Xana has switched the genders of the Lyoko gang. It's a quite pointless attack, but it annoys the Lyoko gang past the point of no return.

DD: Inspired by a drawing that Dana-sama saw.

Heh, just random... Sorry it's so short. Please comment! Dragon-Dana will cry if you don't.

A thin, blonde boy was lying on the bed in a small room. A blue blanket covered him as he slept. The sun hadn't risen yet, but it was morning nonetheless. Suddenly, a laptop positioned near the bed emitted a loud beeping noise. The boy groaned and pulled himself out of bed. He sleepily opened the laptop.

“Oh no, it's Xana... So early...”

A white bubble of light rose from a nearby factory and enveloped the school. The boy found himself in an eerily familiar setting: lunchtime the previous day.

“Something doesn't seem right... aside from the unexplained return to the past...” At that moment, he looked down at himself. He fainted.

Meheh, I love leaving people hanging.
