erm....I wrote it after I watched Underworld. :)

1 - Wounds

Wounds

The rain falls down

Lacing through the night

Crimson in comparison

The wind takes flight

Wings of leather

Torn with its sorrow

Rivulets of memories

Tainted in its marrow

Deep within

No light can reach

A past torn asunder

Bleak lessons to teach

Of the dark blood

From ancestors past

A betrayal so great

Centuries it did last

Now comes the day

When paths shall cross

Species will blind

And the past will be lost

They take to the skies

As the dark mends

Blood will be shed

For this is the end
