Chapter 1 - Mental anguish

2

1 - Mental anguish

The pain of so many years with unshed tears

Watching and hearing the words come

Watching and hearing the beatings, the cry tearing from salty lips

Wet from tears

Seeing a tame animal turn into the most hideous of creatures

With blood shot eyes and teeth barred

Nights where the pillow is the only one to confide in

And where the pillow at dawn is wet

The tears do come slipping from tightly shut eyes

No one sees the little girl crying in the corner

Her pale face held between slender hands

She is curled up in a ball hopping and wishing that

This is all a bad dream and that with the dawn

The scene before her red rimmed puffy

Eyes disappear and everything is all right

But every time, time and time again the scene never

Leaves her the scene is still there

It is then she realizes that this nightmare is her life

And that everything is mental anguish

Everything is mental anguish and mental anguish is everything
