1 - If you are an Aries...

Element: Fire

Planet: Mars

This sign of the Zodiac is concerned with: Self-assertion, Initiation, New Beginnings, Action, Daring, Challenge, Adventure, Exploration, Pioneering, Discovering, Aggression, Creativity, Personal Goals, Personal Control of Everything, Competition, Winning, Being First, Courage, Honesty, Nobility, and Openness

Spiritual Goal: To learn the meaning of selfless love.

Behavior

Positive: Is a leader, Is energetic, Helps others to achieve their dreams, Accepts challenges, Believes the best of others, Takes risks for others, Defends the vulnerable, An Aries life is an open book, Will give life for the loved one, and Continues action even when others give up

Negative: Must be the boss, Brashness, Blind to his or her effect on others, Intolerance, Jealousy, Doesn't listen, Selfishness, Impulsiveness, Poor judge of character, and Dislikes being told what to do

Males are typically: Fiercely competitive, Honest, Appears to be self-assured, Takes initiative and expects others to follow, Is enterprising, Dreads physical disability, Has very clear goals, Will put his partner on a pedestal, Needs to win, and Uses wit and brains to get what he wants

Females are typically: Looks you in the eye and gives you a firm handshake, Is enthusiastic and optimistic, Talks back and often gets hurt because of it, Expects loyalty, Is fearless, Has interests outside the home or has a career, Expects to win in any situation, Is direct, open and honest, and can make miracles happen

Appearance

Aries Male: Has a strong body, Is extremely energetic, Has dominating sex appeal, Walks with an air of nobility, and Dresses in clothes appropriate to the current challenge

Aries Female: Is slim and strong, Is very active and glows with energy, Has strong, luxurious hair, Wears sophisticated colors and perfume, and Dresses in clothes appropriate for the occasion

Love

Behavior: Is very romantic and believes in courtly love, Will insist on doing the chasing and cannot bear to be chased by anyone, Can be extremely possessive of the lover but cannot understand if the lover is possessive, Places the loved one on a pedestal, Will be jealous of any attention the loved one gives to others, and Will defend the loved one to death

Positive: Aries friends are warm and hospitable but they are not usually interested in entertaining for its own sake; they usually have a reason for inviting friends around. Many Aries prefer to go out to dinner, to find an unusual eating place. Both male and female Aries usually get along better with male friends.

Negative: Because Aries are very jealous of other people's abilities and achievements, Aries friendships often don't last very long. However, a person who will admire his or her Aries friend and remain interesting, through not ambitious, can enjoy an enduring friendship with Aries. Aries can become harsh and nasty if his or her fragile ego is under threat.

Health

Typical sickness: Fevers and accidents are typical of all fire signs, and especially so with the highly strung Aries character. If ill, Aries will expect constant attention to his or her needs, but recovery is usually very quick. Typical Aries may suffer from acne, epilepsy, neuralgia, headaches, migranes, and baldness. Accidents due to physical activities are common, accompanied by bangs on the tough Aries head. Sinuses, eyes, and ears are also vulnerable

Body

Aries controls the head, brain, eyes, ears, sinuses, and bones.

Gifts: Self-Determination, Fearlessness, Innocence, Renewed, Young, and "With-It", Self-Reliant, Honesty, Sex Appeal, Resiliency, Optimism and Positivity

Fears: Being Inconsequential, Fear of being weak or wimpy, Deflated by boredom

Yu Yu Hakusho Character: Hiei

Why: His personality seems to have a fiery and sexy way of winning over the hearts of many by his cold attitude. He also seems to have a temper that flares when he is not the first in line. He is rather bored quickly and moves on rather fast like the trailblazing Aries. Although it claims that the Aries is a defender of the weak, in some ways, it is true. In order to unlock Yusuke's power the second time, Hiei fought him until Yusuke got so angry that he went full strength on Hiei. Sadistic, I know. But apparently the little fire demon is a rather helpful person. What really convinced me that Hiei was an Aries was the fear of physical disability. When he injured his arm, he kept working and training that arm as if to undo the past and deny the crippling of his arm. However helpful and optimistic the Aries sounds and how unlike Hiei it is, he is definitely one powerful, trailblazing Aries.

The Conqueror The Leader The Trailblazer

2 - If you are a Taurus...

Element: Earth

Planet: Venus

This sign of the Zodiac is concerned with: Beauty, Romance, Sentimentality, Sensuality, Materialistic values, Wealth, Prosperity, Nature, Harmony, Love of living things, Possession, Control, Security, Dependability, Habit, Organization, Tenacity, Kindness, Shyness, Cautiousness, Trustworthiness, Calmness, Appreciation of values, Talents, and Abilities

Spiritual Goal: To learn the value of insight.

Positive: A careful and conservative outlook, Dependable and offers enduring loyalty, Calm and patient, Artistic, Thorough, Attentive, Values the talents of others, Very loving, Resourceful, Gentle and placid, Excellent cook, and Good sense of time and is orderly

Negative: A tendency to be self-indulgent, Can be stubborn, obstinate, and get stuck in a rut, Materialistic, Slow-moving, Little to say, Delays action by pondering, Easily embarrassed, Boring, and Insensitivity

Males are typically: Rarely change their point of view, Works hard to build security, Is astute and can evaluate a situation very quickly in financial terms, Is quiet and has a low-key charm, Is unpretentious, Enjoys comfort, Can be defensive and suspicious in a new or unexpected situation, Is wary of others taking advantage of him, Dresses to create an image of respectability, and Uses influential connections to get what he wants

Females are typically: Is an introvert, Has considerable moral and emotional courage, Takes people as they come, Is very loyal to her friends and sticks by them if they are in trouble, Has practical common sense, Is deeply sensual, and Prefers the real to the artificial

Taurus Male: Has a stocky body, which is muscular if he does a lot of physical activity, May be plump, Will bear the discomfort of an injury or disability with extreme stoicism, Has very clear skin, Is likely to have plenty of hair and can grow a substantial beard, and Walks with determination

Taurus Female: Tends to have a rounded body, Has beautiful complexion and hair which always looks in excellent condition, May live by a very strict diet to attain slimness, Has an air of mystery about her because she does not flaunt her sexuality, Wears clothes which give her sensual pleasure, and Has a strong body capable of hard work

Behavior: Is devoted and steadfast, Settles quickly into a stable affair, Loves glamour, Is extremely vulnerable to people who accept his or her affection but only want a flirtation, Will never forgive a betrayal, The male is generally the strong, silent type, and The female is usually an earth mother/ Venus

Positive: Taureans are very warm and affectionate toward their friends. They enjoy friendship with people who have good taste and with whom they can enjoy a quiet conversation or a concert or a football game. They will enjoy people who have strength of character and qualities of endurance like their own. Toward such friends, Taurus will always be gentle, kind, loving, and totally trustworthy.

Negative: Taurus can be jealous of any attention a friend gives to someone else. Taurus does not like signs of weakness, physical or emotional, and can be quite direct about them. Taurus prizes friends who have some power which they can share and enjoy. People who wear cheap perfume, artificial fabrics, and have houses that are built to deceive the eye are unlikely to attract the friendship of a typical Taurean.

Health

Typical sickness: Infections of the throat are said to be linked with Taurus, including laryngitis, swollen glands, and croup. Constipation may also bother a Taurean. When sick or if involved (untypically) in a serious accident, Taurus can withstand any amount of discomfort or pain. The Taurean ability to stubbornly refuse to allow anything to get the better of him or her is a great advantage during times of sickness. Similarly, a Taurean will stand by family and any friend who has a misfortune.

Body

Taurus controls the tongue, tonsils, neck, throat, thyroid, vocal chords, veins, kidneys, and genital organs

Gifts: Resourcefulness, Practicality, Methodical, Patience, Perseverance, Realistic, Deliberate, Deeply enjoy the Simple Pleasures of Life, Resistance, Defensiveness

Fears: Losing security, Not strong enough, Not worthy

Yu Yu Hakusho Character: Kurama

Why: Kurama has the patience and strategic personality that is grounded and secure. He seems to have a natural knack for creating things (such as plants) and enjoys what most believe to be everyday things. During Kurama's fight with Touya, although he was covered in blood and in an extreme amount of pain, he continued to fight until he subjected himself to the pain of his own death plan to gain a victory over Team Masho. Even after being pummeled by Bakken, his words were "I'll survive.." That is one tough cookie. Coming back to life has changed this former bandit to a softie. Another Taurean aspect of his personality was the fact that he stayed with his mother during her illness. With all of these personality traits, it was only fair that Kurama was a perfect fit for this sign. That is just me, though. Some may not agree.

The Security Seeker The Cultivator The Loyalist The Conservator

Appearance

Gemini Male: Is taller than average, Has a pale, rough complexion that will become weather-beaten easily, Is very agile, Has a high forehead and receding hairline, and Has quick, darting eyes

Gemini Female: Is tall and slender, unless there is a strong taurus influence causing plumpness, Has very beautiful eyes, Has long arms and legs, Has exquisitely expressive hands, and Moves quickly

Behavior: Is overwhelmed by confusing emotions, May appear cool and distant, Will think things through rather than act spontaneously, Needs a rational understanding of love, Tends to repress very strong emotions, Is acutely sensitive and open to hurt, Can become emotionally dependent, and Feels very deeply but finds it very hard to express love

Positive: Geminis generally enjoy people who respond to, or suggest, spontaneous activities. They will run to help you when you are in need. A Gemini friend is full of life, often a Peter Pan, and always eager to be off on a new adventure. They will keep friends amused with endless stories, bits of information, or network gossip.

Negative: Gemini never wants to miss a thing, and so may be inclined to be early or late for meetings. Stretching or elaborating the truth is not uncommon; Geminis can hardly resist adding extra spice to make it more interesting.

Health

Coughs, colds, bronchitis, speech problems, and other chest/lung complaints are most typical of Geminian health. Whenever physical misfortune strikes, the person who behaves in the way typical of Gemini is likely to hide the most serious side of things and make even less of the least serious aspect. Geminis usually hate being confined to bed and are restless until they finally exhaust themselves. At this point, they become still, silent, and heavy, like the closeness that occurs before the thunderstorm breaks and all is well again.

Body

Gemini controls the hair, nervous system, speech, shoulders, lungs, arms, hands, and fingers.

Gifts: Fun, Assimilate, Mimicking and Imitating, Great Travelers, Fun Friend, Variety, Experimenting, Mental Versatility, Versatile in Actions, Imagination, Playfulness, Love of Entertainment, Ever-Youthful, Curiosity

Fears: Boredom, Confinement, Intellectual confinement, Emotional confinement, Commitment, Expressing their "Evil Twin"

Yu Yu Hakusho Character: Botan

Why: The Personality that Botan has is a fun, quirky personality that is fun and very broad in many ways. She tends to have a wide array of clothes, emotions, and her occupation seems to become larger and larger as she takes on many different tasks at once. She also seems to love the entertainment of the tournaments that Yusuke fights in and she can blend into any atmosphere that she is in. Botan's most Gemini-like moment was when Genkai had passed on and her response was the explosion of tears that she had suppressed from everyone for at least twenty-four hours. Only Shizuru caught on and exposed her for the emotional wreck that she was. A wonderful traveler and a crazy gal. She is definitely one of the Gemini's.

The Communicator The Quick Change Artist The Trickster

Females are typically: Is introspective and emotional, Uses her intuition more often than logic, Will use all her nurturing instincts to care for and protect friends and family, Wants material security and comfort, Never does anything impulsively, Is shy but very sexual, Easily takes offense to minor insults, and Is patient, subtle, and often unconsciously manipulative

Appearance

Cancer Female: Has a face that is typically round and soft but may be a crab type, May be flat-chested or have a large bust, Has hips that are often slimmer than her bust, Puts on weight easily in middle age, Has a strong bone structure, Has very expressive eyes, Has long arms and legs compared with body, and Has large and long or small and chubby hands and feet

Love

Behavior: Will rarely make the first move, Fears that he or she will be rejected, Will retreat, deeply hurt, at the first sign of ridicule or criticism, Will respond to honest warmth and affection, Can become tenaciously attached to the loved one, Is a romantic at heart, and Will put the loved one first in all things

Positive: Friends are, in many ways, regarded as family possessions themselves and are treated as such, with loving care, protective hospitality, sensitive consideration, and great tenderness. Although some friends may come and go, friends from younger days are the most precious.

Negative: When he or she is hurt by a friend, the Cancerian anger may last for a long time and the friend may be abandoned. However, if the friend is an old friend, then the emotional attachment will finally lead to reconciliation. Cancerians do tend to set their own standards by the progress their friends are making.

Health

Typical sickness: Some Cancerians are complainers when they feel not enough affectionate attention is coming their way, yet when an illness slowly creeps up on them, they are remarkably tough and complain less and less. A melancholy or full depression may then be evident. Typical illnesses often arise from the upper digestive tract, especially the stomach. Indigestion, coughs, anemia, and lowered vitality are common. Cancerians may also suffer from eating disorders

Body

Cancer controls the esophagus, sternum, ribs, breasts, diaphragm, upper lobes of liver, stomach, gall bladder, and uterus.

Gifts: Sensitivity, Compassion, Recognize the Potential, Alliance with Women, Psychically Sensitive, Tenderness, Tenacious, Determined, Resourcefulness

Fears: Being unable to care for themselves or others, Emotional pain, Emotional confinement

Yu Yu Hakusho Character: Kuwabara

Why: All Cancers will hate me for this but let me explain why he was fit for this sign. Kuwabara has a caring heart and seems to know that Yusuke has a potential to fight that he himself cannot harness. Several times, he has sacrificed himself to unleash that potential (once with Rando and once with Toguro). Also, Kuwabara seems to gain an understanding and an alliance with the opposite sex when the series comes to a close. His relationship with his sister also exposes this attachment to the opposite sex. Not only that, an Aries and a Cancer have a somewhat difficult time of getting along. They can be friends (which Hiei and Kuwabara are). They just have to work at it. Much of what Kuwabara is goes unnoticed because of his stupidity, but if you look deep enough, there is a Cancer lying in wait to sacrifice for the safety of his friends.

The Nurturer The Child The Provider

Positive: Leos are friendly, warm, and often playful. They enjoy their friends and are proud of them; they are generous to their friends, but the friends are expected to show their gratitude, either in kind or by performance, putting Leo's support to good use.

Negative: A friend who in some way fails a Leo, perhaps by seeming to criticize or failing to appreciate something Leo sees as important, may be dropped without explanation. A friend, partner, or business associate who has personal aspirations may find it increasingly impossible to take second billing to a Leo, and so may end the relationship.

Health

Typical sickness: High fevers, sudden illnesses, and accidents are typical of Leonine health. Whatever physical misfortune strikes, the person who behaves in a way typical of a Leo will enjoy only a brief period of being spoiled in the sickbed before he or she is up again and on the go. To be incapacitated for long is a sign of weakness to a Leo. This desire to get up too soon after an illness may mean that a health problem recurs.

Body

Leo controls the hair, throat, shoulders, heart, blood circulation, spleen, spine and spinal cord, dorsal nerves, wrists, reproductive organs, legs, and ankles

Gifts: Courage, Strength, Powerful, Fun, Presence, Classy and Stylish

Fears: Being overlooked or dismissed, Universe does not provide what they need, Being ignored

Yu Yu Hakusho Character: Atsuko

Why: Atsuko seems to have the strength and power to be a Leo. She also seems to show her fun side by her drinking and her partying all night long when Yusuke is sleeping at the beginning of the series. Since she is also young, she has a sense of style that seems to awe most of those who see her. She also seems quite childish with her drunken rages and her breakdowns to Yusuke about him getting killed. She is rather caring despite the deathly large amount of alcohol. Even though she is a drunk, she is strong and courageous as a proud Leo should be. She even went to the Dark Tournament and whacked a few demons herself! Proud and somewhat intoxicated, here is to the Leo herself! Atsuko!

The Royal One The Potent Creator The Entertainer
