1 - A Meeting Between Friends

I sat down with an old friend yesterday. It's been ages since we've seen each other last. We've been meaning to get together just like in the old days, but things came up. Things have certainly changed since then.

I never really noticed and changes in myself until this very moment. Of course, I'm a little older now. I am (I think) a little wiser too. I see things differently. I am no longer the jovial youth that I once was.

I looked at my friend. Nothing had changed, except my friend looked more somber, lonelier, unlike when we parted.

I ran my fingers over the ivory keys of that old, dusty piano and began to play. As its sweet melody filled the room, I thought that maybe things haven't changed too much after all.
