Taylor

(played to rap music)

By Danielle and Angela Toth

Poor old Taylor they called her uncool,

Her only real friend goes to another school,

She sat alone on the bus, her eyes they did leek,

For every mocking word made a tear run down her cheek.

She sat in corners, and read her pain away,

For she knew that soon will come her day,

-Chorus-

She's a reader

Not a leader

She sits alone on the bus

Never makes a fuss

People push her aside

So she sits in the shadows and tries to hide

Cause she's Taylor,

Taylor!

Every day at school she'd hardly make a peep,

*But every night when she got home shed cry herself to sleep,
She locks up all emotions in the deepest of her heart,
But every name they call her slowly tears her apart,
If you really look, into her eyes,
You can see the sadness inside that lies.*

-Chorus-

*sometimes when shes alone she looks up to the sky, she prays to god she says why god why,
She can only turn to books,
Because no one even looks,
As she wonders down the dusty street,
She knows, soon, her and god will soon meet.*

-Chorus-

-Repeat x2-

Taylor.
