1 - a new student

A new student arrived at Kadic Jr high. She had long, slicky, dirty-blond hair and hazel eyes. She wore baggy cargo pants and a black t-shirt with a wolf on it. Odd took a glance at her and fell in love. After class he started to talk to her. Her name was Erica. They started to hang out and became very good friends. Then Odd thought it was finally the right time and introduced her to the gang. He told them he had been talking to her for a few months then and wanted her to be in the group. Jeremie thought it over with the others and they took her in. Erica thanked them for letting her in the group. In Lyoko she was an arctic wolf, and could transform into the outfit Odd had except it was silver and black, her tail was a wolf's. but our story comes in about 2 days after she first went to Lyoko.

Jeremie was sleeping in his dorm, on the keyboard. He was awakened by the creaking of his door opening. It was Erica. He shot up in his chair and realized that his glasses were bent, and fixed them. "Jeremie... send them to Lyoko... and pull them out with their outfits." Jeremie looked at her and raised an eyebrow. "Why? X.A.N.A. isn't active plus it can't-" "Trust me... It can't wait. and yes it can"

They woke up Ulrich and Odd, then ran to Yumi's house and got her. As they got to the factory there was much confusion.

"Why are we up in the middle of the night at the factory?" Yumi grumbled, rubbing her eyes.

"Hey don't look at me, ask her." Jeremie pointed at Erica.

"Get into the scanners and come out with your outfits now."

"But it can't be done Erica! I haven't even been able to materialize Aelit!"

"Shut up and do it Jeremie. I know how." She snapped.

Odd looked at Erica and said "Are you ok?"

"Fine... as long as you want the human race to continue."

Everyone stopped automatically, eyes open listening.

"Common there isn't much time."

They raced down to the elevator, Erica and Jeremie got off while the others went to the scanner room.

Almost as fast as they stepped in, Erica materialized them with the push of a few buttons. There they were, plain as day standing in front of the scanners with their Lyoko outfits and abilities.

"Wow! she did it!" Jeremie yelled in amazement.

"No time for celebration come one we have to go NOW."

They all followed Erica. As she looked to the sky she gasped realizing that it was a full moon. The soft light shined in her eyes, Odd looked into them and stared. She ran to their next destination, controlling herself from revealing herself, seeing how she had overcome it. They reached a meadow, surrounded in nothing but grass, and a tree off to the distance.

"This is it..."

"Erica.... why are we here?" Odd asked gazing in her eyes.

"We are here for a war."

2 - chapter 2

Part 2

Odd looked Erica in shock, his tail twitching nervously. "A-are you sure? is this a mistake or something? A joke?"

"Odd... why would I lie to you? Jeremie, Yumi or Ulrich? You are the only friends I have here. I would never lie to you."

"My question is where was Aelita? She wasn't on Lyoko!" Jeremie said.

"Well.... you noticed....." Erica said, then let out a ear peirceing wistle. A shadowy figure imerged from the forest walking slowly towards them, about the size of Yumi. The moon light shined on the figure, exposing a girl about the age of 13, with pink hair, green eyes, a pink tunic with green pants, and pink glove like things.

Jeremie stood in amazment "Aelita.... is that really you?!"

"Jeremie! yes it is.... in the flesh." Aelita said, running towards him, and hugged him as soon as she got there.

"I got her out of Lyoko before i woke you up.... she knows why we are here and everything. I told her to meet us here when I gave the signal. Also I took out her virus, very easy really...it was a peice of cake."

"Thank you!!! how can I ever repay you!!" Jeremie chirped in delightment.

"Well I just want to get the on with the war.... just to let you know... fighting in this war.... for everyone you love, you may lose your life ...but in honor..."

Ulrich staired into Yumi's eyes, she stared back her eyes sparkeled in the moon light softly like stars.

Erica fell to her knees, she held her head. She ran to the forest and regained control.

"Erica! are you ok?" Odd said running towards her, his tail waving in the wind.

"Fine.. common follow me... it is time."

It was almost midnight.. Erica coutiously avoided the moon as much as posible. Odd played around alittle and jumped through the trees, and jumped down like a hawk, making all of them flinch, except for Erica, who seem unusually quiet. They came to a stop, Erica punch in the forest, and came back shortly with a disasembled Kankerlet, smoking and sparks flying from it.

"Look what i found....X.A.N.A. tried to pull a sneak attack... this is it... the war isnt far from starting now..."

Part3

All of them stared at the mangled heap of metal that she grasped. Then Erica turned to the hill.

"Come on.... here we are at last..." she said walking slowly up the hill.

"Wait!!" Odd yelled "Do we REALLY have to do this?"

She turned around "Yes Odd... now come on... Ulrich Yumi!! stop that!! you will most likely get time to do that later... just not now!!thats discusting!!"

Ulrich broke the kiss from Yumi "He he.... lets get going s-shall we?" he said, nervously and a little embarassed.Aelita giggled and Jeremie held her hand.

"Aelita, dont leave me during this... by the way what am I going to do? I dont have a wepon."

"O yeah, almost forgot." She tossed Jeremie doble samuri swords and a few ninja stars, along with some num-chucks. "Use them well my friend. And to all... good luck..."

"But dont you have wepons? you didnt get you Lyoko suit like we did."

"I'll manage." she said with a shine of light in her eye.

They climbed over the hill, and there it was, the army of X.A.N.A.. He had also made some more creatures for the war to. Dragons, griffins, and even some raptor.

"O shoot..." Erica said weakly "I didnt know he had some frackin dragons!!"

They all stared in amazement of what she just said.

"Sorry, but we have to go now... and get through all of this... and save our world if it takes our lifes!!"

There was a figure on top the largest dragon, the red one, he flew around the whole army, talking computer. they at once that could only be one person... Xana.

The war part4

Erica disappeared in the trees. Odd tried to go after her, but it was too late, not a trace of her. The gang gazed at the Dragon, with Xana on its back. It was incredible, Xana, was there, in the flesh, materialized 100%. Then the army went forwards, closing in for the attack. Odd ran down the hill charging at them, followed by the others. Odd thought in his head 'Where did Erica go? Why did she leave us on the beginning battle?'

"Odd!" Ulrich screamed

"What?"

"Good luck pal, you'll need it."

"You too."

Ulrich drew his kantana, Yumi flicked open her fan, Jeremie tossed Aelita a sword, and Odd shed a tear, thinking of Erica and how she just vanished. The army approached and it began. Metal flew, blood was spilled, and bones were crushed. After hours it still continued. Odd was heartbroken, wounded, and about to get attacked by the last raptor of the three there were. The raptor exposed its gigantic flesh-tearing killer teeth. Odd was pinned to the ground and was helpless, the raptor's head cocked down his chest, slowly moving with its mouth closed. It stopped and exposed the gapped teeth once again a few inches from Odd's head.

"Erica... why did you leave me?" Odd shed a tear again. "I love you... goodbye."

Just as he said that a wolf ran from the side of the raptor and pounced it. The wolf ripped the raptor to a bloody mess. Then it turned to Odd, its eyes twinkling in the moonlight. Odd sat up and said

"You saved me...thanks"

The wolf nodded somehow then ran off, Odd gazing and relishing how beautiful it was. He stood up and began to fight again, wondering why the wolf had saved him and why it looked so familiar. The war went on, Aelita loved the sensation of fighting, Jeremie stayed with her no matter what, Ulrich and Yumi were spilt up. Odd realized the dragon had no one on its back anymore, it was flying solo, and Odd knew that Xana had sent it out without him to kick some @$$. Throughout the war Odd saw the wolf from then on. He tried to get it a few times, but it just ran off. He saw a wolf, but not Erica, he started to get worried about her, if she got hurt somewhere where they don't know where she is, or possibly, no...impossible...Odd knew she is too strong to do that... He knew she could never do that to him. Just at that time the impossible creature came over the hill...
