As the sky had a speck of light in the sky the crisp air had just awakened Kagome from her deep sleep. She rubbed her eyes and reached her arms out to wake her self up more. Kagome then looked over to the tree that Inuyasha was sleeping in, she smiled. He had become so nice there last real argument was at least 5 months ago. He was awakening with the sun so Kagome looked away for he might see her looking at him and he would feel weird. She got up and went to the river to wash her face he came soon after and asked "would you ever leave me Kagome?" he asked with worry eyes. She turned to him and said "not even if I died or if you left me I would always look for you" she then looked to the ground

The whole time they were waling to the town sango and miroku were at they were having so much fun and not even fighting at all. But then Inuyasha smelled something and didn't tell Kagome what he smelled, but Kagome knew what it was he had the same look in his eyes when Kikyo was around and he said that he would be back but she saw her soul stealers and fallowed them and found Kikyo but she also found Inuyasha too.
