1 - Quinn's Death

Quintessence. the fifth element. Kisshu's older sister. She had been gone for years, then appeared.

Why?

Probably, she just needed to be around people she knew. But, it didn't go so well. Upon stealing Nee-ko's Mom, she had accidentally betrayed Deep Blue.

She died.

Kish was upset, and frightened. DB called it a sign. Nee-ko, who was there, accidentally absorbed half of her necklace, turning her mew pendant silver.

What did it do? No one knows yet.

2 - Quinn's death, Nee-ko's Rebirth

"GAAAAAAH!!"

This scream was nothing new. Nee-ko ran around the corner on the street, freaking out.

Mika watched in silence. "What is she doing...?"

As Nee-ko ran, Kish chased her quickly. "Oh." Mika said, sighing.

Nee-ko continued to run. "Will...you...leave...me...alone?!"

Kish laughed. "No, Probably not." She stopped to catch her breath. He walked up behind her and ran his finger down her spine, making her shiver. "Leave me alone!!" She screeched.

He laughed at her, wrapping his hand around her waist. "Nope."

She growled, "Don't make me transform and kick your butt..."

He laughed. "Thought your pendant was broken." He lifted it so he could see it. he silver surface shone brightly in the sun.

Nee-ko Pushed him away. "Yeah, well...I do have the mirror!" She pulled out the mysterious blue framed mirror. It had the ability to let her transform and reflect attacks.

Kish growled softly. "...Tch." He mumbled.

She smiled softly. "Now leave me alone."

He snapped his fingers and disappeared. She laughed softly, and headed to work.
