1 - Untitled

Every night she holds her breath,
Hoping that when she wakes up life will just give her a break,
But,
She can't control the way he acts,
So, she keeps coming back,
Thinking that maybe, he'll put her life back on track,
Though she knows,
She'll end up back at the start,
Back at the part,
When she said she'd follow her heart,
Cause,
There's always someone standing in her way,
Willing to take it all away,
She thought it would all rewind,
Back to when she thought she had him in her mind,
When she said to herself,
"Maybe I will get him this time round",
But really all that she has found,
Is to sit it out on the sidelines and wait,
Hold her breath,
And let it all happen again.
