1 - English

I know that there are in your eyes with only look

That you're tired walking and walking

And to walk always rotating in a place

I know that the windows can open up

To change the air depends on you

It will help you it is worthwhile once again

To know that you can, want that you can

To take off the fears to take out them out

Paint your face color thrills

Tempt the future with the heart

It is better get lost that never embark

Better to be tempted to stop to try

Although you see that it is not so easy to start

I know that the impossible thing you can achieve

That the sadness some day will leave

And it will be. The life changes and it will change

You will feel that soul flies

To sing once again

To know that you can want that you can

To take off the fears to take out them out

Paint your face color thrills

Tempt to the future with the heart

To know that you can want that you can

To take off the fears to take out them out

Paint your face color thrills

Tempt to the future with the heart

It is worth more to can shine that only to seek see the sun

To take off the fears to take out them out

Paint your face color thrills

To tempt to the future with the heart

To know that you can want that you can

Paint your face color thrills

Tempt to the future with the heart

To know that you can, want that you can

To take off the fears to take out them out

Paint your face color thrills

Tempt to the future with the heart

You know that you can do it, that you can try, shure you can do it!!!!

Paint your face color thrills

Tempt to the future with the heart

To know that you can want, that you can

To take off the fears to take out them out

Paint your fece color thrills

Tempt to the future with the heart
