Chapter 1 - Garden of Weeds

2

1 - Garden of Weeds

When i have dire thoughts,
I try to distract myself,
But they sink in and plant themselves,
Easily to reach but hard to get out of the tangled weeds,
You tell me to enlighten you when i have these feelings,
But id be calling you constantly,
1:00....4:00...6:00....12:00....maybe even 3 in the morning,
I didn t want to tell you,
I didn t want to concern you,
But you knew,
You knew something was immoral,
So i couldn t hide, i couldn t just say, "it is okay"
Because you reach deeper then that,
One by one my problems leave me,
Pulled out like rough weeds in a garden,
Gone but still has left a deep mark, maybe,
My terrible kept garden,
Full of weeds and broken flowers swollen with broken dreams,
Will slowly recover,
From the years of hard actions and bad decisions,
Attacking the weeds and letting my flowers bloom,

Showing the world what you see in me and what they should see,

If only there were more people like you, and less like me...
