2 - jango the blue fox part two

Why are you asking me for help aren't you a member of the starfox team ? Krystal just turned around and walked a few steps and said three words not any more. O...k... well then what kind of job do you mean? Krystal turned back around and said a very dangerous one. One that could get you killed. But I know that you won't refuse it. Why do you think I won't refuse your job ? Because if you finish the job successfully I will pay you five million in cash! My jaw drops open and then I quickly close it back again and say well then what do you want me to do!? I want you to help me get rid of the anglar once and for all. You got to be kidding me I can t do that by my self I would need lots of help... I would need the whole corneian military! But you're forgetting one thing said Krystal. And what would that be? Krystal started to blush and said you forgot that I am going to be with you the whole time. Hold it right there I have never had a client come on a mission with me. But I am not going to pay you if you don t allow me to come with you said krystal. Ok you can come, I will allow it this time but only because I want that money, oh and one more thing, do you have a ship? No, actually I don t my ship is still on the great fox with the starfox team . Well then I am sure I have a spare ship in the omega, why don t you hop in the black fox with me and I will call for the omega to come and pick us up? krystal starts to run toward the black fox and she says all right I ll do that. Then I start to run toward the black fox to. Me and krystal jump into the black fox and I start up the engine and we fly in to space when we get to orbit above fichina I turn on the com system and say black fox to omega do you copy over. And then a voice responds to my message and says I copy what do you need over. then I say I need you to get over hear to fichina to pick me up over. Next the voice says affirmative I m on my way over and out.
