We all Know the story about the Sailor Scouts who saved the universe numerous Times. We all know how their story started out With queen Barrel trying to take over the universe and Queen Serenity Sent everyone to earth to be reincarnated. Well this is a story about Those who were reincarnated outside the solar system on a planet called "Nikko". Nikko was a home to a advanced human species. Everyone on this planet had the powers of the sailor scouts but doubled! Well our hero's had no powers at all and they were bullied and didnt fit in at all. But because everyone except our heros had power citizens started using there powers for evil and their civilization ended up in a devistating result. the planets energy was drained by the Nega creeps known as Queen Parrel (yes there is a relation to Queen barrel). she drained All the planets energy but our heros had low energy levels and were abel to escape to our solar system into a beam of light summond by mercery severl years ago when she had summoned a portal to save her fellow sailor scouts when they had been traped in the nega verse where they were keep the buses that they had been draining the people that rode thens energy. Years pass and some devastating events happen. Crstel tokyo has risen and Rini Our little (age 12) Princess has been sent to the past multible times now, and Queen Serenity has a talk with another future hero of ours Leo how is about 13 but still hasn't discoverd the wonders of puperty.

First Rini Said: Isn't the sun set Pretty?

Leo: Not as pretty as you....thinks in head *AWWW MAN!!!! that was the cornyest line ever, and on our first actual date "date" aww man i would'nt be surprised if she dumped me right now.....

Rini:thinks *He just went from hotdog to corn dog in 2 seconds of a line... *Thank you.....

Leo: Soooo Rini how have you been doing sence you left the future? I meen I've been meening to ask but I've been to buisy starring into your eyes.....

Serena:.....eek!

Scouts:.....SLUMBER PARTY!.....

crystal starts glowing*

Rini: Fine!! In the future right before I left the future almost perminately excludeing my mounthly visits....Me and Leo had just started dateing. We were Best Friends for a long time them I decided to take a chance and ask him out....It was about time we started getting our powers he had just turned 13..... When I did something that ruined our relationship...

Serena: WAIT!!!! He is a year older then you!!!!!!

Rini: Yeah i had skiped a grade in the future so we were in the same class...

Rei: What did you say to him!

Rini: We were outside in the back of the castel, we weren't supposed to.... My mother warned us...He wanted me to stay in the future and well while we were Talking, the lunar eclipse occured... It did something to him.... A Sun appeared on his four head and was glowing uncontrolably and so did his eyes! it was terrible...He was out of control! The eclipse lasted about 10 minutes... and in those 10 minutes... he had unleashed all the planet power that the sun poccessed and that night he destroyed 1/4 of crystal tokyo... Killed inosent people...He killed Sailor Scouts....a silents in the room He stole their power...I watched him it

Mena: No.....

Rini: Luckily My Mother was abel to heal the Sailor Scouts and restore their power but...She was not abel to restore all the damage to the city.....After the eclipse he was out cold and fell to the ground.... he woke up a few Hours afterword.... Everyone was still scrambleing around.. and I was still standing in the same spot...He walked up to me and asked me what happened.... I transformed into Sailor Mini Moon and I still in shock used all the power I had to vanquish him...I shouted Cosmic Moon Power... and the moon crystal in the castel reacted... I held the power of the the moon crystal in my hand without having to hold the moon crystal....I told him i never wanted to see his face and I blasted his sorry @$ to hell!

Rei Leigh: Wait what? Then how is he like alive?

Rini: He came back to life on his own....No one knows how but he did.....

Hika: So you vanquished his butt and thats why you kissed him when you saw him when he first arrived at the temple..Yeah that makes sence..not?

Rini: Well he saved my life....

Scouts: huh????????????????

Rini: After the lunar eclipse all the negative energy unleashed created a Demon with powers that were twice as strong as the sailor scouts! The demon went after me.... I transformed but when i did he striped me of my powers and energy... The demon had launched the ulitmate attack.. and would have killed me.. but Leo had came back to life just in time to jump in front of the attack and absorbed the negative energy....He ended up in a Kome'ma for 1 week...he woke up the second i had said "Moon Crystal Key!" and he rushed down with his oxegon tank and all to the castel were I was leaveing for the past.... he made it right before I was high enough in the air to time travel.. He waved and I vanished.

Scouts: Aww.....

Amy: Sun power.....It sounds dangerous...

Rini: It is...

Serena:WAIT!! he's a year older then you...

Serena:wait till Darian heres about this!

Rei: You would think that you of all people Serena wouldn't care about age....You and Darian are almost 6 years apart...

Serena: Yeah but thats Darian!

Rei Leigh: Palyda.....

Leo: So what did ya'll have planned for the Boys night out..

Palyda: Well I wanted togo out with Rei Leigh tonight but, I'M AFRAID THATS NOT IN MY PLANS TONIGHT!!!.....*cough*Darian*cough*

Queen Parrel: She rubs her old-fashioned crystal ball A strange force will be unleashed during this eclipse.....DAMN.....Every time I try to see what it is, a bright yellow light blocks my vision in the crystal ball...

Queen Parrel: No this force is definitely male....And has a strong connection with a young girl....looks in ball Show me who this force is!!!!a bright light is activated I understand.....
