won't forgive me
I'm sorry
because now I'm so very alone.

I m Sorry

By: R.C.Hutchins

69 - In the Dark

In the Dark

The darkest shroud that no one could see gave no sound as it crossed the sea and as it crossed it caused no uproar of commotion nothing was lost and strange events were set in motion the city fell silent and off went the lights no noise came through the vent and the city now held only nights eternal night even in the light eternal fright
all throughout the pitch-black night demons roam the world once of man and humans grow few in numbers now only demons can ever remember the time when only humans roamed the earth in blissful ignorance of what was about to happen to the human existence.
And so the darkness comes.

70 - In the Dark of Night

In the Dark of Night

It is night
The light gone
We come out
And spirits too
Beneath the moon True to only What we know
And also what We only feel Instinct our master Inaction our demise Attack our survival
High, oh high, Far above you
I will fly In search of Only what is Food, nothing more.

71 - Kill or be Killed

Kill&or be killed& By: Robin Hutchins

I come home
She s on the computer
I try to avoid her She cusses
I go do my homework to avoid her Too late
She already saw me

Robin, she orders
Make some food!
I shake my head
I have homework, I tell her And I m not hungry.

Do you think I care?! she shrieks
I shake my head in fear Good! Cause I don t!
She points to the kitchen
Now!

I get up
I stand in front of her
I confront her
I brace myself
No.

She looks at me
She raises her arm
She hits me hard
I fall to the ground in pain
What did you say to me?!

I stood up
I winced at the pain
I stood straight
I braced myself for the next blow
I said, no .

She hits me again
Harder this time

Her eyes glow like a furnace of hate
She towers over my limp body
Do you enjoy getting hurt?!

I whimpered
I tried to crawl away
She caught my leg
I asked you a question! she yelled Answer!

No& I whispered
My words caught in my throat
I do not&
I did not want to get hurt
Nevertheless it was always this way

She picked me up by shirt
Her eyes terrified me
I squinted so I wouldn't see them
It didn't work
They glared and stared

Please& I whimpered
Don't hurt me&
I've done no wrong&
Please&
She ignored me

She kneed my stomach
Slapped my cheek
Punched my ribs
Threw me to the ground Kicked a fallen foe

I gasped for air
She grabbed my neck collar Pulled me to my feet Glared with her vulture eyes Don't disobey me again.

I nodded
She let me fall
However I knew she would do it again
It would always be this way Until I or she died

I had to do it
It had to be done Tonight
I couldn't hold it off anymore
I go to her room that night
I carry a knife
I prepare myself
I can't
I won't chicken out

She has ruined my life Tortured me Picked on me
Hurt me in more ways than one Almost killed me

I had to do it
I couldn't hold it off
I paused at her door
Then the pain in my ribs reminded me
It had to be done

She had hurt too many people
I was her main victim
She had crushed our enemies
Then hurt her family and friends
She was the same bloodthirsty monster

She was always this way
From childhood to now
I couldn't change her Mother tried
She failed

Father had tried
It had cost him his sanity
He was always drunk now Hurting everyone like her
She had to go

She wouldn't be missed
She would be a passing figure She's evil
She had to go
She had to go!

I opened her door

I crept in
I held the knife tightly
I couldn't wake her Cautiously
Ever so cautiously
I stepped across the room
This dark Evil room

I couldn't be heard
I didn't want to be heard
I shouldn't be heard
I prayed for stealth
I prayed for courage

I knew I wouldn't receive any This was in vain
It was for my sanity
It was for everyone's sanity
I had to do it

As I stood next to her sleeping body
I raised the knife
I thought once more
I shook my head
I had to do it

I quickly Smoothly
Stabbed her black Cold Heart

A gasp
Nothing more
She died on her bed
I backed away
But I saw her&no&breathing?!

I flattened myself against the door How could this happen? I thought What did I do wrong?
Did I miss her heart?

I messed it up!

She rose

The knife still rested in her bosom
She took out the knife
She stumbled over to me
Now you will see what happens
When you don't listen to me!
She rose to the knife
I put up my arms
Knowing they wouldn't protect me

The knife came down
Smooth and swift
It struck my chest Inches away from my heart in depth
She pushed it further

I screamed in pain Blood dripped to the ground
The cold knife struck my heart
I shrieked as she pulled it out
I slid to the ground

My body Lifeless
No movement
My eyes blank
My soul no longer present

Blood encircled her feet
She suddenly realized what she had done
She backed away Terrified
She fell to her knees

Tears rolled down her face
No& she whispered
What have I done?
The door opened just then Our mother and father ran in Shock and terror struck them hard As blood streamed to their feet

They saw blood from my lifeless body Blood from the wound I gave her Blood from our mistakes

What happened?! my father asked My mother cried on his shoulder

Mother spoke no longer Mother spoke no more
I did it& she confessed
I killed her&
Tears lined her face
And I m sorry&
She cried into her hands

Sorry isn t going to bring her back!
My father s face
For the first time Showed emotion toward me Too bad I wasn t there

The police came They put her in a straight jacket
They carried my body away
They asked my parents questions
They antagonized them

If only I hadn t made that decision
If only I hadn t felt that way
If only I had gotten counseling If only I had friends to talk to If only&if only&

72 - King

King

lonesome is the eagle, majestic and proud,
with another he is regale, yet cut down in a crowd.
this eagle in the sky,
flying always by day,
flying above ever high,
flying high ever merry and gay.
through clouds and rainbows, in and out,
this majestic bird controls the flow, without a hint of doubt.
he is the eagle,
majestic and blazing,
to others he is beautiful,
and to all his is king.

73 - Knight's Woe

Knight s Woe

Far from right, screams the knight,
Far from light,
screams the night.

Woe is he,
who sees me, Woe is he,
who loves me.

All I love, is he above,
All I love,
is that dove.

The glowing sky,
will always cry,
For the lie,
as all die.

Yet the knight,
cries to night,
He loves me,
woe is he.

Say, I know, and say, no, Wrong is love,
wrong, my dove.

74 - Leave Me Be

Leave Me Be

By: Robin Hutchins

This noise in my mind, all around me,
Sends a shiver down my spine.
If you could only see
This world was never mine.
If you could only see
Those words were never mine.
Those words that flew from my maw,
Those words you told me to say,
They were not mine, and that s your flaw.
This world under my paw,
This world so bright and full of locks,
The mind and thoughts behind my claw,
They are not mine, this world, these thoughts.
It is you who is behind my movements,
Behind my paw, my thoughts, my words.
You who tells me things, you who guides my life events.
I was just a pawn, but no, no longer!
I tell you, leave me be, stop your whispering,
Go and never return, I do not need you!
Shut up, please, leave me&
I don t need you&
But you know me too well,
Your beastly instinct tells you much,
You created me&you re afraid of the real world&
I saved you& you pause, then continue,
And I can destroy you& Leave me please&
But begging will not help&
I don t need the whisperer, the hunter, anymore& Leave me be, hunter who hunts my soul& Leave me be&please&

75 - Life and Death

Life
A fantasy
A delusion of the mind
An illusion
We are delirious

Life
Not real Fake Fiction Painful Hurtful Joyous delusion

Death
Grace Relief
Quick at times
On going at others

Death
No more pain
No more life
No more illusions
No more fantasies

Life and Death
They say
When you die
Your whole life Passes right before your eyes
And you know what?
It s true!
Its called Living.

Living Torture Love Darkness
Broken hearts Sadness

Grief Nothingness
An endless void Nothing to be proud of.

76 - Light-bringer

Light-bringer

Shinning bright,
In the sky,
Through the night,
Though you sigh,
Light-bringer,
Do not leave me,
For they point their finger,
Because they cannot see,
Most beautiful,
Majestic, kind,
Second only to that bull,
Question, curious mind,
My shinning star,
Most beautiful on high,
No words could ever mar,
This love that cannot lie,
Yet you were cast,
From that kingdom up above,
You knew it could not last,
The thing he called love,
And yet you stayed,
Like a faithful friend,
But the price you paid,
Was too much in the end,
You left me alone,
And you took my friends,
Now I m just a drone,
And you could never make amends,
You left the Heavens for below,
And you never mentioned to me,
You were so uncomfortable in the flow,
Now I can never see,
My morning sun,
You took the bright,
And made my world come undone,
As this light turned to night,
You were all I need,
But do you, did you, ever need me,
Are you really such a different breed,
That we could never be,

My beloved, so high above,
No painter can capture you,
No other could have your love,
And so I say to you,
Come back to me, my love,
As I cannot run to you,
Return to the world above,
Please, even once, so I may see you.

77 - Like Him

Like Him

Slowly
Without a care
She became aware Of the hand Soft
Upon her cheek
And she knew Without a clue
That he would Cheat
Yet she believed That he would Never leave, but Oh, how she Denied
That he would Leave
Now she knows That she does Regret
Following him here Showing her every Tear Faith in his Hollow lies, but She still trusts
That fake smile
So
She knows, though,
She should leave Yet
She will not,
No, never will
She will not Be like Him.

78 - Like This Again

Like This Again

Embarrassed like this Only once before Eyes raging fire
Words daggers, knives
I feel ashamed
Hurt, even broken
So why continue Hurting me so.
I cry inside
Stabbing her back Chocking her life
How I wish
Not to be Here, right now Criticized, dressed down.
I feel small Insignificant, tiny, humiliated Why say this
It means nothing
Not for me
I wish you
Gone, away, please Go away now
So I may Slip into silence
And forever sleep.
Not embarrassed again
Not hurt, broken
Not wishing revenge
Not feeling small
Not ever again.

79 - Live for Me Not

Live For Me Not

love and hate joy and sorrow happiness and anger all for the next sickness and depression caring and emotion tears of my heart and tears of my open soul cry for me, cry die for me, die pray for me not live for me not

80 - Love?

Love

Is it love

When you look into my eyes?

Is it love

When you kiss me?

Is it love

When you sleep in my bed?

Passion

Is it really passion

When you like me?

Is it passion

When you give your life for me?

Is it passion

When you hold me in your arms?

Care

Do you care

When I m in my deathbed?

Do you truly care

When you take me dancing?

Do you care

When I m hurt?

Fear

Do you fear

When I m in danger?

Do you feel terror

When I m nowhere to be found?

Do you really, truly fear

When I can no longer be with you?

Want

Do you want

To be with me?

Do you really want

To have a kiss from me?

Do you want

To be left alone?

Need

Do you need me?

Do you need Someone by your side?
Do you need
Love or are we fated to live alone?
Remember
Will you remember me?
Will you remember the oath
The oath of our marriage?
Do you remember the wall
Where we wrote our first message of love?

Kiss
Will you kiss me every night?
Will you kiss me with passion?
Does our kiss mean anything to you?
Have you ever kissed before?
Is it your true kiss when you re rushing out the door?

Death
Don t want it Don t need it
Yet it comes knocking on our door
Will you answer it and leave me alone?
Or will you turn it back and stay with me?
I would turn it back
But would you?

Love me
Give me Passion Don t Fear me
Do you Want me?
Do you Need me?
Remember me
Kiss me
Death is knocking

Love?

81 - Misty Fear

Misty Fear

The air is so clear above the misty fear
A fear so much like fire because it spreads like a wild fire A fear so profound it consumes the Earth, every pound

As a thousand miles of fire a joy spread through the fear led by the sire Now the air is so clear without the misty fear
The water on the Earth so near is no longer muddied with fear

And as soon as it began the fire of this joy went out as a typhoon swept over the land the wind could not save the flame the fire is gone along with joy now the air is only clear

82 - My Demon

My Demon

I desire what cannot be had I desire
what can never be I love
a black hearted thing I love
a tainted thing
I crave
what is universally forbidden I crave
what others say is impure I adore
his silver eyes
I adore
his long silver hair
I long to play with his long ears
I long
to snuggle with his fluffy tails I survive
knowing he s alive
I survive
knowing he is mine.

83 - My Ellen

My Ellen

Although I lay here Awaiting my death
I can't help but think What will happen next?

I'll be leaving behind
My wife, with no job
A house, with more to pay
And 97 year old Louise.

If I could stay
And help them get by If only for a few more years Then, I'd be ready to die.

My dear love, my Ellen
Please, don't cry
I'm coming home for Christmas
Whatever it takes, I'll be there.

I wish to see
All those smiles
That spread for miles
Not sad frowns.

I don't want to ruin
This Christmas for all
So please my Ellen Don't cry when I'm gone.

84 - My Heart or Yours

My Heart or Yours

There s an ache in my heart
Its tearing me apart Through brightest day
I can t see you anyway
Through blackest night
You re my unseeing light
You re my ache
I know you can t fake
You don t love
Yet you call me a dove
You don t feel My fate is sealed
You always lied
Its killing me inside
You though I wouldn t know
I though you would never sink so low You led me on Thinking I was an innocent fawn Now you lie bleeding Still unfeeling
Now you lie dying Still not loving Now here you lie
With me dead inside
My ache is gone
And I know I was dead all along I gave you a choice
Yet you re still out of place
My heart or yours
My life or yours
You chose wrong
I knew all along Yet still I believed
You might have changed
Yet here you lie
And me, dead inside Blood on my hands
And on your lands
Rain falling from the sky
To wash away your lies

My heart or yours
My life or yours
A choice to never again be made
And so away we fade
Into history's past
And down to the last.

85 - My Life, My Death

Fear Consumes my Every being
As the cold Blue Steel Touches Pierces
My soft flesh
The owner Withdrawals
That cold Blue Steel

Blood Drips down
My side
My life
Slowly Painfully Slips away
I will not live
I know this
It s inevitable
Leaving this painful Cruel
Cold world

Wasted
I am Nothing
Will keep me
At least not here
I am ready
To leave
I do not Want to live
My life
My time
My creativity Wasted

Wasted on this earth
I will not Be wasted for you Never for you Terror
Is unexpected
As I wake
On a bed
A hospital bed
I don't want to live!
I cry out
They do not listen
They never listen
Terror is my life
My pitiful life
I don't want to live &
Tears steam down
My face
As reality kicks in Anger

Is my new Reality
I cannot feel Anything but This nagging Irritating Anger
It is My only
My one
My loved Feeling

Time
There is no such thing
Time
Does not matter
I have all the Time
I need
And I need
No time
No time at all
For I need to do Nothing
I have nothing left

Nothing to do
On this pitiful Dirty earth Confusion
It is grace
Though it does not Always come
At such a good time
It can be bad
For others not like me
But I need it
I need Confusion
It fuels my body
My young Bloodthirsty Body

Wait
Wait For me
And I shall Wait for you
Be patient
And wait
My judging
It will be over soon
Just wait
Wait for me
I will be there Very soon
Just wait
Wait in death

Death
It will come
It is inevitable Everyone dies
No one lives forever
My death is near Nearer
It comes Closer
I close my eyes
I accept my death
I do not fight it
I scream
Piercing your ear

I start to sleep forever
My life has finally ended.

My Life, My Death
By: Robin Hutchins

86 - My Love, My Dove

My Love, My Dove

my love, my love,
be not a dove,
as the sky cries,
as the sun dies,
as the moon shines,
as the night whines,
my love, my love,
move on as a dove,
as your eyes cry,
as your body does die,
as your radiant skin loses its shine, as the wolf does whine,
my love, my love,
soar as a dove,
as the world cries,
as the world dies,
as the world no longer shines, as the world no longer whines,
my love, my love,
are we dead, my dove?

87 - My Lovely Queen

My Lovely Queen

The rain pours down, Flowing down you cheeks,
I touch your lovely face,
But you re so cold to the touch.

Once you were so beautiful
Once I could see all
Once you were my shinning jewel
Once you held me, forever in thrall

I pull my hand away Fearful to disturb you How could they have down this
To you, my beautiful queen

Once you were so beautiful
Once I could see all
Once you were my shinning jewel
Once you held me, forever in thrall

They stole away your beauty
They stole away your grace
It was my neglect of duty
That they did this to your face

Once you were so beautiful
Once I could see all
Once you were my shinning jewel
Once you held me, forever in thrall

Now your sight has darkened Now your beauty is marred
I hope our friendship can transcend Though this has left you scarred

Once you were so beautiful
Once I could see all
Once you were my shinning jewel
Once you held me, forever in thrall

88 - My Window, My Sky

My Window, My Sky

Do my eyes deceive me,
Or does my window show true?
Is it truly a white winter I see,
When we've had fall all through?
My window, do you lie,
My window, who is so cruel?
My window, will you show me the sky,
That we may one day duel?
You and the sky,
Are you not yet friends?
Please, don't make me cry,
My window, my sky, please make amends!
My chest is pained,
You fight everyday!
I feel so drained,
But, please, don't look at me in dismay!
I will be okay,
I have you both to comfort me.
Yet if one of you should betray,
I feel I will die with glee.
My window, my sky,
Please, stay by my side!
I could not bear to see you cry,
I may be swept away by the tide.
Please, my window,
Please, my sky,
Stay forever with me in limbo,
And never say good-bye.

89 - Never There

Never There

Why were you never there Did you even care
What did you do
To make her blue
You messed up big With Sarah, with me
You messed up, pig
And too late to see This wall has formed
You have been warned
I m not sorry to say
You can t have things your way Leave me be
So I may see How you even loved her How you lied to her
I never liked you
I think you knew
You moved around
And were never there You were not my ground
Because you didn t care
I hate you Yet I can t
I love you
And I don t
So what is this Love, or no?
I think it s respect
On the deepest level yet.

90 - Night And You

Night and You

As the night falls
As the sun falls
I see neither light
Nor a bright night
The moon is naught
The heroes still fought
The dark is fright
The light too bright
What is between What is to be seen What but me
And all to see My love, my dove
Fly high above
You will all be fine
My love still shines
Oh, how I long to see Only you in front of me
By my side, now and forever Don't ever, please, our ties sever
I will always love you
So please don't be blue Nothing can pry me from you
No way can I let go of you I love only thee
If only you could see
Please stay right here with me
So our love can truly be

91 - Not Your Foe

Not Your Foe

My love is dead
My spirit has fled All it took Was just a look
For all I've done
To be gone
So now I say
At the end of the day
Will you come With only some
To see this thing
To which I cling
My only hope
For me to cope
My only joy
As a boy
So please don't go
I'm not your foe
Why do you hate me so Why do you always say no
I'm just your son What've I done?

92 - On Ruby Wings

On Ruby Wings

By: Robin Hutchins

Ruby against a sky so dark nothing but a bird to eyes below Soaring on leather wings of red scales reflecting the full moon s light And all down his spine spikes as sharp as blood red swords Only broken at the neck where his Rider soundly slept.

Swept up along the currents he flew higher and higher Then swooped out of the sky at an angled dive Until finally his wings, they snapped open Breaking that terrible fall and onward they flew.

His eyes, molten fire, searching as to find the elves of old Only to be disappointed as the elves have long been gone And now his Rider wakens eyes black against tan skin And hair of black night and ears of pointed peaks.

With the elf on his back and wind under his wings He let out a mournful roar and soared on,
on ruby wings.

93 - Only A Shadow

Only a Shadow

Though darkness
Through shadow
Through nothing less Flies the crow

Flitting through Never truly seen Only really true
A shadow seen

Only a shadow Simple as that Upon the doe Upon the cat

Only a shadow
Upon the wall
Only a shadow
And that is all.

94 - Only Human, Yet Something More

Only Human, Yet Something More

By: Robin Hutchins

You are a friend

I am a loner

You are a rabbit

I am a fox

You are a student

I am a principle

You are a knight

I am a monarch

You are one color

I am a rainbow

You are a cat

I am a tiger

You are a humming bird

I am an eagle

You are the earth

I am your moon

You are the body

I am the soul

You are the follower

I am the leader

You are the employee

I am your boss

You are only human

I am something more

We are different

Yet we are one.

95 - Only Regret

Only Regret

My heart is torn asunder under this constant strain hate is my defender under this empty claim My love is thrown away under your scornful eyes anger is my outer clay under all your lies My soul is turned to black under your venomous words sorrow is my match under the tears of all the worlds My body is just a meal under your lustful gaze betrayal is all I feel under this moonlit haze My mind is filled with poison under your lies of forever blind forgiveness is my enemy under this empty shell My eyes are filled with tears under your blade of truth death is my only savior under this lake of blood and tears My only regret was never said under that moon so high in a dark night sky.

96 - Only You

Only You

Oh, how I wish to be The only one you see
The only one in your eyes
The only one in your skies
You're on my mind every day
I can live no other way
You are all my heart is beating for I can hold it in no more
You are so glorious Pushing me to be victorious
I wish to see you by my side
And I don't just mean inside
You are the only one for me Can't you see as I fall to my knee Won't you be my faithful Queen Forever to be seen
If I give you this beautiful ring Could I stand beside you as your King
I know it could never compare I have always been aware Your beauty is unmatched Maybe that's why I'm attached Your sparkle outdoes the stars Perhaps you can heal my scars Your kindness is so consuming Perhaps that is why my love is blooming You're more beautiful than the stars above Even more than the mountains speak of They speak to me your name
They say to me your love is a flame
Can I help this lovely flame Can I claim you as my dame Will you be my escape
To the far away cape
Will you take me away
So we may stray
Along the track
And never look back Take this ring
So I may be your King

It s shaped like a tear
So you may never fear
I will always be near Because you are so dear.

97 - Our Master

Our Master

We serve the one we love,
We serve the one we fear,
We serve him as a true love,
Or we serve him with our tear.
We tell our master we serve,
But we never tell him we fear,
We tell him we respect him as he deserves,
And we never show him our tear.
Our master is our owner,
Our master is our lord,
Our master is also a loner,
And our master doesn't hoard.
Our master is all we see,
Our master is all we need,
Our master is kind, guarantee,
And our master is just the beginning seed.

98 - Parade

Parade

Haunting regret, deep indeed, Leveling my crown,
Ink upon white skin,
Storm upon my brow,
Twinge, and it returns,
Testing my nerves, breaking,
Ever so, faint indeed,
A resting stain for all to see.

99 - Parallel Dementia, Tale and Truth

Parallel Dementia Monday, November 19, 2007 Comic 349

Tale will change and truth will wither Every time a story s told Out of eons, passing hither Warped will be the names of old Tale will rot and truth will falter Every time a story s said Merge with myth and folk lore alter Till tale and truth are lost and dead

Continuation by Robin Hutchins

Tale will clash and truth will shape
Every time a story s passed Swept behind the drape Formed under lies cast Tale will distort and truth will die Every time a story s spoken Forever buried in the sky Till dreams and wishes lie broken

Tale will convince while truth will lie Every time a story s asked Laid down and left to die Till all that s truth is lost in the past Tale will stumble, truth will stammer Every time a story s read Clothed in fashion, bathed in glamour Till tale and truth have forever fled

Tale will lie and truth will fall Every time a story s shown Made only to enthrall
No longer said to be a clone Tale will watch and truth will groan Every time a story s revealed Festering in wounds long prone Till tale and truth can never be healed.

100 - Pem (wow, Pem gets to be 100)

Pem

Sunlit waves brush against my fur
The warmth blows away the burr Masters stand upon complaining wood Or sit against sun-bleached wood Oh how the sun doth sing
To the bird s mighty ring Trees converse along the wind Carrying messages through chatty wind Can you hear all of them
With their words and gabby pems
I can hear them all Their voices rise and fall
It is the sound of the country Wild and free
Oh, they laugh and cry
They live and they die
All them wild, all the same
All the love, all never tame
What would you have of them
If all they could say was pem ?

101 - Perfect

Perfect

The world imperfect as it may be has points in time when we help those in need.

The Heavens perfect as they may be only accepts those with more good than any human could be

The nether regions of Hell as perfectly evil as they may be can only be evil to those who know no fear of evil

The perfect good is a human known to all and a good perfected by time that good is known as God

The perfect evil
is a human known to all and an evil perfected by time that evil is so named Lucifer

But me imperfect good and imperfect evil living in an imperfect world

I know no fear of evil no fear of good no fear of the perfect evil and no fear of the perfect good

What is perfect evil?
What is perfect good?
What is imperfect?
What is perfect?

102 - Pete

Pete

Grandma is crying
As you lay there dying
And I feel like lying To keep her from dying

But you will die
And we will cry
Because you are dead
Not me instead

No one would miss
This lonely kiss
That no one received From one who never believed

Why are you dying
And leaving her here
Why do you let her Continue crying

Hear me now
Please don't go
Do you want me to bow
To my foe

To him above
The one who doesn't love
This empty husk
From dawn till dusk

Grandma will cry
As you lay there dying
The machine is lying Please don't die

Beeeeeeeeeeeeeeep

103 - Poem Request - A Dream

A Dream

beyond the sparkling mirror past the perfect waves down to the bottom of silver and on to the mermaid caves past the shark pit and through the seaweed blades the it lies, a perfect fit a city no one needs to aid a perfect city under the sea a city just for you and me here, we are free and here you will stay, just for me watch as the fish come and go so many colors there are just like an underwater rainbow look, you can even see it from afar we could stay here for all eternity no one would ever know no one would look for you or for me and, here, look how brightly you glow but then i remember and it all fades away it s the middle of November and in my bed i lay the midnight moon shines bright through my spite-filled window and bathing in the night to think the world would sink so low why will it not just let me have one night one night to enjoy for what i fought even if it would, it would not be tonight tonight is ruined but there is always tomorrow to take another trip to my underwater dream world and forever there we will stay together in my underwater dream world.

104 - Portrait

Portrait

The way they portray you Lord of the divine
With horns and majestic wings, too Pointed ears and eyes divine Lord of the lost Beauty without compare
Oh, how they've lost
Your beauty within Your stare Sketched to perfection
In the sky or on the ground Painted without reservation
No flaw to be found Your majestic glow draws me
To Your mighty domain
Oh, I cannot see Why no one wishes to remain
Your beauty, everlasting Your majesty, undefined
Your words, ever binding
And for Your love, I am confined.

105 - Questions for Thee

Questions for Thee

Why do I try
When I know I will cry?
Why do I fear
When you are so near?
Why must you go
When I love you so?
Why do I feel like this
When I only want to feel bliss?
Why do you cause me to be When all I want to see is thee?
Why must we be apart
When I gave you my broken heart?
Why can't you see
When my love is for thee?
Why can't I love
When you're as free as a dove?
Why can't you love me
When I can't see?
Why must you be you
When no one ever knew?

106 - Rain

Rain

So much depends upon
The pattering rain
The soaking life
Giving soil another chance
If only someone
Would stay beneath
The rain and Scatter thirsty seeds.

107 - Re

Re

While I slept, I knew who was there,
He always came on silent feet,
And climbed up next to me, like a little teddy bear While I slept where dreams meet.

While I played outside, he was always there by my side,
He would be there, love in his deep blue eyes,
And we would always be together, my mind lied, While I played in my lies.

Now he rests without me,
While my heart grows cold,
And I hold these flowers for all to see,
While the rain drops bold.

108 - Realization

Realization

The ruler of Hell,
Known widely well,
For the tricks of his trade,
The Prince will not fade,
The Lord will never go,
Yet he has so many foes,
The Prince of Hate, Knows my fate,
As the new Lord of Lies,
I shall never cry,
In my newest station,
With this realization.
I am the Master of Hell,
Known widely well,
For the tricks of My trade,
I shall never fade,
I shall never go,
Though I have so many foes,
I am the Prince of Hate,
It is My fate,
As the new Lord of Lies,
Until the day when I die,
I ll do my best,
And will always beat the rest.

109 - Reflection

Reflection

By: Robin Hutchins

A reflection of my soul
Is always too cruel
But a reflection of the moon
Can t be conjured at noon

A reflection of true love
Is always covered by a cloth glove
But a reflection of misery Can t be separated from chivalry

A reflection of the world Will always be covered by gray
But a reflection of an individual soul Is good or evil, housed by a fool

The reflection of my soul
Is the reflection of the moon
Just as the reflection of true love
Is the reflection of true misery
Just as the reflection of the world Is but a reflection of an individual soul

And my individual soul
Is too cruel for show.

110 - River of Tears

River of Tears

The moon shines bright in the dark sea of night rain pours down flowing over my crown i stand over a river and down my spine runs a shiver the river under me makes my legs all shaky it s the river of my fears a river made of tears the tears of angels high above tears of grief and not of love the tears of all into this river they fall and so the river rises.

111 - Remembering

Remembering

black masked hate murder inside

common enemy survived brief terror tearing our wounds apart violence death suicide fighting our life threat?

-no.

112 - Roam and Flow

I feel alone
More so than before Even though I have you
My heart remains sore
I haven't a clue
What this feeling is for All I know
Is that I'm closing this door
Please don't be blue
You didn't sow
This feeling to cry
To roam, to flow
Call love to die
Before it all does blow Let my soul be
As quiet as a doe
My imagination calls to fly
To let me see White and black
All that will be
Do not say I lack That same ability
But this I have sown
So I must remain alone.

Roam and Flow

113 - Samurai Soul

Samurai Soul

By: Robin Hutchins

I am

the iron ore which makes your sword the horse on which you ride the age of the universe for that is the age of your soul

the color silver in your long braided hair the sword that protects and kills the loyalty of which you show

We are the water and the river

the samurai loyal to his lord and the horse loyal to the samurai the age .5, half of the whole apart the colors white and black, for we cannot exist without the other the hand which holds the sword and the sword in the hand the will to protect and the love that feeds the will

You are the samurai and I am your soul

114 - Sanctum

Sanctum

I never knew you d be so useful
I never knew I d miss you so But now I stand here at the window Grieving that I ve lost you so Looking through the window With greater clarity I see That without you here with me How important you were to me
You kept me in school
You kept my emotions in check
My mind is lost without you My mind is a total wreck
With you I was so cool
But now I only drool
These clouds that pass above
Are as blank as my own mind Look, now the doctor s here
To make my mind not so clear Oh, how could I have lost you,
My sweet, sweet sanity.

115 - Screaming

Screaming

Shaking, shaking Breaking, breaking Screaming, screaming Falling, falling Buildings crumble
Flesh crushed
Fires snuffed Lives lost Dying, dying
Crying, crying Lying, lying Flying, flying Catch me Kill me
Kiss me
Steal me
Shaking, breaking Screaming, falling Dying, crying Lying, flying Caught tonight
Without fright
Only see Cannot be Shaking, lying Breaking, crying Falling, flying
Screaming, ever dying.

116 - Sea of Night

Sea of Night

through winter and summer, spring and fall,
through mountains and water,
rolls on does the ball.
through rain and snow,
dusk and twilight,
through the sleet the sky does throw,
and on through night and light.
the ball rolls on,
rotating in an ocean of night,
spinning with the dawn,
spinning with the light.
an ocean of night,
and orbs of light,
no need for fright,
just to take flight.
come swim in this sea,
come swim with all these lights,
come swim with me,
come swim in this sea of night.

117 - Secret

Do you hear that bell Ringing in the distance Loud, like a gong Listen, does it linger
As waves upon the shore Sound of angels wings Free, strong, light
Perhaps the shadow
On the wall
As it does dance Hears this bell in silence
But it does not disturb
The moon upon the way
As it travels it s silver path Across the bridge of gold Invisible though it is It sounds of promise and truth
No pain does it hold It soothes and restores As rain flowing over hands
New, full of heart

A kiss in the night
A gentle wind upon the window
A soft touch from the master
A tremble over time
A rush&then it fades Pray, does it flow
This river of gray
So sweet, so dark
A pure star in the depths Of the sky Embrace and forgive Answer to these words
Cloud over these eyes Know now and forever
Near to the end Caste off thy cover Receive thy soul Surrender strength

To the flame

And give it to the dragon
A gift to thy rest
And a gate to thy praise Low, what does thy prove In thy frail tide

Old as thy are Misty with power
Birds taste thy fruit
Call to the open
And fall to the grass Feet dig and split

And again born away
And still does that bell shiver Still sing upon wings Following a jingle tap Endure the pattern
Collect thy sparks Create this road
Red, green, blue&
But then you were let go
And low, I break
My anchor failed
Consumed by mist, fire
And shake now, atoms powder Hard to stay afloat Possible to grow, nay
And so I say to thee Thy died as only a loon
With thy bag upon thy shoulder Just off from cricket Blessed not to be punished
A loaf in thy s pocket
A leaf in thy s hair
And only by chance of zig Did this ever become mine secret.

118 - Shadow

Shadow

I have a friend who controls the shadows
He controls darkness and misery for all the world's fellows.
My friend, you wouldn't believe, is a demon.
My demon friend's a lady's man.
You can find him at the bar;
He drives a really expensive car.
He'll flirt with you all night,
He might even get you out of a fight.
He'll never be a jerk to you
And he'll always remain true.
I know it's hard to believe,
But I'm relieved he'll never leave.
He may be gentle, may be kind,
But I know at heart, he's a demon, yet I don't mind.
Humans say he must die,
But if he does, I will cry.
Why must my demon friend go?
This demon is not your foe!
He is but a harmless shadow on the wall
Just as Shadow he is called.

119 - Shadow the Thief

Shadow the Thief
By: Robin Hutchins

A dark shadow atop roofs a fleeting shadow over alleys A dodging character through the shadows On through the windows into the rooms of nobles And on toward the riches out of the windows.

In the morning loud and long Sounds the thieves alarm all throughout the valley In the Guild of Thieves celebrations all throughout Mead and ale passed around a feast for the newest thief.

Shadow of the night fleeting darkness all throughout A thief, now and forever running from the law A criminal, a thief top of the guild Cunning and sly
Shadow she is dubbed.

120 - Shell

Shell

I cannot see,
What you love,
In this shell of me.

But you,
You say you love,
Even that too.

But how, I ask,
Can you love,
This shadowy flask?

Only a shadow of me,
Yet you love,
This, the true me.

I show no one,
What I love,
But now it s done.

Come with me,
My precious love,
So we may live,
At the bottom,
Of the sea.

121 - Shelnon (YAY)

Shelnon

This jacket on me
Keeps me safe and warm, see?
This jacket you see Keeps you safe and warm...maybe.
My eyes see blood,
My hands at my sides,
As you lay in the mud,
And I say my good-byes.
You may be safe for now,
I say,
But soon I'll be back,
One day.
You'll see, I know,
When I come back,
I'll dye the snow,
And put you on my stack.

122 - Silent Leaves - Haiku

Silent Leaves

for the love of all and for the love of my fall the leaves fall silent

123 - Simple Expression

Simple Expression

I give you my heart,
my mind, body, and soul.
I give you my love,
unattached and true.
This feeling, this emotion,
it compels me to you.
Your beauty I adore, your compassion causes my heart to soar.
My life revolves around you,
you my sun, I your moon.
Do you see my tear,
as this slowly kills me inside?
Do you see my love,
in these eyes that tell true?
My love is only for you,
but, please, don't pity me.
I don't mind,
if you don't share my feelings.
Acknowledgment is all I ask,
I think of you every day.
I don't know what it is,
but it draws me to you.
I can only say it simply,
I love you.

124 - Skull the Assassin

Skull the Assassin
By: Robin Hutchins

A wispy ghost across the street fleeing sight, sound, and light
And all throughout the night
he makes his way To the target paid for what he does Into the chamber silent out the chamber silent.

In the morning loud and annoying Lamenting heard all throughout the city In the Assassins Guild there is nothing but celebration Initiation past so now they all drink mead and ale.

Nothing but a ghost as white as bone With hair so black nothing else is seen A fugitive from the law a criminal, an assassin Top in his skill Skull he is called.

125 - Snow Warning - Haiku

Snow Warning

I see nothing else as white flakes fall to the ground winter is now here

126 - Specter of Christmas Fright

Specter of Christmas Fright

Death is all I see Staring straight at me
On through the night
Causing fear and fright.
Christmas eve will end very soon,
But Santa can't be seen across the moon.
Where is that jolly fellow?
Maybe he ate the snow yellow.
Mrs. Claus says he is busy
So I had to ask, Is he really too busy, Too busy to even give children
A Christmas to remember,
With smiles all around?
Yet still, that fat guy in red just won't show So now we have Operation Christmas Child And Adopt-A-Child
So children less fortunate
All around the world May have a Christmas like us and may enjoy Christmas too.
But that Santa guy is not gone
He now causes strife
On Christmas Eve Night
So we now call him
The Specter of Christmas Fright.

127 - Specter of the Fight

Specter of the Fight By: Robin Hutchins

Circling high above,
Through the wind and over the cove.
A tornado do they create,
Of their own twisted mistake.

And a specter do I see,
Looking down, straight at me Above the clouds, oh, so high Above the sea and above the sky

Feathery wings versus leathery Carnivore versus carnivore
Which will fall
Which will rule all

This specter is scarring me
And calling my curiosity
For he is none I've seen before But then I interest him no more.

The specter turns to the fight
For one has lost flight.
Plummet down to the ground
Does the feathery flyer.

And as he crashes
The winner roars
A roar not of triumph,
But of misery and sorrow

And as he follows the feathery flyer
He is leathery no more
He is changed to feathery
And now I understand
As the specter disappears
This fight was never accident
This change was never natural The specter is the criminal And now the feathery flyers Have paid his price

They were mates
And are mates no more
For one is dead
And one is lost to sorrow.

128 - Stain

Stain

What caused my pain
And seeds covered in blood Must I see your fame
When I am covered in blood

Go away from me today
So I may walk free tomorrow
You seem to say there is no way
For me to get rid of this sorrow

I cannot see through this blood
As my body bathes in pain
This flower cannot bud
For it fears to stay the same

This fear I feel today
Is one better for tomorrow
This tear can find no better way
To show my hidden sorrow

And so I say through this pain
I can lose no more blood
And I feel I could never be the same Because I could never wash away your blood.

129 - Stand - 3 Versions

Stand (3 Versions)

V1

So much depends upon
A scattered mind Still able to add to Ideas, thoughts,
If only someone
Would come and Help this mind
Stand beside its peers.

V2

So much depends upon
A broken mind
Still able to add Ideas, words,
If someone Came and Helped it
Stand with the masses.

V3

So much depends upon
A straight jacket Holding my arms,
Words, everything
Please, someone Open this up
So that I may Stand among the rest.

130 - Stay

Stay

And still Though the leaves fall Fluttering
Falling through still air Upon the broken road Into cracks and crevices
I stay and watch no more

131 - Such Am I

Creative Writing did a exercise where we had to create a poem full of lies about ourselves. See if you can tell if any of this is truth, or all lie.

Such Am I

I am one who flies through the sea
I am one who can eat the hottest rock
I am he who lifts with my mind
I am he who runs fast as light
I am he who makes you sink to your knee
I am he who keeps you under lock
I am he who is so kind
I am he who could never fight
I am he who can never lie
I am he who always does cry
I am he who whispers love
I am he who dies for you
I am he you always knew I am he who flies like a dove
I am he who is holy and sacred
I am he who turns water red
I am he who controls all good
I am good incarnate
I am an angel on high Who am I?

132 - Tears for a Hero

The tree Sheds tears
As its leaves Slowly fall
To the ground

There is no site Such as this
At any other time
For her leaves
I cry

She sheds her tears
For her friends
Her family
Her loved ones
Her forest

The humans did it
They cut down her people
They chop down her forest
A stump is all that's left Of anyone she knew

They would come for her now
She knew they would They came with pots
Instead of saws
They came with shovels

They dug up her roots
She didn't understand Why don't they just kill me?
She thought
I want to join my brethren!

They put her roots in the pot Surrounded them with soil
And put her in the back of their truck
They fastened her down
They made sure she would not fall

You re a lucky one you are!
One human said
A man bought you the other night
That s where you re goin now. He laughed Still she did not understand But as the truck moved away from her forest She began to
She now knew that these humans
Would plant her somewhere else

Still she shed her tears
Her beautiful leaves falling to the ground
She shed them
And shed them
Until the truck stopped at a great mansion

They hauled her out of the truck
They took her out of the pot
They planted her into the ground
They watered her Then a man came over

A fine tree she is!
The man said
He paid the men
They went away
I ll be right back. He walked inside

He came out moments later
He sat beneath her branches
He opened a book
He read aloud
She listened

The words inside the book
Set the tree at ease
She no longer shed her tears
For she had none left to spare
The words calmed her

The human came back Every afternoon
To read to the tree
To hear her sigh
To relax with her

The tree liked this human

She was always glad to see him Before he left one evening she said to him
You are my hero.

133 - The Beast Inside

The Beast Inside

In my room,
Alone and behind my wall,
Suffering in dark, blissful gloom,
My self-esteem falls.
I cry out of need,
I cry for you to see,
I cry for my deed,
I cry for you, but mostly for me.
Pity, please leave me be,
Love is all I need,
Concern can come and see,
What anger and grief have done to me.
My tears fall down,
My grief so deep,
All I want is to drown,
All I want is to leap.
My mind is no longer a haven,
I know you've invaded my core,
I cannot replace what you have taken,
You've found my key and opened my door.
Now all I can see,
What kind of beast was inside,
They all can see the true me,
Now all I want to do is die.

134 - The Darkness of Space

The Darkness of Space

By: Robin Hutchins

Sleek black wings cutting through empty darkness cold as night as silent as a thief, On metal wings of a creature made of metal sleek and silent quick and cunning, Through the blackness across the emptiness all throughout the night and well into the next, Flying and searching to find an intelligent race one with ships and machines drink and rations to spare, But only disappointment as they pass another dead world in the solar system once teeming with life now dead and buried, So they move on into the night into the darkness into the cold
And never to leave the bleak darkness of Space&

135 - The Earth, Water, Fire, and Air Are Dreaming

A dream of worlds is not such a wild dream after all There are other worlds out there with life forms unknown to us.

But we still do not know all of the species living on this big blue planet
So our time needs to be split on both things
New life forms and old

A dream of plenty of water and oceans is a very wild dream
The water we have is not enough so there will always be a demand for water

And there will always be places we have not yet been and deep blue oceans are just one place Never will we explore the oceans full galore

A dream of fire
is a dream of destruction not far from reality And a volcano is true destruction for nothing gets away from lava

The volcano is true mystery barely anything is known about these fiery warriors Just as volcanoes are fire is feared and misunderstood

A dream of flying is a true dream on its way to be fulfilled For we may fly with machines but the true dream is flying with wings

The sky is no mystery though we still stare at it for hours with no end We know every thing about it yet we know nothing about the sky

A dream of Earth
A dream of Water

A dream of Fire
A dream of Air

A dream

Elements

The Earth, Water, Fire, and Air Are Dreaming
By Robin Hutchins

136 - The Elementals

The Elementals

By: Robin Hutchins

You can always see Zee flying through the Air on her dragon, wind Blowing past her Carrying her higher and higher.
Dragons like this can reach heights above Earth even Air Elementals envy.
Fire Elementals stick to their Glorious fires
Hell hounds as their vassals.
Incognito, Force dragons fly Jets in the air only they Know their location.
Light Elementals are Mosaics in their own way.
Not even pausing to ask
Out crawls the night.
Pyros comes out to Quota their light and Renaissance becomes the night.
Space is master as Sun falls Terra sparkles and glazes in the moonlight.
Unknown dangers of the night
Vassals of dark and evil beware Water Elementals are always watching and Xander, their hero, never fails

137 - The Face of Truth

The Face Of Truth

The North is the face of friends Caring and loving Respectful and listening Always there and by my side

The South is the face of pain Cunning and loving Reaching out and taking Always there and walking by me

The East is the face of new Fresh and ready Cooperating and free Once there and there no more

The West is the face of old Wise and knowing Respected and listened too Always there to help and doesn t leave me

The North, the face of friends
The South, the face of pain
The East, the face of new
The West, the face of old
The Face Of Truth.

138 - The Fate of Heaven, Hell, and Earth

Hell is all I see,
this fire blinding me,
With Heaven ablaze in our eyes,
Earth torn between your lies,
Blood on our hands and blades,
Heaven closes their gates and away they fade, Earth slaughtered and soaked in blood, the wine in our cups is your human lifeblood.

Demons on Earth run free, Angels retreat for they cannot win they see,
Heaven locks their gates to never open,
As Hell s doors warmly open, Human souls flow no longer Heavenward, they now travel only downward,
We feast on your flesh as you scream, for you have caused this demean.

Hell consumes the world once man,
and Heaven barricades their doors once walked by man,
For you see they have condemned you to your fate, but suddenly their doors fling open as we set the bait,
The human race is at stake, and an archangel burns at the stake,
The angels cry out in anguish, not for you but for the unjustly punished.

Even now as we speak,
they ready themselves for the week,
The angels will no longer stand by,
as humans scream and die,
The angels crumble under my heel, and are no longer able to squeal& For you see,
they are defeated&

139 - The Fright Before Christmas

The Fright Before Christmas

The night was dark
The house with no spark, Life held still In death's deadly chill.
All life shivered in sleep
As morning come they will weep.
Grandfather Juan has died,
His doctor had lied.
Grandmother Kiel's heart will break A gloomy Christmas this will make.
On through the night
Their hearts filled with strife
To have the love of Kiel's life Taken away in one night.
Her heart will crumble
Her world will rumble.
Now in the morning, not about the mouse,
A scream is heard, all throughout the house.
Grandmother Kiel weeps alone
Her heart now prone Christmas brings only fright
On this day, gloomy yet also bright.

140 - The Greatest Thief

The Greatest Thief

By: Robin Hutchins

Above the rooftops,
Across the sky,
Golden wings spread wide,
Golden eyes looking down from so high,
Silver hair flowing under the night sky,
Search lights ever missing their golden target.

A thief of freedom,
With a wounded pride,
Chief of police,
And chief of grime,
Stealing freedom,
And forever blind.

This chief of lies never finds,
This Golden Feather,
Across the dark night sky,
Cuz the gold s more cunning,
More skillful,
Than ever a man was.

An uproar is caused,
From an empty sky,
And another from inside,
As only a golden feather,
And a note signed and teasing Is left in a glass case, undisturbed.

The Golden Feather,
The greatest thief,
Has escaped with the art
And the Chief of Grime,
The thief of freedom,
Makes no catch tonight.

141 - The Laughing Death

The Laughing Death

By: Robin Hutchins

Through my pain
And through my sorrow
One noise is always constant Never drowned out Ever to be heard
My tormentor, my captor Laughing at my pain
Laughing at my torment Laughter staring straight into my face
If ever I could get free
But no, that s a silly thought Tormenting me forever Forever will I stay
This is my punishment
But for what I do not know
I died, and Death came,
Laughing as he collected my soul
Forever will I hear that laugh
As I lie in pain, in Hell
I am reminded again and again
That forever will I die
Yet never truly die
And forever will I be tormented And never really free
This is my eternal punishment
To watch as Death laughs again and again At my pain
And at my sorrow
And he will be A laughing Death
Through all, eternal.

142 - The Ring

The Ring

a band of silver a gem of emerald a smile worth a million a poem long as a mile i gave her my heart she tore it apart
i showed her my love now a wounded dove what should i do
she s sealed my doom
i bought her a ring wrote her my love yet i can t touch her like i touch you now i cannot see her as i see you now i m looking for another to fill this empty whole i can t take this pain any longer i feel it in my soul
i can feel my heart no more it s cold, so cold my heart has turned to ice i can no longer be nice my mind is closed never to be opened my soul is wounded pain and suffering flowing out
she s sealed my doom
she, who i once loved.

143 - The Sins of My Life

The Sins of My Life

there are evils in this world you cannot even begin to understand it is they that make these sins
the sins of my life
the first sin is coming into this world the second would be living the third, a mistake, addicted to false tales the fourth, wasting space and precious air number five, wanting money, i am greedy number six, following my lust number seven, a black hole, a gluttonous stomach number eight, an ego so full of pride sin nine, envious at every turn sin ten, how my anger turns easily to wrath sin eleven, clumsy and slow, sloth-like sin twelve, full of nothing, yet full of everything and now, as if twelve were not enough last but not least my thirteenth sin
i am still very much alive.

144 - The War for Tallahassee

There is no sun to shine there is only grief and grime There were no warriors left to defend This fallen and darkened bend

This Kingdom and those surrounding would meet their doom a fighting At least that s what they had said but that idea has not been fed

The Reds have them beat and cornered like animals, scared and cowered The Elementals must withdraw just as the Gods have flawed

Tallahassee is beat and crushed but not until Cindaria is mused Declared the Red s king from the back And now we must attack!

The Reds did not waste time and neither did Cindarian s crime The biggest mistake to ever take place was just fate s place

Like a thousand miles of fire the Forest of Darkness consumed the liar Just like a volatile explosion few the Red s Volcano blew

Like enraged beasts they came devouring and scorching all the same Like fiery rubies, they covered the sky and showed the sun can be shy

Afraid of what might happen the Cindarian Empress fled And with her, her brother, mind misshapen the cause of this blood shed

Now it is revealed he cannot feel

How could he have caused this dangerous feud to have evolved

For now it is the war of its time and forever will be the Dragon Wars and the War for Tallahassee

The War for Tallahassee
{A Ballad from the Dragon Wars}

145 - They

They

They will never See my face
As I watch
From my safety s place
I can tell
Of what they are
I can see They fear me
Even if they cannot see They know it s me
And they know / see them
I will watch
As they watch
And I will catch
If one does wonder
I feed from them
And I need their meet Yet they will never see Their fated killer

Yet I don t mind
It s better if they don t scream

146 - Third Person Point of View

Third Person Point of View

Call me old fashioned Lost in the past
But only full of passion
Can we grow past.

Past this sense of loss
Of despair and illusion Moving on, beyond our loss
To end with molding and fusion.

I think, perhaps
You have it all wrong
What we move to and clasp
Is tradition and song.

No, my friend,
Truly you don't grasp
This thing we must move past This thing we must transcend.

Transcend our despair
Delusions of grandeur Move forward and repair
To these lush green pastures

I believe you are in error
There is no delusions or despair
There is only fear, and terror
For it is tradition and song, or you no better fair.

147 - This Feeling

This Feeling

My heart yearns,
My soul burns,
What is this,
This feeling of bliss,
I m scarred away,
Each and every day,
Is this normal,
To be so formal,
Why do I yearn,
Yet never learn,
My body reacts,
To such wrong facts,
This cannot be,
Why can t I see,
This feeling inside,
It s always by my side,
And yet it s eating away,
No matter what the day,
I can take no more,
So tell me what it is, before,
I say I will die,
But will you cry,
Will you say good-by?

148 - Through Different Eyes

Through Different Eyes

When you see That you can be Full of thought
Of what you sought
Then we could go
Throughout the globe
And see the world
Through different eyes

You could see All they can be True to thought
To what they sought
Then I could go Around the globe
And see that you
Through different eyes.

149 - To My Father

To My Father

Do you know what I do,
When I m alone in my room,
And all I can do,
Is think of my gloom?
I remember your face,
And how much I hate you,
How I think you re a human disgrace,
And how much I need you.
You re always there,
Whether I need you or no,
You ve always told me you care,
And all I say is I know .
How can you stand me,
Treating you so,
How can you never flee,
And just let your tears flow?
Here s the words,
I thought I would never say,
Here s the words,
That I ve always wanted to say.
You should know that I care,
And that I always have,
You should know I ll be here,
Just as you always have.
I want you to know,
That I m just trapped in a shell,
I ve always wanted you to know,
That I m glad, that because of you, I never fell.
This is very hard, you see,
To tell someone something from deep inside
Everyone has always hurt me,
Everyone I ve wanted by my side.
You could never know,
How much this hurts me,
Everyone has always said no ,
Or you re not right for me .
All I want
Is for you to say okay ,
All I want,
Is to have one special day.

I've lived behind a mask,
For most of five years,
And yet no one's ever asked,
The reasons for my tears.
I know you don't hate me,
That you love me so,
It's true that I feel the same
And I just want you to know.
I don't hate you,
I truly love you.

150 - To My Mother

To My Mother

Do you know what I do Whenever I think of you?
I think how much I love you,
And how much I think I need you.
Is it just some illusion,
Or does it mean I need you?
Does it mean I m gullible,
Or does it mean it s true?
I know you are always there,
And that you ve always cared,
But I also know,
You don t know me very well.
It s the same way with me,
As I don t know your inner thoughts,
So how can I know, How you truly feel?
You don t really say it,
You haven t said it for a very long time,
But then again
Neither have I.
I guess I understand it,
Since it s a mother-daughter bond,
But I d really like to hear it from you,
Because I know, I love you.

151 - Traitors

Traitors

Under the bridge of stone
Over the water plains Into the moonlit cove
And with a rattle of chains
The ghostly ship cruises on Guided by a moaning breeze Captain dead and gone Prisoners chill and freeze Wind rippled flag flying high Red, blue, white sign Silently, they slip in without a cry Silently, to steal what is mine
They come with fire
They come with swords
They come to kill the liar
They come to kill the lords Unknown to these men Swimming through crystal water
The one who caused this great sin
And one who will never be a martyr Out of the moonlit cove Through the rippling maze
Under the bridge of stone
Into the crystal caves Escaping from certain death
We swim away from what is left.

152 - Unfair

Unfair

What can I say,
I've always felt this way,
My life was a mess,
My soul was forever restless,
What can I say,
To you from day to day,
My mouth can move no more,
My heart can bleed no more,
What can I say,
When all I have is far away,
My heart is pained,
I feel so drained,
What can I say,
When I see you every day,
I watch from afar,
Because you leave the path ajar,
My flower, my jewel,
Why do you always look so cool,
My diamond in the rough,
You always look so tough,
I could never compare,
You have no equal, you have no pair,
Why is life so unfair,
To not make you a pair.

153 - War

War

Red petals fall through my fingers
A green thorn still lingers
As the sun does fail Even seen through the sail

Fire reaching to the sky
Tears falling from the lie
I see the roses falling down
And in our tears do we drown

Crashing to the ground
No one left to be found Burning, burning, far away Turning, turning, another day

Iron rings, bowstrings twinge Arrows land, crushing the king Shouting loud, laughing blood Giving life to a brand new bud

Roses rise to the sky Ravens cry, ravens fly
The blood soaked ground
Is all that s left to be found.

154 - Watch

Watch

And still
As the rain drums Loud, crying
Drowning all thoughts
Into the window s eye
Across the creaking forest
And still do I watch

155 - Water Crystals - Haiku

Water Crystals

the water tumbles sparkling in the sunlight crystal to my eyes

156 - Water True

Aquafina is her name True and fair
Water is her game
And her pair

With hair of aqua color
And eyes of ocean blue
She is the ocean's mother
All her waters born anew

On wings of lake green Mixed with ocean blue
Her body fit and lean Above her sparkling waters, she flew

She is the water, loving Honest, and kind
Her words always soothing,
Her waters always caring

All the kind ones dead
So her type is now few Her waters have always said
That she is water true

Water True

157 - What

What

Horns so sharp
And eyes blood red Scales&are those scales
Or is it fur&?
Tail so long
With spikes and&
Is that blood&?
What are you
So huge and majestic &are those feathers?

158 - what did i do?

What did i do?

what i did i did for you what you did hurt me so what i said i said to you what you said
cut me deep what i loved was you alone what you loved killed me alone
do you know what you did?
do you know
what you said?
do you know
what you loved?
you hit me you beat me you screamed at me you said you hate me you loved mine enemy and you loved mine death
why?
i don t understand what did i do did i cause this mess
why?
please, please tell me

159 - Why?

Why?

I gave you my heart
And you tore it apart
I gave you my love
And you set it free like a captured dove
I gave you my loot
And you crushed it under foot
Why must you do this, my dove,
You, whom I love?
Why must you rip my heart in two
When my heart beats only for you?
Why must you throw in my face
What I give to you in grace?
You say you hate me,
And that you re never free
You say you could care less But you re just making a mess
You say you never loved me
And you even say it in glee Why, though, can you never love?
Why can t you be as free as a dove?
Why do you tear my heart?
Why do you force us apart?
You say, we can never be,
So why can t you just leave me?

160 - Why, oh why

Why, oh Why

why, oh why,
does the world die?
why, oh why,
does the sparrow cry?
why, oh why,
i sigh,
why, oh why,
does everyone lie?
why, oh why,
do the creatures die?
why, oh why,
does the world cry?
why, oh why,
does the wind sigh?
why, oh why,
does the fox lie?
why, oh why,
sighs all who lie,
why, oh why,
cries all who die.

161 - Wild Fire

Wild Fire

In the volcano I wait
With name of Fira I smirk
Controlled by love I mate
And together we lurk

With hair of molten fire
And eyes of colored flame
I am the fire s maker
And for me the fire s tame

On wings of black Dotted with fire
With tame heart lacking
I fly from my lair

I am the wild fire Born from molten rock
My words forged in pyre
My fire always under lock

But the one thing
I cannot control
Is the fire of my heart
The Wild Fire

162 - Will You Ever Change

Will You Ever Change

Will it ever change
If you found my soul
Dark and cold inside my mind
Ever longing for the light Your attitude, always calm
But if you found my soul
Dark and cold inside my mind
Will it change, you attitude Your view, always positive Yet if you found my soul
Dark and cold inside my mind
Will your view change Your words, ever kind Though if you found my soul
Dark and cold inside my mind
Will it change your words
You, my bright and shining star
But if you found my soul
Dark and cold inside my mind
Will it lessen your shine
Will you ever change
If you found my soul
Dark and cold inside my mind
Longing for the death it cannot find

163 - Wind of Change

Wind of Change

High above in a city of clouds Airos smiles and walks among the birds
He laughs and plays but never too loud
And his Asperies come to him in herds

With hair of sky blue
And eyes of misty silver
He is the wind king, not ever new Performing aerial maneuvers

On wings of light blue sky Mixed with cloudy white Above his kingdom he flies
All his friends by his side

The air you breathe belongs to him Though he shares with all life
His sky and wind never dim Always causing strife

The winds of this world Cause at some point damage
Yet they love this leader Whom they call the Wind of Change

164 - Window of Hate

Window of Hate

though sorrow and hate through the winds of fate my soul, it cries my soul, it dies my life is a lie my life will never fly
i mask my hate as it will never abate the window before me sees naught but me it laughs all day it knows no other way this window of mine obstructed by no line this window of fate knows only hate please help me escape
to the far away cape away from this window out of limbo through sorrow and hate
through the winds of fate.

165 - Winter Wolves

Winter Wolves

silent snow falls onto ground frozen hot steamy breath forms around the flakes the prints in the snow show a pack traveled this lonely road through snow covered mountains and the snow covered forest to the grounds of winter home.

166 - Worldly Matters

Worldly Matters

In a world of hate
In a world of love
In a world where no one
Is as free as a dove

There is a place
Which has a name
There is a face
Which has remained the same

In this world of hate
In this world of love
In this world of fate
Is a world above

There is a creature
Which has no name
There is a forest
Which has a game

In no world of hate
In no world of love
In no world of fate
Is this worldly trait

There is a state
Which no matter survives
There is a world
Which no life survives

So we play
Our graveyard tune.

167 - X-mas End

X-Mas End

It s that time of season
To prance around in merriment
As your foes sink into acid for no real reason This was the best fulfillment
The best X-mas gift ever Was just what my foe is doing
He won t die from a fever Or from a giant cow, after him going Oh, no, he ll die screaming, weeping, and pleading
But of course I will never be merciful!
They never were in the those jails, stinking
And so acid to the top I fill And watch him be eaten away
I smile in my pleasure
I could do this all day!
This is my gift, from me to me, my treasure.
I enjoy every minuet, every scream
I ruin his X-mas and lighten mine.
Some people think I m mean
But no, not mean, I m fine
I m just plain evil
At X-mas end.

168 - You

You

You expect me to be Someone who can see
You in the spotlight
You, all night
I don't want to be Someone who will only see You, hogging the spotlight
You, all fracking night
You're a goddamn whore You're such a bore
Find a different hobby
This one just left the lobby
I hate you and money
You think you're so fracking funny Guess what, you're a dog
I don't even think you classify as a witch
You can't even imagine
You could never fathom
The pain of being there
It really isn't fair You're such a lazy fart
So, let's stay far apart!

169 - You Failed Me

My love for thy has fallen down
The heavens cry falling upon your crown Nigh is death soon you die With nothing left and so you lie

My respect for thy has fallen thin Hell let s loose a mighty cry and come my kin Through water and fire they come, they come With swords and the lyre
they come, they come

My trust for thy has been destroyed Earth has but to cry for all I am to be void Around the moon and back through time and space
The heavens, oh they lack their godly grace

My hope for thy has crashed and cracked The mighty stars away they shy and such is fact Crashing upon the land deafening waves galore Crushing what hope was left and destroying all the land

You Failed Me
By: R.C.Hutchins

170 - You Who Killed Me

You Who Killed Me

the cold wind blows across my pale face as we stand upon the rock above the flowing river you stand behind me your hot breath on my neck your warm touch on my arm the cold rain flowing over your crown the tears of heaven fall upon the ground filling the river rising it high i feel your hands upon my back your soft lips upon my neck
you whisper your sorry and i feel pressure upon my back as i fall from the rock
i feel the ice cold water fill my lungs as i try to breathe
and i think as i sink i understand why you said sorry but i don t understand why i must die but i will come back i will haunt you if i drown and you will regret it the icy water steals my breath

steals my warmth and i sink
i settle to the bottom sand cushioning my back my eyes dimming my lungs filled i close my eyes forever darkness descends upon my mind and stop does my heart yet rise does my soul and i ascend out of cold water and into cold rain
i see you standing crying with regret and i feel your sorrow but i feel no pity for you you, who lived with me you, who said you loved me you, who proposed to me and you, you who killed me

171 - Your Fear

A pit of despair, where no hope lies,
no room to repair,
this soul that cries.
i seek only truth,
and all you do is lie,
i do not wish to be aloof,
and i do not wish to defy.
this pit you ve pulled me in,
draws away all my joy,
this game you wish to win, classifies me as just a toy.
wallowing in my own regret, trusting only what i do see,
is all i really have left,
all i can really be.
though not much here,
i ll give a final encore,
and you ll see all to clear,
i ve rotted to my very core.
you only tried,
to do what is right,
you only tried,
to stay in the light.
but now you see,
your efforts failed you,
just as you failed me,
and yet this we always knew.
my pit of sorrow,
my river of tears,
never lessen on the morrow,
and depression always nears.
so what does one do, when depression looms so near,
does one go to you,
or does one shy in fear?
or perhaps one sheds a tear, or perhaps one tells a lie, perhaps one cries in fear, or perhaps one chooses to defy?
i am one of these, only one,
decide who i am,

decide why i choose to have no fun, decide how i am now damned.
tell me why i should run,
tell me why you re here, tell me why i have no sense of fun, and tell me why you fear.
your fear is so distinct,
i can smell it in my sleep,
it has a unique and ugly stink,
it is the pit of my despair so deep.
you claim you want to aid me, but i know you just fear,
you fear what you cannot see,
you fear what you cannot hear.
how does it feel ,
i know i should say,
but my words are under seel, but would you listen, anyway?
i need no assistance, from one who has such fear,
i only need remembrance,
for when i am no longer here.
all i ever needed,
was for you not to lie,
now all i only need,
is for me to die.
i ve discarded all my fears,
i ve gotten past all your lies,
i ve shed all my remaining tears, so now i say, good-bye .

Your Fear

172 - Moonflower

Moonflower

If it be Only once tonight
Then let me
Be your shining light

My sweet flower
Beheld in silence
This dark hour
Night held still, tense

Until you bloom
Under moon's light Presence consume
The coming blight

As I follow
Your deep blue petals
I feel so hollow
As the snow settles

I see all too clear
This is what's meant to be
And though you are so dear Our love, this love, just cannot be.

174 - Nevermore

Nevermore

Sway Blowing wind Leaves rustle Away
Into the forest
The trees singing Forevermore

Sigh
Calling out Sound lost now Lie Carried away
Every day
Forevermore

Sing Calling bird
Hollow howl Cry
To reach the sky
Bound to the earth
Forevermore
And nevermore

175 - Battle of Wartime (Babylon 5 fanpoem!)

Battle of Wartime

I seem to recall
A place and a time
Where none were lost Where none were found
And peace was lost
And wartime found
Because of how we fought,
Died, and lost
At the Battle Of the Line

176 - Young Forevermore

Young Forevermore

Young to old Old to young Aid my life Heed my death
For I am old
And you are young And it will be Until we are No more,
Forevermore

177 - Envy's Question (FMA!^_^)

Envy s Question (FMA!)

Am I to be Green with envy Forevermore?

178 - Raise the Colors

Raise the Colors

Gazing through To twilight s time
I see, too
The hidden sign
That very soon
You will die
Under the moon
So too will I.

We ve sealed our doom
And that of theirs
As darkness looms
No one dares
To say it was us
To point fingers our way
No need to fuss
They seem to say.

If we all die
Why not enjoy
Before we say good-bye
Before we do destroy These last few days
Are certainly our last So why not raise
The colors on the mast?

Take me to the empty room Where the rum and whiskey stow Let me drink to the gloom
Before I must say woe Take me to the maiden s bed Where I may have my fill Let me die to her I wed
Before I must feel death s chill.

Raise the colors high Feel the wind upon your face Put your back into it, aye Feel the sun s warm embrace

A maiden s bosom be the sea
For we shall always sail her For soon we will be free Soon we dine in Davy s locker.

179 - Vi

Vi

Forever unknown
By My very children
I am the God
No one can remember

My name is Vi
I am He
Who made man
Come to life

Humans are My very flesh
Yet they can never know
For it is My punishment For letting them know evil

I lied to My friends
I cheated and I stole
I tainted My blood
I made darkness My soul

So I made a deal
With another God
To write this ballad
So they may know

I exist, I do
I ve watched every moment
I know all your names
Yet you don t know Mine

You must believe
When I tell you this I m as real as the others
And I do exist

My name is Vi
I am He
Who made man
Come to life.

180 - Just Because

Just Because

This is really nothing Nothing too big for me
I can conquer you all Without even lifting a thumb
Its true and its sad

So why you ask
Do I torment your souls
Well really its simple
I do it
Just because

Just because I can Because I am strong Because I am immortal
Because I own you all
And because I m bored

This is all I really want
I enjoy my time here
I love to torture you all
You re screams are music
A beautiful chorus

So why you ask
Do I remain here still Its nothing to difficult To understand
Just because

Just because I can Because I am God
Because I am here
Because I have nothing to fear
And because I m bored

Really, I m doing you a favor
I m giving you mercy
If I weren t
I could just let you live

In torment forever

So why you ask
Do I waste my time
You re completely missing
My not too complicated point
Just because

Just because I can Because I am Evil
Because I am Good Because I am Lawful
And because I am Chaotic

Because I can
I let you all writhe in agony
I let you scream in torment
I let you rot in my dungeons
I let you wallow in revenge

So why you ask
Do I even bother
Mortals are so simple
To not get my game
Just because

Just because I can Because you re entertaining Because you re funny Because you re so simple
And because you re irrelevant

I came to this world a savior
I let you worship me
I let you do everything I asked
And do you know what you did You plotted against me

So why you ask
Do I still give you tender care
If you cannot even grasp that Then perhaps I am wasting time
Just because

Just because I can Because you have potential Because you already fight

Because you are an army Because I want to
And because you can rule the galaxy!

181 - Zoo

Zoo

(please don t kill meXD)

So many animals
So little time
Lets kill them all
To a nursery rhyme

A wise old owl lived in the oak
The more he saw the less he spoke
The less he spoke the more he heard
The screams of the animals in the next pen

Ding dong bell
Pussy s in the well
Who put her in?
I did with a grin
Who pulled her out?
No one s so devout
What a naughty boy I am
To drown that pussy cat
Who ne er did any harm
But loved all the praise
And reveled in charm

Hush a bye turtle, on the treetop
When the wind blows, the cradle will rock
When the bow breaks, the cradle will fall
And down will come turtle, cradle and all!

Itsy bitsy monkey climbing up the tree
Out came the rain and washed the monkey free Out came the thundercloud and replaced all the rain
Now itsy bitsy monkey died climbing up the tree again.

Zebra be nimble
Zebra be quick
Zebra jump over
The moat so thick

Falcon, oh falcon, fly away home

Your nest is on fire and your children are gone
All except for Ann
Who sizzles in the frying pan

Pat a cat, pat a cat, bakers man Bake me a cat as fast as you can Pat it and skin it and mark it with a bee
And put it in the oven for kitten and me!

Peter, Peter, pumpkin eater Had an jay and couldn t keep her He put her in a pumpkin shell
And there he ll eat her if all goes well!

Red sky at night,
Tiger s delight
Red sky at morning
Tiger s warning

And you know what happens next?
The black plague on you!
You who are at the zoo
You with those gigantic necks!

Ring around the rosy
A pocketful of posies
"Ashes, Ashes"
You all fall down!

And then I laughed
At your little raft
You think you can get away?!
Try another day!!

River driver
Drive north Osiris waits
Open arms Anubis guides

Until then Drive north River driver
Drive north Silt islands
Cataracts, rapids
Barges, fishers
Ports, piers
Until then

184 - Lost At Sea

Lost At Sea

Rosy colors Line the bay
As sailors
Make their way

To taverns
Along the pier
To taverns
Rest their fear

Of ghosts
Haunting the night
Of ghosts
Causing all fright

Green shoots
Into the sky Ghostly howl Raised so high

As sailors
Lost at sea Deathly colors
Return home

Tattered flags
Broken ship s mast Lying, waiting
Under red moon.

185 - Return

Return

Red moon bright
In starry night

Gray cloud low While seeds sow

And we know
They returned to flow

In the river
Of ghosts and shiver.

186 - Final

Final

Faces of our fathers
Of mothers and brothers
Of sisters and daughters
Of sons&wives, husbands

All together for One final time
One day to sing
One day that rings

So we will dance,
We will sing
We will laugh
We will weep

As the faces of our fathers
Of mothers and brothers
Of sisters and daughters
Of sons&wives, husbands

Fade away
On this last And final Day.

187 - Voice

Voice

Booming voice
Carrying across the room Changing my choice
And oh, he looms

His voice is so loud
Compared to the others
He must be so proud Since they feel smothered

Loud, straining voice Carry across the room Changing their choice
And oh, he looms

His voice carries well Over the whole court
All words to tell
And nothing to sort

Quiet, small voice
Not carrying at all Straining our ears by choice
We see his fall.

188 - Anata wa Aishiteru

I think perhaps
It is time
We both decided
If its not just a dime

That what we feel
Is not just some whim
But that we feel Something from deep within

Perhaps if we were older Understood these things
Had more experience and order
We could sort our feelings

Anata wa aishooteru
There simply is No other way
To really say it

So perhaps It is time for us
To tell each other
What it is we feel

This is my way
My night, for you
To say how I feel Anata wa aishooteru.

189 - This I Ask

This I Ask

There is a word with which to tell,
All that is to cry,
In this darkened hour,
All that is to die,
And all that is to fly,
For this, I ask, before I die

Tell me this word with which to rule,
All that is to defy,
Over this weary land,
So that I may reply
With my own words that lie,
For this, may I ask, before I die

Let me hear this word that I must spread,
All that is to signify,
On this death-filled, crazy field,
For this we must fortify,
So all we do will defy,
For this love, I ask, before I die

For this word what must I do,
All to get this reply,
For what is worth much more,
Than to push forward, live, and try,
And yet this is nigh,
For this mercy, I ask, before I die.

As I look into their eyes
I am captivated, breathless I smile, They re adorable!

The bonded three are lovely,
Are they what you ve decided on?
Take these three home?

I smile again, Yes, absolutely!
My mom nods and smiles
These three it is, then.

If only they didn t cost so much Nevertheless, they re home now Anubis, Set, and Lucifer

Hyper, loving, fuzzies adore
As they run around With backs pushed high

Running around
On the bathroom floor
Into the tubes and back

The beautiful bonded
They re friends for life
And they won t ever split!

197 - The Frail

flarf poem; words searched: The Count of Monte Cristo and The Storm of Souls (because I felt like it.)

The Frail

A storm erupts Soul of man Watches helplessly Crashes against Traacherous
Sensitive souls

Terrible and sinister storm Thrity-two million souls Carried me along Keep your own counsel
Not breathing a word
To any living soul

Face a perfect storm
For the souls lost
In endless time Remain perfectly quiet
For your life
Living in these frozen wastes

Look into the storm and shout "Do your worst...
For I will do mine."
Wealth and steely determination Manipulates events
Upon a fearfully great scale

Greif is like a storm at sea Upon my soul
The haughty and disdainful
With the air of one Long acquainted
The Count

Hurry to my place of shelter Far from the tempest and storm Souls of black

You will see that the storm will pass
But when we are forced to leave
We will leave a part of our souls behind

And the excessive
The frail
A small population of five Or even six thousand souls
They will mobilize men
Like the endless pebbles of the sea.

198 - Walk Away

The mirror before her Shows only the inside Showing she's had enough Showing her what's inside

For how long will you try To deceive all around you A façade pushing all away
So they won't see your misery

How long until you stop walking away
When will you admit That your eyes betray you That you bleed internally

The mirror talks
But she does not even listen
She only smiles
And her shell never shatters

Her mask holds firm
The mirror cracks
Aches
And finally shatters

This façade has deceived
And pushed all away
But it does not deceive me
I see through your disguise

You're in misery
You bleed internally
You dig yourself a deeper pit
And wallow in your depression

Your façade does not guard you It hurts you even more Now none can reach you
And pull you up from despair.

200 - I've Had It

I realize I'm not the ideal person
To say, "Alright, enough."
There are plenty of others
More burdened than I
More buried in never-ending work
More stressed with life itself
But I have to say this now,
I've had it.

I've had it with life,
With people, and death
I'm tired of war,
Of fighting, and doging
I'm fed up with peace,
With compromise and discussions
I'm weary of differences,
Of sameness and of prejudice.

So now I say ENOUGH.
Just do nothing
That will be quite alright
And I can be happy Because I won't be burdened By everyday life
Or of listening to your constant rambling

I'll be frank and true
You people annoy me
Everything about you
Your conversations are meaningless
You speak of nothing
My ears only pick up white noise
And quite frankly
That in itself is annoying.

Just leave me alone
Go about your worthless lives
Give up and die
When it is your time
And consider what next I say Take it to heart

Take it to the boss man

Take it with you wherever you go:

When your own have died

And they don't have a reason why

When your soul has frozen from the pain

Is that enough?

When your heart has broken

A thousand times and more

When you can't comprehend the pain

Is that enough?

201 - To the Other Side

Have you ever wondered what its like
To hold the knife and strike
To look down at your torn flesh
To witness your bleeding mess

Have you ever wondered what its like
To gasp water and cold alike
To see yourself fall from a bridge
To crash into any surface from the ridge

Have you ever wondered what its like, even begun
To stare down the barrel of a gun
To feel the cold metal on your brow
To hear the bullet begin to plow

Have you ever wondered what its like, wreck
To loop the rope around your neck
To tie the knot around your despair
To step from your chair

Have you ever wondered what its like, death
To take your last breath
To loose your very soul
To willingly fall to eternal sleep's control...

I have always wondered what that is about
But I will never find out.

202 - The Unfaithful Faithful

The Unfaithful Faithful

Violating trust or confidence surprising frequency in this unrealizable learning to reach people who have never had a single opportunity to hear "Someone loves you"

Why do some people betray?
What are they prepared to give up?
treacherous to betray untrustworthy

Before you blame the faithful, blame the unfaithful the unfaithful among the faithful using opportunity and now...

There is no more distinction between the faithful and the unfaithful.

203 - No Regrets

No Regrets

"I feel like I'm falling,
Loosing myself in this dark world.
I feel like I'm drowning, Reaching for a place beyond my grasp.
I feel like I'm dying, Closed in from all sides..."

As I gaze up at the sky
I know I will die
I can't tell you why Or even how I know I'll die
All I know, so don't you lie
Is that it is my time to fly.

Please be kind
And hold me high
So that I may find
My place in the sky;
And, please, remember,
As I die,
This day of December
And, please, don't cry.

For I lived my life without shame,
Now it is time you did the same.

204 - The Stranger

The Stranger

If someone you didn't know Came up to you and said
"I have a problem."
Would you listen?

Many would tell the stranger
To "leave me alone" or "I don't care"
Are you one of these people?

Others would nod and smile Until finally they would say "I have to be going."
Are you one of these people?

I had a friend once
Who started as a stranger
I asked him for help
Do you know what he did?

He smiled, he nodded
He gave me good advice
Then he said,
"I have to be going now."

Now I see him in the street He's standing by the corner Whistling in the rain
Staring at the sky

His head comes down
He's staring at me
But he doesn't see me Something's wrong.

I cross the street and ask
"Are you alright?"
He stares at me and says
"No. I'm in trouble."

So I listen
I think about his problem
I try to give advice, then ask "Do you want me to stay?"

He smiles and says,
"I would like that."
His name was Despair;
He changed it to Hope.

207 - If

A time and place
To show you face Comes now and then But never when You need or want—
So what do you want?

Dost thou know
What thou sows
Or dost thou heed

Do it yourself, nay?

I think you know
So please just go Do my bidding
And say not a word
For to my bidding

208 - Carnival of Fools

The mask you wear Shows not the tear
In your heart Torn apart
For no one knows
All your woes
And no one cares
That you're scared
No one believes
That you would leave
No one but me
So come and see
This carnival for you
A carnival you knew Long ago in there
A place to gawk and stare
At the people you love
These people who push and shove
Your face back into the mask
And your body into the cast
For they don't care
These freaks are fair
They are like everyone
And they come for fun
They laugh away
Each and every day
So come and join the fun...>=D

Author's note: Originally called 'Carnival of Freaks'. keep freaks or fools, ya think?

So please don't stray Or when next I come There'll be one less scum.

Kites fly high Way up in the sky
I'm doing this poem because I didn't finish my story in time
So here's my back-up
A poem about kites
And how I've never flown one Ever in my life Except my mother tells me
I did when I was five But I don't remember
So its like it never happened
And that's my poem
About kites and life
So what do you think
When I have to say
'The End'?

Authors note - so there was a project where we had to build a kite, do some problems, and write a short story or poem or essay. well...i was gonna do a short story. Didn't finish.
