sesshomaru glanced over at rin "lord sesshomaru its cold" she said from his back jaken was on ah-uhn "i know rin" he whispered to her she pointed to something a light ahead "maybe its a hut or an inn" she said weakly he nodded darting forward to the small hut the smell of naraku hung slightly in the air no one had seen or heard from any of narakus creations since they were all dead so what was his smell doing here he slowly walked into the hut setting rin down by the fire the wind blew lightly threw the hut carrying kagura's scent 'she's dead her scent should be long gone yet its fresh in here' sesshomaru thought walking towards it he opened the last door to the hut silently to see someone in kagura's kimono sitting near the body of a white haired girl holding a white haired infant he stared before a head turned his way blood red eyes met his then looked away 'could it really be she died so how is she here before me' sesshomaru thought taking a few steps closer to the wind demoness she wouldn't turn her head to face him understandable considering she died in front of him "kagura" he said lightly "yes sesshomaru" she said tilting her head slightly
