1 - The story

The firesouls...the strongest creatures that the eternity have create...

They created the universe, and destroyed it thousands of times...

The two stonges firesouls is Black and White, Ying and Yang, Night and Day or in this story Darkness and LightGlare. They have been fighting sense the begining of the eternity... and never stop...and then the two decided to make their own home...a universe...

we live in Darkness universe and thats why the space is black...but you can see parts of LightGlare's Universe and thats the "stars"...they did us humans to look like them they thought it was a fun idea...but after sereval milleniums it was too much for them, they couldn't take care of their universe...so the two decided to make a third firesoul together... and that was a terrible mistake...the third firesoul ,Hir, who not was a boy and not a girl appared to be independent and evil...and Hir made its own universe...noy long after...

Darkness become a big brother...Sadness was born...Darkness hated Sadness and Paralyzed Sadness powers...Sadness alied with LightGlare as a revenge...but the ally was not for long... after a couple of years, Darkness and LightGlare where in a fight that could destroy the eternity... but Sadness stoped them...and it was peace...A fifth firesoul came from nowhere and become Hir's worst enemy...now there was five universes Darkness, LightGlare's, Sadness, Hirs and the new firesoul called "It"s universe...adn still more and more firesouls came from nowhere... and after just ten years they where over 300...if it become war now...then the eternity would die...Darkness and LightGlare could not have it this way...so they killed what they thought where all firesouls...but Sadness had saved some of them...and now he was pissed off... Darkness and LightGlare made a fight again...but this time...Sadness put them in a eternal sleep... But will this be enought???

2 - XemoX and XomeX is born

Firesouls 2:

Even if Darkness and LightGlare was in an eternal sleep they could use their power to meke clones of themselves so they cuold take care of their universes.

Sadness gain he"s power again. And everything seemed to be perfekt!

Until "It" become more powerful. "It" was now the most powerful firesoul that ever exist! "It" test the power it had by making a firesoul with just energy! But it failed...it died the secund it was borned... "it" tryed and tryed but the firesoul just died.....but "It" didnt gave upp! And one day, a little firesoul was born, and it didn"t die! A blonde little boy with yellow eyes! His name was XemoX. He was powerful and could controll animals and normal humans brains as a little child.

11 years later, "It" decided to make anotherone, but of course it asked XemoX first if he thought if it was ok. Well it was, but XemoX wanted a little sister and the problem is that if a firesoul is a girl i would immidietly die or become something that is called half-firesoul, just males can become firesouls. But "It" made a boy the looked like a girl in the face. And the boy had dark blue eyes with a crusifix instead of an pupil and long purple hair. Hi"s name was XomeX. He couldnt control others brain but he knowed EVERYTHING, apart from the things before his birth and the things that sould happen in the future. XemoX seemed to hate XomeX much.

Like 20.000 years later XomeX said to "It" that it could take over all the universes whenever it wanted. XomeX knew that "It" was the most powerful firesoul and no-one would be a match aganst it. "It" tried to take over the universes but XemoX didn"t want that to happend. XemoX could even contol "It"s brain so it was no match for him. And then XemoX ripped of "It"s head and ate the brain to get the most of its powers.....and after that XemoX have never stoped to torture XomeX

3 - Soool & L.B

Many many years after, two of the firesouls that Sadness rescued got two twin boys. One named Daylin that had grey hair and one grey eye and one white eye with black half circles behind the eyes. And one named Lucifer with violet hair and with one blue and one purple eye with black circles around his eyes.

Well a female can't be a firesoul but a firesoul can do almost everything and she just turned herself into a female.

She killed her boyfriend when the boys were about 2 days old. She kept Lucifer but left Daylin in the forest. Lucky for a firesoul, the only way for a firesoul to die is if another firesoul kills him. But the boys wanted to be with each other but the mother punished Lucifer if he was together with Daylin.

One day, Lucifer decided to kill his mom without a second thought. And so he did....blood all over the livingroom, bodyparts everywhere and the mother's head between Lucifer's hands. Suddenly Lucifer felt like the back of the neck on him was burning. The skin on him became more red-ish and six small horns grew up from his head, it was painful like hell. Then nothing more happened the neck was not on fire anymore and he looked normal.....but on the back of the neck you could find 3 numbers 6-6-6.....

One other day in the forest, Daylin tried to catch some fish in a river, it wasn't hard he just used his powers. But just when he should kill the fish, he felt like he was lighter. When he looked around he saw himself lying on the ground. He didn't know what to do. He was just scared and cried and screamed. When he tried to grab something he just went through it, like he was a ghost, and so was he. 2 months later he had gotten used to the new body life, and he could grab things again. But suddenly he heard a voice and he saw something. It looked like a big dark mist. It said to Daylin that if he killed his brother then Daylin could get more power than he could imagine. Daylin became afraid but told the mist that he was not interested. But Daylin could hear a voice inside himself that wanted the power. And soon the voice inside him took over Daylin's body. And did what the mist told him to do....kill Lucifer. He ripped off Lucifer's head to prove that he had killed him. And Daylin became powerful as he wanted. But it had another prize, Daylin forgot his name and after that he was more known as the Blood Guardian: Soool.

Lucifer didn't die, his body was in pieces but not his soul. And a soul that has been tortured a long time and dies on a very bad way becomes something called a Souleater, I think you already know what that is, a creature or a soul that eats other souls. Lucifer also forgot his name, but when he became a member and the leader in a big gang he was called the Last Boss or L.B.
