This is just a poem I wrote a while ago. It is about myself. I have changed alot lately and have become distant and weak and I dont really like this new me so I wrote this dumb poem about it. (kinda gothic i guess)

1 - Turned Away

Turned away

There was always a girl inside me a younger me a happier me
She wrote down all the good things and knew everything's okay
I didn't agree so I turned away
She knew what was right
I didn't listen to what she'd say I covered my ears and turned away
She showed me flowers with their beautiful colors
But I can only see in gray and so I turned away She organized everything in a little pink book and handed it to me each day I dropped it and as the pages scattered I only turned away
A friend waited out side for me she whistled and waved I was no longer the person she wanted so I closed the curtains and turned away
