Melissa: Hey...I came up with the idea for this poem.

Karen: I made it rhyme!!!

Well this is about our dream fantasy of becoming a butterfly...Melissa: So the Question is: What if I was a Butterfly...?

Chapter 1 - If I was a Butterfly

2

1 - If I was a Butterfly

If only I could fly,
I would burst through my shell;
Come out as Butterfly,
And hear the morning bell.

If only I had wings,
I'd zoom through creepy places.
Birds are chirping and cricket sings,
There are so many faces.

But what if....
I was a Butterfly-
I'd freely fly all day,
I'd meet the shiny sun;
I'd dash through the sky,
And clouds that are gray.

If only I could fly,
I'd spread my tiny wings;
Watch sparrows dive and glide,
Until garnet chime rings.

But what if...I really was,
A tiny butterfly?
The sky will be my home;
I'd protect it, because it's really mine.

The morning dew, will be my bath,
The petal on purple fuchsia will be my bed;
If only I was a butterfly-
There...All is said.
