Chapter 1 - The Forgotten

2

1 - The Forgotten

In the breeze I hear a cry

I see a lonely soldier

I ask him why do you cry?

He turns and says I cry for the forgotten, no victory is worth this pain.

It began to rain, and he said

The rain may wash away blood and tears, but it cannot wash away

my sorrow.

The rain came harder and he turned away and said: We fight, but at what

cost,

All those brave enough to fight, and then

They die and worse I know that in time

We all if not already, will be forgotten,

lost in time.

In the distance I hear thunder,

The soldier turns I must go, but here he said

And handed me his sword, never forget this battle

Remember what price was paid for a victory that would be forgotten.

Remember me my name is peace.

And remember that no victory is worth this price, and then to be forgotten.
