1 - Out of my Reality

Out of My Reality

Mood altering, vision creating
Line between right and wrong, blurred and smeared
No more boundaries
No more keeping in the light
Just this drug to keep me up all night
Seeing faces, hearing voices
And flying high above the skies
Without these drugs nothing would seem right
Everything broken, everything gone
Why does this night seem so long?
Times an abyss, and I wanna get it over with Eyes wide with a devilish smile
I look up to the sky and pray to god this high never dies
I don't want to care
I don't want to give a shoot
Just take me out of my reality
Cause nothing in this world will ever make sense
