Kitty!

By Sayka

Submitted: September 4, 2004
Updated: September 4, 2004

Kai has to take care of Meena's cat- and looses it!

1 - Rini!

Meean and Luna info: The sisters joined the team after helping the Bladebreakers escpae from a castle.

Let the story begin!
****

"Okay Kai- I'm trusting you with my little Rini!" Meena handed the little cat to him. Kai took it. "Now if ANYTHING happens to her-" She warned. "Dont' worry- this'll be easy." Kai said then turned arouns and headed inside. "Let;s go!" Luna urged and Meena picked her up and carried her to the bus.

Kai set her down in his room. Rini hopped on his bed, stared at him and purred.
"It;s so hot outsode..." Kai sweated at the thought. He took off his shirt and layed down on the bed under the fan. It was so nice and cool...

He closed his eyes and began to snore. Rini looked at him, then the partialy opened window. She hopped to it and squeezed under. She jumped from the window onto the nearby tree, then to the ground.
****

"OH NO! WHERE IS IT?!" Kai panicked. He had searched the entire house with no luck- he had been so frantic he didn't even put his shirt back on! Returning to his room, he noticed he had left the window open. "OH NO!" Kai cried looking onto the street- there was no sign of her. He ran downstaris and out of the house. "RINI! COME HERE!" He called running through the street. "AAH! IT'S KAI HIWATARI!" A girl screamed.

Suddenly a huge crowd of screaming fan girls ran up to him. "Oh no!" He graoned in his mind, "This is NOT a good time!" He began to run faster. The girls ran scremaing behind him, all the while yelling, "Everyone look! He has no shirt!"
They chased him for a long time.

The group got larger and larger as he ran he fianally ducked into an alley and hid. "Whew..." He sighed and panted- he had been runnig almost an hour!

"Kai Hiwatari- I've heard you are a good blader but I didn't know you were so cute!"

Kai looked up to see a girl with large star earrings.

"I challange you to a beyblade battle! My name is Ginger!" She announced getting out her blade. She luanched it and it spun beside her.

"I HAVE NO TIME FOR THIS!" Kai yelled and ran out of the alley.

"HEY! COME BACK HERE!" Ginger screamed and ran after him- her blade followed beside her.

"I've got to find that stupid cat!" Kai thought desperatly.

2 - The chase!

"Ah come on- I'm sure he's taking care of her!" Rei ressured Meena. The entire team was still out- Kai had chose to stay ehind which is why he had to watch the cat. "I don't know- I'm just really worried about her!" Meena sighed. "Mr. Kai would let Rini get hurt!" Luna said smiling. "You're right- I shouldn't worry so much..." Meena said and smiled weakly.
****

"NOT AGAIN!"

Kai had been runnoing through the town looking for Rini all the while running form Ginger when he turned a corner. The huge group of fangirls stopped and stared at him for a second, then screamed and ran at him.

"AAAHHH!" Kai screamed and ran the other way.

"STOP!" Ginger yelled- she was at the front of the crowd of girls.

As they chased him, he quickly diverted into some bushes. They all passed by and so he took the chance to catch his breath. He breathed heavily- not only was he tired but he was burning up! He didn't even have sunscreen on and his entire top was slowly darkening. Suddenly he heard a noise that caught his attention-

"Meow."

Kai shot up like a rocket and rushed to the soarce of the noise.

He looked into an alley way to see a cat sitting down cleaning its paws. Kai jumped at it- but it was fast and jumped away the ran. "NO! COME BACK!" He cried desperatly.

"Hey look! There he is!"

Kai looked behind him to see the fan girls again. "AAHH!" He cried and got up.
He began running form the girls- all the while he was following the cat until-

"WHOA!"

"KAI!" The fangirl screamed as he fell into the lake. He came up unhamred and spit out water- moss was all over his hair.

The fangirls scremaed and grabbed him.

"AHH!" He cried desperatly and struggeled to get away- but it was in vain.

The fangirls closed in...

3 - Cat-napped!

"I'm sorry guys- I think I'd better head home. I'm just too worried about Rini!" Meena said. "But I don't want to go sis! I'm having fun!" Luna whined (In case anyone was wondering, they are at the beach). "You can stay here Luna- just don't go into any water higher than your waist." Meena instructed and gathered her things.

"Bye Meena!" Everyone called as she walked away.
****

Kai walked through the town utterly exhusted. "Here Rini!" He called faintly.
He still had kiss marks all over him from where the fangirls had kissed him. He felt like he was baking under this sun...

"Meow."

He looked around wildey. He saw out of the corner of his eye a man was picking up a struggling cat. He stuffed the cat into his car and started up his engine- Kai ran to the car. But it drove off as he came near. "NO STOP!" Kai cried and began chasing the car. For half a mile he ran after the car until it stopped in fornt of a house. The man getting out was holding the cat, which was still sturggling, and he stared at Kai as he ran up to him.

"Th-that's...my..c-cat..." Kai huffed as he talked.

"What are you talking about? This cat belongs to my duaghter- it got out this morning." The man frowned and to prove it he pointed at the cat's collar.

Kai stared at it-

"Fluffy." He read.

"Sorry- my mistake..." Kai sighed and began to walk home. He was tired, hot, full of moss and salty water, and covered with kiss marks- but he still maanged to survive the walk across the entire town. Unfortunatly- as he walked home he was stopped again.

"HOLD IT RIGHT THERE!"

He turned to see Ginger.

Kai groaned- he was NOT having a good day.

Accepting her challenge, Kai got out his blade and battled her. But he was far too tired- she won. "Hm- too bad. You're cute- but you're a wimp." Ginger sighed picking up her blade and walking home.

Kai sighed- could this day get ANY worse?!

'HONK HONK!'

A car driving by splashed him with mud and grit.

"Obviously- it can..." He sighed and continued home.

4 - The Kitty Case is Solved!

"Oh hey Kai! Whoa- what happened to you?!" Meena gaped at his as he apporached her- they both arrived home at the same time. She looked at him- he was a toatle mess! He was covered in mud, water, moss, sunburn, and- kiss marks?! "Wow- what party did YOU come from?!" she pointed to a kissmark on his forehead.

"Look Meena- I have to tell you something.... I lost you cat." Kai sighed.
"What?" Meena stared at him blankley.
"I lost Rini." He repeated.

"What are you talking about? Rini's right there."

Kai turned to where she was pointing- Rini was curled up into a little ball of fur and sleeping under the tree. Kai gaped atthe cat- she had probably been there the whole time.

"Is there something wrong Kai?" Meena looked at him with concern.

".... Meena do me a favor..." Kai said.

"What is it?" She asked.

"Don't ask me to watch your pets anymore." He grumbled then walked inside.