1 - The story

Once upon a time, there lived a rock named Sed. Sed was a sedimentary rock that was fighting with his friend Squishy the magma person. Once or twice Sed would go over to Squishy's house and try to work things out but he knew that he wasn't home because he had joined a gang called the Volcanoes. Sed was walking around looking for something to do when he saw Squishy doing bad things again with his new friends. Sed walks over to them and tells them to stop it. Before he knows it Squishy fired magma at him then Squishy's friends pushed Sed until he became a new type of rock known as a metamorphic rock. Sed was happy at this and said thank you to them and asked Squishy if they wanted to be friends again. Squishy agreed and they were best friends forever.
