The thoughts that usually pour out of my head and onto paper, at midnight or later, that race through my brain, and refuse to be contained any longer.

Chapter 4 - Instruction Manual	5

1 - If I die.

Is life really worth living?

All I want after death is nothing. If there is a Heaven and a Hell, then I would like to go to Hell to suffer for all eternity, burn repeatedly, hate always. But if there is not, then I want want to fall into nothingness. No more problems, no love, no hate, no thoughts...nothing...

2 - Emotions

I am extremely good at thinking that I know what you are feeling! Expecially if somone is making fun of somone else! Even if it is no big deal for you, it is the most important thing in the world for me! I can't let you get insulted like that. I just can't! But me, I hate myself! If you must insult someone, please insult me! Hurt me! I'd rather you did that, than go hurt somone else, with me as the witness! Please! Hurt me! Hurt me! I will take the pain! I will hear the echos long after you have forgotten! Don't hurt them! Hurt me!!

3 - Obsessions

I have recently realized that my life is, and has been, ruled by my obsesions. Whatever I am currently obsessed with, rules my life! Its all I can think about! I close my eyes, and flashes of the images of my obsessions flash before them! Maybe it's like this for you too?

4 - Instruction Manual

Wouldn't it be nice if, when you wonder how your mind works, an instruction manual on yourself would magically appear? You could read it to better understand yourself! And it would resolve a lot of questions running through your mind! And when you are done, it would vanish, waiting for the next time you will need it. Because someday, maybe in the not-so-distant future, you will need it once more...
