A poem I wrote when somebody very close to me never gave me the answer that I wanted.

Chapter 1 - Never Be Mine.

1 - Never Be Mine.

I'm getting over her:

She who I never had,

And never will have,

Broke my heart

Without realising.

I would have given you the world:

We could have

Ran through thickets and

The world's gardens together,

Laughing all the way.

We'd laugh, cry, die,

Smile, live, fly together:

Sharing every moment

In love's tender embrace,

Me and you.

The wistful dreams fade,

And I am left,

Staring at a picture of you.

How is it that I cry when those images

Were nothing more than dreams?
