Romantic Interest: Tai Kamiya

Spouse: Tai Kamiya (Later)

Children: Terri Kamiya (Daughter)

Neices/Nephews: Austin Moutomiya (Nephew), Ellie Moutomiya (Niece)

Hobbies: Singing, cooking, hanging out with friends, saving the Digital World

Talents: Cooking, saving the Digital World, keeping fights from erupting, computer skills

Weaknesses: Can be bossy, doesn't listen to Davis, afraid of heights, panics when anything happens to Kari

Past: As a young child, Azukia had strange powers. When she got very angry or sad, things around her would explode or otherwise be destroyed. One day, when she was shopping with her mom, she saw some strange, enormous creatures fighting and then the subsequent destruction of Highton View Terrace. When her mom sees the destruction, she assumes that Azukia has done something again. Azukia decides that she was seeing things and that she did, in fact, cause the explosion of the bridge. When she went to school, she kept to herself and didn't speak up in class. She did not want to make any friends that she might accidentally destroy. Her reserved nature, however, didn't keep the school bullies from her harassing her, but there was nothing for Azukia to do but take the abuse quietly. Then, the school year before the 01 events, two people stand up for her when she is being bullied. These two turn out to be Matt Ishida and Sora Takenouchi. Azukia avoids them at first, but they are persistent. Soon, they and their other friend (and Azukia's neighbor), Tai Kamiya, are her best friends.

01: Azukia goes to summer camp with her friends and has a great time meeting new people. She becomes especially fond of Matt's younger brother, TK. When it starts snowing, Azukia assumes that her strange powers are at it again, but dismiss this theory when she gets transported to another world. There she meets her digimon partner, Nyamon, who soon digivolves into Nekomon. Nekomon, along with Agumon, is the first to obtain her Champion form when she digivolves into Starmon. Azukia gains her Crest of Harmony and Nekomon attains her Ultimate form, Cosmicmon, when Azukia tries to stop a very destructive battle between high level digimon and gets hurt.

In the final battle with Etemon, Azukia joins Tai in trying to defeat them. The rift created by Cosmicmon and Metalgreymon's attack causes a rift and Azukia and Tai are sucked back into the real world with Koromon and Nyamon.

There, Azukia meets Tai's little sister, Kari. The pair instantly hit it off and Azukia begins to treat Kari. Azukia and Tai relax and have fun, but become alarmed when digimon start showing up in the real world. They receive a message from Izzy telling them not to come back to the Digital World.

Azukia and Tai know they have to get back, but do not know how. Walking outside, they meet Ogremon and their digimon digivolve, creating another dimension rift. They go through it and end up in the Digital World once more.

They find that months have past since they left and the team has all but split up. Working with Tai, Azukia gets TK and Emi back on the team and then Joe and Matt. Soon the team is together once more. When they find out that there is 12th Digi-Destined child, they head back to the Digital World. There, Azukia finds her mother and explains what really happened that day that the bridge exploded. She tells her everything about digimon and where she has been. But before her mom can reply in anyway, she is killed by Miyotismon.

Working out the prophecy, the team decides that Matt, Tai, and Azukia should be shot by Angemon and Angewomon's arrows. Through this, Nekomon gains her Mega form of Hevemon.

After the battle, they had back to the Digital World again. Azukia is still depressed about her mom's death and distances herself from everyone again. Tai and Matt have a major fight and Azukia is unable to stop it. The team begins to break up and Azukia feels like it is her fault.

Joe, however, convinces her otherwise. Along with the rest of the group, they explain that her positive personality and courageous spirit have helped them get through a lot. Azukia begins to perk up just in time to save a Gotsumon from destruction at the hands of Puppetmon. Gotsumon travels with Azukia and helps her out of jams when Nekomon cannot.

She helps Emi when Emi gets upset after Matt yells at her. Azukia takes a more active role as leader whenever Tai isn't around. She also helps Matt and Joe get Sora out of her dark cave and return in time for the battle with Piedmon.

After the final battle against Apocalymon, Azukia bids a tearful goodbye to Nekomon and Gotsumon. She gives them both scarves she got in the real world. She was originally going to give herself one, but felt that Gotsumon deserved it.

Just as they leave, Tai and Azukia make a promise to protect each other and each other's families should they ever come back to the Digital World.

Movie: Azukia is seen in the second part of the movie, helping Tai with the problem online. While frustrated with his fight with Sora, Azukia agrees to lend a hand. She gets in the way sometimes, however, when she refuses to let Izzy do the computer things and makes fun of him.

About two months before the events, she finds out she has a sister, Ashlyn, who is now living with her in the apartment next to Tai and Kari. Ashlyn cannot help because she is at a party with Kari and does not have a digimon anyway.

Nekomon is downloaded along with Tentomon and Agumon. She digivolves into Starmon and attempts to digivolve into Cosmicmon, but is attacked before she can. Azukia is forced to watch while Agumon and Gabumon do the heavy battling.

Afterwards, Azukia helps Tai and Sora make up.

In May of 2000, Azukia goes to the Digital World and gives up her Crest of Harmony to free the Digimon Sovereigns. As a result, Nekomon loses the ability to become Cosmicmon and Hevemon.

02:In the second season, Azukia is 17 and a junior in high school. She is more mature and is much more open to meeting new people. Her relationship with Izzy has improved, but they still bicker quite often. She also seems to have developed a crush on Tai.

On her first day of school, her digivice activates and she returns to the Digital World through unknown means.

Azukia remains a key part of the Digi-Destined team this time as well, like Casey and Izzy. She takes a more active role than Izzy, however, as she goes into the Digital World and fights alongside the others. She eventually gets her own Digi-Egg, allowing Nekomon to digivolve into Nigieriamon.

Azukia's younger sister, Ashlyn, also becomes a Digi-Destined. Her digimon is Puppymon and she and Nekomon do not get along, adding to Azukia's headaches of trying to keep everyone together.

Azukia seems more willing to work with the new Digi-Destined than Emi, but still gets frustrated when they are unwilling to do as she says. The few times that Kari is in danger, Azukia has flat out panic attacks.

When Ken turns good, Azukia refuses to let him join the team and gets very upset with Emi when she finds out the younger girl has been hanging out with Ken behind her back. Eventually she does accept the boy into the group.

When Ken and Davis first fight about whether or not allowing him on the team in the Digital World, Ashlyn and Azukia get upset with each other as well, each having opposing views. When it comes time to act, though, Dogmon and Starmon DNA-Digivolve into Dianomon.

Azukia has a party on her birthday and Sora, Matt, and Tai end up staying later than the rest of them.

Tai tells her that he wants to give her her present out on the balcony, so Azukia follows him outside.

There he kisses her and admits that he has feelings for her. From then on, the two are dating.

On Christmas day, Azukia goes with Tai, TK, and Ashlee to Paris to help the Digi-Destined of France to catch the digimon that had ended up in the real world as a result of Arukenimon opening all of the Digi-Ports at once.

In the Other World, Azukia is subjected to MaloMyotismon's illusion: that her parents were alive again and they were a family once more. Yolei and Casey help her break free of this illusion, though, and she helps in the final battle.

Future: In the epilogue, set 25 years in the future (year 2027) Azukia and Nekomon run a computer programming and repair service, dubbed "Neko-Neko Computer Services". Nekomon helps immensely with this, as she can plug in plugs that no one else can see. She is married to Tai and has one daughter, Terri, who has a Koromon.

Hobbies: Recording, Computer Graphics, Photoshopping, saving the Digital World

Talents: Recording, Computer Graphics, Photoshopping, saving the Digital World, being able to see the bright side of things

Weaknesses: Very shy around Joe, sometimes to the point of being unable to act or help someone, slightly stubborn

Past: Casey did not see the battle at Heighton Pass since she didn't move to from France to Tokyo until after it. Her cousin, Mimi, saw it, though, and tells her the story. Casey believes her will fiercely defend Mimi when people laugh at her for it.

01: Casey went to summer camp with her cousin, Mimi. Though she tended to hang out with Mimi more than the others, she became good friends with Izzy, Azukia, and Tara. She also develops a crush on Joe and a paralyzing fear of speaking to him. She was transported to the Digital World with the rest of the gang and meets her partner, Arfmon, there. Arfmon soon digivolves into her rookie form, Aoimon. Casey is seen as one of the most level-headed of the group, not flying into panics like Joe, complaining like Mimi, or heading straight into danger like Azukia or Tai. Casey thinks about what she does before she does it, but she doesn't mind following Tai's lead.

Aoimon eventually digivolves into Houndmon to help Mimi and Togemon get out of a fix. Unlike the other digimon, however, she stays in her champion level. Although perplexed, Casey just decides to go with it. Casey also gains her Crest of Loyalty when she stands up for Joe when the rest of the group are getting upset with him. This allows Houndmon to digivolve into Seriiimon.

Casey sticks with the group in the Dark Masters saga, despite Mimi leaving. Casey helps find her cousin in time for the final battle against Piedmon.

After winning against Apocalymon, Casey bids a heart-felt goodbye to Houndmon, promising to never forget her.

Movie: Casey only is spoken word through other characters in the second part of the movie. It seems that she won a CD design contest and is in America meeting the band she designed it for.

In May 2000, Casey arrives in the Digital World and gives up her Crest power to free the Digimon Sovereigns. As a result, Houndmon loses the power to become Seriiimon.

In the second part of the movie, she goes with Kari, TK, and Emi to visit Mimi in America. When their ride is destroyed by a virus-infected digimon, they have to go on foot. They meet up with others in time to help battle.

02: Casey does not appear until a quarter of the way through the second season as she is interning with a record company in America. When she does return, she is given a new digi-vice and meets up with Houndmon again. She also gains her Digi-Egg of Loyalty, allowing Houndmon to Armor Digivolve to Gargoylmon.

After the Digimon Emperor Saga is over, Casey states that she doesn't care on way or the other if Ken decides to join the group. When it turns out that several of her friends are in danger, Houndmon DNA-Digivolves with Growlmon to become Vicramon.

As it turns out, Joe's friends end up forcing him to go to a dance. He denies that he has anyone to go with, causing Azukia to hit him upside the head and tell him that Casey has had a crush on him for years. He was completely oblivious and ends up taking her to the dance.

On Christmas day, she goes to Australia with Joe, Cody, and Ashi to help the Digi-Destined of the Pacific round up the wild Digimon who had appeared on Earth as a result of Arukenimon opening all the Digi-Ports.

In the "Dark World" Casey is subjected to Myotismon's illusion: That she has a younger sister that adores her. Leodramon and Nigeriamon snap her out of it, though, and she uses the power of the dream world to defeat the final enemy.

Future: By the year 2027, Casey is the CEO of a record company. She has trouble sometimes, though, with Houndmon scaring away any customers she deems unworthy. She is now married to Joe and has one son, Nathan Kido, who has an Arfmon.

Hobbies: Teasing people, talking to Benjamin, listening to music, saving the Digital World

Talents: Saving the Digital World, reading, writing

Weaknesses: Short temper, afraid of bugs, teases to show affection

Past: Tara was the first child born to unenthusiastic parents. Despite the fact that they didn't really want to raise a family, they gave it a shot with Tara. A year later, they had another daughter, Mae, who died during birth and they gave up and left Tara with a nanny named Benjamin, only phoning to check on their daughter once a year.

When Tara was about 4, Benjamin told them she was lonely. In response to this, they adopted another, older girl, for Tara to play with. A year later, Tin-Tin died of illness. Hearing this, her parents adopted a 16 year old boy, Charlie, for Tara. Tara and Charlie both saw the battle at Heighton Pass. A few weeks later, Charlie left for school on his motorbike and turned to wave back at Tara. While he was doing this, he had an accident and died. This time, her parents adopted a younger boy, Naru, for Tara. By this time, Tara was so sick of it that she didn't bother getting to know Naru and the pair never got along.

01: Tara is sent to summer camp so that she can learn to make friends with children her age. Tara quickly bonds with TK and the two have a blast at camp, planning to make a snowman when it starts snowing. When they are taken into the Digital World, Tara meets her partner, Chibimon, who soon digivolves into Canimon. Shortly after, Canimon gains her Champion form of Ceremon.

Eventually, Tara gains her Crest of Graciousness and Ceremon digivolves into Setmon when Tara thanks the group of digimon that were protecting them.

During the months that Tai and Azukia are in the real world, Tara finally makes friends with Emi. The two of them and TK form their own sort of band until they are found by Azukia and Tai and convinced to join the team once more.

Back in the real world, Tara gets along quite well with the 12th Digi-Destined, Kari.

Back in the Digital World, Tara is horrified at the fight that erupts between Tai and Matt. When Emi thinks about leaving the team after Matt, Tara is the one that convinces her otherwise.

During the final battle with Apocalymon, all seems lost. Just when they are about to lose, though, Tara's digivice begins to act funny. Setmon digivolves into her Mega form of Draggamon and deals the final blow. But in the process, she destroys herself, and Tara's digivice and Crest. Tara disappears from the Digital World, forgetting along with everyone else that she was ever there.

Movie: Tara is seen in the third part of the movie, showing up to help Kari, TK, Emi, Casey, and Willis with the virus problem.

02: Tara seems to matured the least since the original series. She still loves to have fun and can put a positive spin on nearly everything. She also has developed a habit of teasing people to show affection. Tara meets with TK and Emi again at the beginning of a new school year. Although none of them recognize or remember each other, they are in the same class and Tara is in the computer club with Yolei, Ashi, and Cody.

She follows Davis to the computer club room after school when she finds out something called the Digital World in in danger. Admant that she goes if Davis goes, Tara is still surprised when some green object ends up in her hands. She is informed that it is a digivice and runs out to show Yolei and Cody, missing out on going to the Digital world that day.

The next day, she goes to the Digital World and finds her Digi-Egg of Graciousness and Canimon. Canimon's appearance triggers her (and all the other Digi-Destined, present or no) memories of her past. Tara uses the egg to digivolve Canimon into Draggamon. Draggamon explains that after subsequent destruction, Draggamon became no longer her mega form, but her armor form.

Because Tara is Emi's best friend, she spends a lot of time with Matt. After a little while, Matt starts using Tara as a sort of shield against June. Whenever June asks Matt to go somewhere with her, he says that Tara and he are already going and they do.

Eventually, Tara gains her Digi-Egg of Responsibility, allowing Canimon to Armor Digivolve into Mechaneodracamon.

When Ken becomes good again, Tara flat refuses to accept him a team member, even after the rest of them seems to have accepted him.

When the team gets trapped in a large house with enormous bug digimon on it, Tara has a panic attack, which causes the rest of them to nearly be destroyed. Ashlee snaps her out of it and then Ceremon and Spiramon DNA-Digivolve to Mechayoumamon.

On Christmas day, she goes to Mexico with Matt, Emi, and Ken to help the Digi-Destined of Mexico round up the wild Digimon who had appeared on Earth as a result of Arukenimon opening all the Digi-Ports.

In the "Dark World" Tara is subjected to Myotismon's illusion: That she and Charlie meet again and she is able to apologize for causing his death and he forgives her. Eventually she breaks free and helps use the power of the world to destroy him.

Future:By the year 2027, Tara and Canimon are famous actors and script writers. She is married to Matt and has one son and a daughter (twins), Oliver and Carrie.

Enemies: Devimon, Myotismon, The Dark Masters, the Digimon Emperor

Romantic Interest: Ken Ichijouji

Spouse: Ken Ichijouji (Later)

Children: Twins Sam (Son) and Kimmi (Daughter) Ichijouji

Neices/Nephews: Oliver and Carrie Ishida, Joey Takashi, Amy Izumi

Hobbies: Sleeping, hanging out with her digimon, saving the Digital World, and playing soccer

Talents: Saving the Digital World, playing soccer

Weaknesses: Sometimes too compassionate and will forgive and forget too readily, very saracastic

Past: When Emi was really young, she watched the Parrotmon and Greymon fight with Matt and TK. Shortly after, her parents split up. Her mom took TK and her dad took Matt and herself. Emi was upset that she didn't get a desicion in who she got to with and ended up her father because Matt was the only who could get to calm down.

01: At the age of 10, Emi went to camp with her big brother. She felt really uncomfortable around them, espically TK even though he was her twin. Emi was also jealous that Matt was giving TK so much attention.

She became a Digi-Destined and met her partner, Sunmon. He digivolved into Coronamon later on, then into his champion form of Firammon. Emi ended up becoming good friends with Tara (who was the only other girl her age since Kari hadn't been found yet) and, like most of the girls her age, looked up to Azukia.

She gained the Crest of Compassion when she showed Compassion towards a digimon that had previously been her enemy. This allowed Coronamon to achieve his Ultimate level, Flaremon.

While Tai and Azukia leave, the rest of the group splits up. Although Matt still watches out for Emi and TK, the pair form a group of their own with Tara. When Tai and Azukia return, Emi joins up with them. When they go to the real world, Emi meets up with her mother for the first time in years. Like Matt, she dislikes it, but she wants to earn her Crest and tries as hard as she can to be friendly.

Back in the Digital World, Matt meets up with Cherrymon and blows up with Tai. He also tells Emi he is sick of her being so clingy and that he rather she would go live with TK since apparently neither of them need her. This breaks Emi's heart, but Tara and Azukia convince her not leave the team and Coronamon helps her realized that she didn't need her big brother around all the time. She has friend within the group.

Emi gets seperated from the group a little later on and struggles with her need to be around Matt or at least other people. She realizes that she is still upset about her parents' split and that she had been trying to cope by doing everything with her big brother. Emi realizes that she needes to give everyone space and learn to be her own person. She finds the team again in time for the final battle, but ends up being turned into a key-chain.

Emi also forgets her friendship with Tara since Tara's digimon gives herself up completely to save them from the final boss.

When she leaves, she is very distraught that she has to leave Coronomon behind. He reminds her that she promised to stop relying so much on others and Emi agrees. She gives him her sky blue arm band as symbol that the promise will continue even when they don't see each other anymore. Coronomon always has that arm band on, even in other evolutions from that point on.

Movie: In first movie, Emi is with TK and Matt at their grandmother's house. When they are contacted by Azukia, Emi joins her brothers in finding a computer to help. She can't help much, however, and has to watch Coronamon lose in his battle against the virus. She is one of the many viewers around the world who watched the final battle between Omnimon and Diaboromon.

In May 2000, Emi arrives in the Digital World and gives up her Crest power to free the Digimon Sovereigns. As a result, Coronamon loses the power to become Firammon.

In the second movie, Emi is in America, going to visit Mimi with TK, Kari, and Casey. They encounter Willis, Terriermon and Wendigomon. While on a train for Colorado, their train is hindered by Wendigomon so they have to continue on foot. They managed to join the others during the fight with Cherubimon.

02: Four years later, Emi decides to once and for all try to stop relying so much on Matt. So she announces she is moving in with TK and her mom. She moves just in time to start a new school with TK. On the way there she meets Yolei, Ashi, and Cody (who live in her building). She also re-meets Tara, although neither of them recognize her.

Emi is even more sarcastic then she was originally and openly antagonistic towards those she doesn't like (mainly Yolei). She refers to the new Digi-Destined as "Newbies" and frequently berates Yolei for being whiney. She and Tara are best friends again and when Ashlee joins the group, she becomes friends with her as well.

Emi also finds her Digi-Egg of Compassion, which allows Coronamon to digivolve into Leodramon. At one point, the Digimon Emperor uses a Dark Spiral to take control of Emi. She cannot help much, however, since she made sure Cornamon could back home safely. A few days later, the team rescues her.

When a girl named Miyu shows up, Emi and TK try to help her find her way back to her boarding school. Their mom, however, decides to become Miyu's foster mom since Miyu's adopted parents have abandoned her. Emi thinks Miyu is crazy and is a bit resentful that Miyu has to stay in her room, but soon the two become friends.

Emi, being the Digi-Destined of Compassion, immediately wants to forgive Ken for being evil and accept him into the group. This is the first time she and Davis agree on something which freaks both of them out, but also begins Emi's respect for Davis as a leader.

Emi becomes Ken's best friend and when his grades start slipping, the news media blame her for distracting him. She starts developing feelings for him as she sees him interact with the rest of the group.

On Christmas Day, Emi goes with Ken, Matt, and Tara to Mexico City. Matt and Tara end up kissing and Emi tells them to get a room. They find this amusing and Emi gets frustrated and tries to ignore them. Ken comes over and thanks for being his friend through everything and admits that he likes her. They end up holding hands.

On December 30th when they go to the alternate dimension, Emi is trapped in vision like the rest of the group. Emi's vision is that she has completely stopped relying on Matt and he admits that she has grown up. She breaks free and helps in the final battle.

Future: In the epilogue, set 25 years in the future (year 2027) Emi becomes soccer player for the Japanese Women's soccer team. She is married to Ken and has a twins: a son (Sam), with a Sunmon, and a daughter (Kimmi) with a Leafmon.

The scars around her eyes and from her chin to her stomach are a result of this. When she was about 5, her parents signed her up for kendo and Ashi made good friends with her instructor and his grandson, Cody Hida.

In August 1999, Ashi and Cody were in an airplane on the way to a kendo competition that was attacked by Kuwagamon and was saved by Kabuterimon and Garudamon. As a result, Ashi became a DigiDestined.

02 (First Half): Ashi obtains her D3 and Digi-Egg of Innocence during the first week of school. She also meets her digimon partner, Rikumon, for the first time. Shortly after, Ashi began to frustrated with the older kids on the team not trusting her, but Cody's grandfather helped her understand that she should just trust herself and do what she believes is right. Later, the team meets Digitamamon who, at first, seems mean, but then expresses that he wants to be a better person. Ashi doesn't really trust him, but decides to give it a go. When Digitamamon hurts Mimi, though, Ashi yells at him, saying she doesn't understand and that she wants to believe in him. This activates her Digi-Egg of Belief, allowing Rikumon to Armor-Digivolve into Kiswaniimon and defeat Digitamamon.

Movie: Getting a distress message from Kari, Ashi goes to America with the other DigiDestined to help her, Casey, Emi, and T.K. But on the way, they met Willis, a DigiDestined from Colorado, whose rogue Digimon partner (Kokomon) was the cause of it.

02 (Second Half): When Ken starts to undo the damage he did as Digimon Emperor, Ashi trusts him and wants to him to become part of the team. Cody, however, feels differently. Ashi doesn't want to get into a fight with her best friend and decides to bring it up. Soon, Emi and her digimon DNA-Digivolve into Ultraleomon.

When Arukenimon starts to deposit dark spores into children, Ashi accidentally gets infected. She starts to get very withdrawn and snappish, eventually refusing to speak to even Cody and Rikumon. Eventually the rest of the team is able to bring her back to her normal self.

On Christmas day, she goes with Joe, Cody, Casey, and their Digimon to Australia to help the DigiDestined of the Pacific round up the wild Digimon who had appeared on Earth as a result of Arukenimon opening all the Digi-Ports.

At the Other World, Ashi subjected to MaloMyotismon's illusion. Her desire is to win an international kendo competition. Rikumon appears to explain how the effect is not real and Leodramon appears to take her back to the other kids, who are in the process of breaking free of their illusions.

Ashi uses the power of the dream dimension against MaloMyotismon, making his desire for justice come true, with Raikodemon, Mikarimon, Kiswaniimon, and Ultraleomon appearing all at once.

Future: By the year 2027, Ashi has opened her own very popular kendo studio. She is married to Cody and his triplets, one son with an Upamon, another son with a Rishumon with, and a daughter with an Upamon.
