Chapter 1 - My Realm

1 - My Realm

If you look carefully,
Above the leaping waters,
Above the towering tree,
You'll see me sitting gracefully,
Leaning on my knee,
Wishing I'd been younger,
When I was fifty-three.
And those with will that's stronger,
Would look up at me and say,
"Why do you linger here,
Ruining most every day?"
And I would laugh and jeer,
"I mean no harm to thee,
Nor any of thine realm.
Now you just run along.
For all the realms I know of,
Only here I belong."
