Type an address
And press 'Enter'
Type your email,
Password: "$enter."

Wait a while,
Connection's slow;
Like yesterday,
Like tomorrow.

What will it say?
You think you know:
Sentbox: one,
Inbox: zero.

Guess what? You're right,
It's like before:
Sentbox message
To: HotGuy4

You think it's true—
You love him so,
You sent an email,
To make it show.

You hit refresh,
You want to know,
But it's just the same,
Inbox: zero.
Like yesterday,
Like tomorrow.

Has very little to do with me. That username thing was just something that fit, something that would work, and something that rhymed. I do not know anyone by that username, nor anything similar.
