Left... Right... Left... Left again...

'Damn does this place even have an exit?' My feet were numb to the bone and throbbing. But I could still run.

Faster...

Faster!

Black shadows pursued me down the long hallways, white hallways with thin black shadows.

The shadows of an Organization.

These shadows wanted something, and I had it. But it's mine. They can't have it; they'll have to kill me! I bet they would too.

That's why I'm running. I am to play as their puppet no longer.

'Huh?' something warm and wet slithered down my cheek, tracing from my temple to my jaw.

The white hallway fades to black. In the back of my head I know their laughing at me. It's not funny...

But I'm laughing too.
