If you want to be i this you can, but try to understand this series before you sign up! ASK ME QUESTIONS! and I Promise I will do My Best to Fit you inthere some Where... Well I Hope you like this... Now Folks, With no further Aduie, I present to you.... The beginning =D

Once upon a time... Humans from earth, with Marvelous Powers, Ruled over the Universe! But, The Humans and the Rest of the known Universe Decided to Seal Their Powers away forever, Becuz of the Power Curruping Civilizations 1,000 Light years away! Normally this wouldn't have been a problem, But the curruped planets Combusted... The People of our Universe all agreed on their choice to, trust 3 Children with the Purest of souls (Known as The Healers) to Seal The Powers Of the Whole Universe in one Special Tablet. But just then, The Planet Taniko Pronounced "T-an-Ee-kO" Pulled out of the deal and decided that their Powers were a good thing. But Earth Argued and said...

Dorita: Tall Female Blonde with bright yellow markings down her arm Our Bodies Are not able to hold the power!!!

Neecha: Regular Sized Red Haired Female with Pink Circles on her cheeks Yes and Becuz of this, We Use up so mush of our Life force we can't live past the age of 35 at best...

Subacan: Large Dark Scinned Male with white markings down his legs and Pink hair They are right!!! If you're Planet doesn't want to seal Their Powers, Then we will be forced to seal them!!!

But Taniko still disagreed... So then the Healers went around to each planet and sealed away the Powers of the people who inhabited the planets. But The Planet Taniko Didn't want their powers to go away, so they Murdered The Healers as they finished off sealing earths Powers away... Earth was powerless and Taniko Attacked! Fortunately, the Healers Soul's Used their power to create a barrier, Separating Taniko from everything else! No One could pass thru the Barrier unless Taniko's People's Power were sealed away in the tablet... But Seeing how,that wasn't gona happen, The earth's Elders use'd the last of their life force to Finish what they started and Lock The Tablet so that no Powers could get in or out Unless it was broken...

The People out side of the Planet Taniko lived in peace and for the most part, forgot the past! And as earth and all the other planets Except Taniko progressed thru time and they went thru a stage a of evolution; As a natural Reaction to their Powers being pulled out of each and every person.And as time Pasted, The Barrier was weakened by the affects of time... People from Taniko were able to past thru the barrier! But when Humans who have come across the barrier for what ever reason, all ways ends up exploding and destorying all things around them... and thats when Our story Begins...

I'll Finish this tomorrow , lol it's 12:08 here

1 - The Barrier: Our first Episode!!!

Eons and Eons have passed since the barrier was first created... And Even now It is being weakened by the affects of time! and A Dark and Evil Force Is Passing thru the barrier... And A force, Not so Evil, More... Blonde! And a little boyish...And YEs, She is a girl... Her Name is... Avea...This 13 year old Tomboy is On her Pet Flutter Fly A 3'0ft tall-wide bird with black and yellow markings on it and she is tumbling down to earth to visit her Mother. Yes this Child Was indeed A forbidden Child as some say, But better describing as... A Half Human... You see her mother was from earth and her father was from the planet Taniko, Yes their Love was forbidden but it didn't last for long... And so Avea is stuck inbetween her mother and father, so naturally, being the tomboy that she is, she chosses her father and visits her mother every now and then. But in this visit she won't be going back on her own Flutter Fly Zuzu... She would be taking A More destructive path on her way home this time...

Avea: Peting Zuzu, while standing in her mothers back yard Ohh I'm Sorry Zuzu, She Pet it's Broken Lim and shue'd it off to go back home Go on home and let dady fix you!
