cocoa screamed.dustfur bit whatever it was."everybody, to the back of the tunnel!" tawny yelled.they all ran back.after a couple of hours they cautiously crept back out."they're gone." said cocoa." no, they're not." dustfur said sadly.dustfur was right. a few yards away there was a bunch of nofurs and a tunnel above ground." oh no a fire!" yelled amber. "it looks like they're keeping it in that little area.i think it 'll be ok. we should get some rest nightclouds out like a light." said tawny softly.

they all went to sleep but after a couple hours cocoa woke up. "whats that awfall smell?" she asked. "guys, guys ?" wake up!" she kicked dustfur softly but firm enough to wake him. " huh wha- what do you want?" dustfr said sleeply.

"the fire!" she yelled. soon the others woke. "oh no the fire we forgot to take turns on watch!" tawny said. "come on guys lets see if we can't stop it." they all ran out of the tunnel and toke to the air. "wow look how huge it is." nightcloud said.amber , tawny , cocoa and dustfur flew to the lake." what about me ?" nightcloud said. " you have to try and wake the nofurs but don't show them your wings and don't let them touch you" tawny said strictly. " yes sir." nightcloud said jokingly. tawny just sighed and amber rolled her eyes. nightcloud flew down to the nofurs while the others went to the lake. nightcloud landed on the biggest one and started licking its face. "uhhh." nightcloud mimicked a pucking face. the nofur sturred and started to get up.

nightcloud ran off it and jumped hardly on the other it sturred as well then stood. "kjh ndf dfhbh dfhah!" one said while pointing at the fire. nightcoud had no idea what it was saying but it got some long green thing- snake! nightcloud ran like never before but was lifted off the ground he kept moving his legs like he was running." ehehh why aren't i moving?" he asked confused. the nofur had picked him up and was carrying him, nightcloud struggling the whole way. the big one put out the fire as nightcloud could barely make out the outline of tawny and the others high above. tawny was gonna be maaddddd. nightcloud squeezed through the hands of the nofur and jumped up in the air. he didn't care if they saw his wings but he had to escape.it turned out tawny wasn't mad he was just glad he was ok.

tawny had a dream he was a trampoline."ow"he said. he heard fast scurring. he sat up and looked around. there sat amber and three tiny balls of fluff."wha- wai- me- kits- huh?" he said very confused.amber nodded."awwwww!" "they're adorable." he said. "whos adorable ?" said dustfur as he came in to the den."wooooooh whats that?" said dustfur already knowing the answer just completely shocked. "they're kits." said amber."mine.". "what should we name them?" tawny asked. "well i was going to name this one-" she said pointing to a kit that could have been tawnys twin with her nose."goldkit." this one-" she said pointing to one that looked like her."hazel and this one-" she finished sniffin a mixed yellow and brown one."is smudge." she said. "awww i love their names" said dustfur.

all of a sudden cocoa burst into the den. "FIRE." she said. tawny, amber, and dustfur each picked up a kit while cocoa led a path to a different exit opposite the fire. they reached the top and looked around. the campers there were 6 more sets of tenets near the tunnel only yards away. "lets fly to a new area away from all these nofurs." she suggested. "we cant fly with kits and they're eyes arent even open yet." amber said. "well we can last at least ,the maximum of 4 days before anyone sees us. but when they start getting closer we may have to walk to a new area." said tawny. "wait weres nightcloud." asked cocoa. "he went for more strawberries you know how he is with strawberries." tawny said. "oh" she said. 4 days later tawny stood pacing in the den. " wait wait wait they're eyes are opening" she said "really" tawny asked. "yeah they'r e all open". one of the kits hopped over-stumbled got back up and started to hop all around the tunnel walk way except for were they had blocked they exits.

soon the others followed. 4 hours later nightcloud hadnt returned. theyed been out looking in shifts but couldnt find him. an hour passed. the kits grew tiny chicken wings. smudge actually got of the ground. tawny led the kits to the entrance to practice flying. earlier they had dug a other entrance and exit away from the nofurs. everybody was outside encouraging the kits when nightcloud appeared. "nightcloud!" cocoa yelled. nightcloud explained that he was captured and meet another flying rabbit named cotten. cotten stepped out of the bushes. "hi" she said shyly. "well since our tunnel is to crowded and the nofurs coming closer we should get a move on." tawny said.

they took off. flying low for the kits ears. the wind blew tawnys fur and made a whistling noise."where exactly are we going" asked amber." its a surprise" tawny said since he had no idea.wait what about the tunnel we found when dustfur was missing.thats a great idea we could dig it bigger and its far away from nofurs."what about that one tunnel?"tawny suggested."what tunnel" amber asked. "the one we found when dustfur was missing."oh" thats a good idea nightcloud said.45min. later they found it.they dug it bigger and made another den for cotten.

tawny awoke warm, happy and away from the nofurs.amber , the kits, nightcloud, cotton, dustfur, cocoa and tawny started renovating the new tunnnel.when they were finished it was huge! when you walked in and toke a right there was amber and tawnys den.then there was a passage from therrre den to the kits no farther then 5 inches apart. then on the left was dustfur and cocoas den. then further on the left was cotton and nightclouds den. they were exhausted so they toke a nap.an hour later they decided to try and help the kits fly a little higher.

goldkit awoke nice cozy and so warm. he hopped around to see who was asleep and who was awake. "psssst!" he whispered to smudge and hazel. smudge moved and stood up. hazel woke after a couple of kicks. "hey!" "dont kick me!" she said angrily. "sorry i had to wake you." goldkit explained. awake at last they all sneaked out the entrance and took to the skies. they flew for a couple minutes before smudge suggested going to the farmer's garden. little did they know they had flown to the farmer that had strawberries and the one that also hated rabbits that was tawny was chased by the dog. they landed clumsily still unsure of how to land. hazel jumped 5ft in the air and grabbed a banana from a tree. "banana!" she yelled excitedly. she started to nibble off the skin. "mmmmm" they all said as they nibbled the delicious banana. "asjkd fhkajbk asjkdhgjlk asdljbn jmcvk ajksdghouiang!!!!" the twoleg yelled waving a sharp stick toward the kits. "run!!!" goldkit yelled. they escaped just as the dog got out. it jumped and grabbed hazel's left wing. "ahhhh!!!" she yelled in horror and pain.

"ahhh!!!" she screamed. the dog, with hazels wing still in his mouth, shook his head violently back and forth. "no one messes with my sister!" yelled goldkit. he swooped down and landed on the back of the dog and bit it. it yelped dropping hazel to the ground. she landed with a silent thud. smudge swooped down and picked her up by the scruff and flew off. goldkit saw them leave and followed. back in the forest they landed. hazels wing was bitten and twisted. "go get me some spiderwebs and that leaf right over they're." smudge said calmly but firmly. "how do you know which one it is?" goldkit asked. "cocoa showed me now hurry!!!" he yelled at the end. goldkit ran and found some spiderwebs and grabbed the leaf smudge told him to. smudge chewed the leaf into a pulp and laid it over the biggest wound. "owwwwwwwwwww" hazel said weakly. all of a sudden smudge stopped and stood on his back legs. "nofur!" he screamed. goldkit started to run but turned back "what about hazel?" ge asked. by then the nofur had spotted them. it came closer and picked up hazel. "get back here!" goldkit said. it kept walking. goldkit and smudge followed. it led them to a aboveground tunnel. another one came out. it picked up smudge and goldkit at the same time. it walked them inside and set them on something soft and fluffy. they laid down on it. "wow this is so soft." goldkit said. from where they were sitting they could see hazel. they hopped over and jumped on the ledge. they were sewing her wing back together with some shiny thing. hazels wing was all fixed but it had some thick cobweb around it. she woke up. "wow, my wing feels better, stiff, but better. 7 hours later after a nap they cut off the stuff. they moved her wing up and down. she didnt even flinch. a couple min. later they let them go. "are you ok?" smudge asked. "yeah im fine." she said. they flew back to the tunnel where tawny and amber were pacing back and forth outside the den. "kits!" amber screamed.

the kits landed and amber bombarded them with hugs and licks. "uhh" smudge said wiping his face. tawny, cocoa, dustfur, cotten, and nightcloud hopped over. "what happened to your wing, hazel?" cocoa asked. amber examined her wing. "the dog attacked it." hazel said. "what?!?!?!?!?" tawny said. "you went to the garden with the guard dog didnt you, what have we told you about going there?" amber said. "theres dogs over there" the kits mumbled together. "lets get inside" cocoa said, already hopping out of the rain.

they all hopped inside and went to their nests. A couple of hours later Tawny woke. he looked up and started towards the den entrance. Outside a bunch of rabbits were there. They turned towards Tawny just as he was sneaking up on them. Tawny guessed there was about 6 or 7 adults and 3 kits. "Who are you?" tawny asked. The biggest one turned around and started walking towards tawny.

"I'm flame." he said. "im tawny" tawny said. "we came to find a place to live and be safe from nofurs." he said. "ok well, its safe here but this is our land."

tawny said. "may we stay here we could become one and be a very strong clan."

he said. "i dont know i have to ask the others." tawny said slowly. "there a re others?" he asked curiously.

11 - 11

tawny hesitated.he didnt want to tell these weird rabbits about the others in cause they were planning an attack."well have you thought about our offer?" flame asked.that was all tawny and the others could think about for the past day."yes.we've decided to join and become one." tawny said. he hoped he made the right desicion."thank you.so shall we start work on our new dens?"flame suggested."uh, ok." amber said."very well then." they followed flame and came into a giant hole big enough to hold 2 or 3 nofurs."wow!" smudge said.and now the were in a giant tunnel,the kits were staying and they had met a whole other group of flying rabbits.all in one day.he lay down beside amber in their huge den inside the huge tunnel.he hoped he would get sleep but couldnt promise anything.

Tawny still felt kinda weird around these other rabbits, he thought as he lay down to sleep. Awhile later tawny awoke. He went outside but didn't see the weird rabbits or their leader flame. "Where are the other rabbits and flame?" tawny asked. "Who?" cocoa said confused."The other rabbits you know the ones that like wanted to join us and like, have a huge clan or something like that?" tawny said hoping she was just kidding. "I don't know what your talking about." Amber said. Either they were lying or it was all a dream."but . . . they. and ..urgghh."Tawny stuttered."what are you talking about pa?"smudge asked. "Nothing." tawny said. How could it have been a dream?

Tawny didn't understand, but he didn't want to cause trouble. Instead he decided to go get some strawberries as a treat for the kits. He flew all the way to the farm and gathered as much strawberries as he could hold. Then he flew a couple yards from the kits dug a small hole and hid the strawberries. Then he went back and got even more strawberries. He flew back to the hiding spot and hid those too. He strolled into the opening and asked the kits if he wanted to play a hid and seek game. Of course they were excited. Tawny told them the rules and the kits set out for the scavenge for the strawberries. "I found them!!!!!" screamed hazel. Tawny, Smudge and goldkit all ran over. "She gets first pick." tawny said. "Awwwww." smudge and goldkit said at the same time hazel yelled, "yesss!!!" . After hazel was done goldkit and smudge devoured what was left. Tawny smiled. Amber came up behind him. " whats all over your faces?!?" amber asked thinking the juice was blood. "Its strawberry juice." tawny said jokingly. "Oh." amber said embarrassed. The kits giggled quietly. All of a sudden tawny heard a noise. A noise he had heard distinctly before.
